Saved Him From Torture.

There is no more agonizing trouble than piles. The constant itching and burning make life intolerable. No position is comfortable. The torture is unceasing. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures piles at once. For skin diseases, cuts, burns, bruises, all kinds of wounds it is unequalled. J. S. Geall, St. Paul, Ark., says: "From 1865 I suffered with the protruding, bleeding piles and could find nothing to help me until I used De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. A few boxes completely cured me." Beware of counterfeits.

A valuable six-year-old horse, owned by Rev. John H. Barney, died from blood poisoning on Monday night, at the home of Hon. W. H. H. Foor, in Ray's Cove. Three weeks ago the animal was kicked by another horse, and although the injury was seemingly a slight flesh wound, it developed into something serious, terminating disastrously. Rev. Barney keenly feels the loss, as it was the only animal he had, and he is thus left in a sorry plight for the time being.

Knobsville.

Hon. John Fore is still on the sick list. He does not appear to improve very fast.

The auction at Mrs. Margaretta Hamil's is well attended.

Mr. Charles Fore is going into the mercantile business.

Mr. Bert Henry, wife, and son Pierce took a sled load down to Mr. Michael Knuff's last Tuesday evening, consisting of Miss Mary Hamil, Mr. Frank Fore and sister Miss Katie, Mr. George Fox, wife, and daughter Hilda, and Mr. Frank Henry. All enjoyed themselves very much, as the Misses Knuff just know how to entertain pleasantly.

The revival at the U. B. church has closed.

The sleighing is about worn out, but some places the ice is very thick. One young lady says it will not all get thawed out till next June. We are hoping for more snow for "Mam" promised us a sleigh ride.

Bert Henry is driving his mules. They look like rabbits, except their long tails. Bert is a jolly, good fellow. He took a sled load up on the Ridge to Mr. Jacob Wingo's last Sunday.

We are expecting to hear wedding bells every day. Don't keep us waiting so long.
