He was 5 hours and 20 minutes coming from Tyrone via Harrisburg to Mercersburg, a distance of 185 miles, and 5 hours and 40 minutes, by mail back from Mercersburg to McConnellsburg, a distance of 10 miles.

Little Hancock.

We have never seen "Little Hancock" in print, so I thought I would send you a few locals.— This enterprising city is located along the sunny banks of Licking Creek, three miles south of Owl Creek, two miles east of Pleasant Ridge, and forty miles from no place.

Joseph B. Mellott our popular huckster was at the County Seat Monday, and had to take an extra man along to steer him through the mud.

Miss Sadie Fohner, who is making her home with her grandmother Mrs. Martha Deshong, had a very painful tooth extracted recently. Richard Schooley Owl Creek's enterprising dentist, did the work.

Grandmother picked her goose at a lively rate last Wednesday, throwing down a snow 18 inches deep. It is the deepest snow that has fallen here for many years.

Dr. S. S. Hoop, Owl Creek's enterprising physician, is very busy at the present time dealing out his big bitter doses to the many sick folks.

Martin Reed and son, Owl Creek's saw mill men, who are sawing a large tract of timber for Conrad Sipes of Pattersons Run, moved their saw mill from one side of Stone Ridge to the other, where they have a fine lot of timber. Mr. Reed and son have a lot of fine lumber for sale at Owl Creek.

Mrs. Collie Reed of Owl Creek recently finished piecing a quilt which has 10,550 patches in it. It is 6x8 1/2 feet square without the border. Who can beat it?

William Hockensmith is very busy at present hauling logs to Owl Creek, where Mr. Reed and son are going to saw in the near future. Persons wishing to have timber sawed should not miss this opportunity.

Fort Littleton.

John E. Locke who was home on a visit returned to his work at Braddock last Saturday.

Mr. Elijah Baldwin has been right sick for a few days.

Lashley.

Mr. Jacob Barney, of Kansas, who has been visiting relatives and friends in this community, will leave Monday for Cumberland, where he will spend a few days, and then start for his western home. Mrs. Albert Everett spent several days with Mr. Adam Shank last week. Rev. A. R. Garland was at Samuel Hendershot's Saturday night, and preached Sunday morning at the usual hour at the Christian church. Roy Scriver is confined to his bed with consumption. W. P. Lashley had an auction last Saturday, and is selling out. He says the goods must go. He has rented a house in Cumberland, and expects to keep boarders. He will leave the first of May. We are sorry to see him leave, but wish him success. Miss Blanch Hendershot will leave this week for California, Pa., where she will engage in dressmaking. Mr. W. L. and Clay Hendershot, and Wm. Scriver will leave this week for Mopessen, and also Nettie Hendershot will go to Sewidly.

John E. Locke, of Pittsburg, spent last week at home with friends at Fort Littleton. Thursday he spent a few hours in town. He says that quite a number of Dublin township young men have employment at Pittsburg, and are all doing well.

Joseph L. Richards, of near Big Cove Tannery, was at the mill the other day and took home with him the flour of six bushels of wheat. Of the flour the family baked a nice lot of brown loaves of good bread; and whether it snowed or didn't snow, it looked as though there would be plenty to eat in that family for weeks to come. But one can never tell just what will happen next. That night some hungry midnight prowler went to the Richards home, and while the family were enjoying peaceful slumber, stole the flour and nearly all the bread.

Sipes Mill.

George S. Mellott spent Sunday with Anthony Mellott.

We are glad to learn that Miss Maggie Daniels has returned to the school room again.

Albert Akers, who has been in Pittsburg, is home on a visit.

Singing at Ebenezer was well attended last Sunday evening.— There will be singing at that place every Sunday evening in this month.

Our friend Anthony Mellott was snowed up in the Cove last week. He reports the snow was two feet, and mud three feet, deep. That takes a good horse to get through it, Anthony says, but "Robert J." is the one.

By the appearance of things in this vicinity, there will be some weddings soon.

Howard C. Mellott, who sprained his ankle a few days ago, says it is getting better. Look out for him now, girls.

Miss Ada J. Swope is able to be out again.

While Mr. E. W. Swope was on his road home last Saturday evening he discovered a strange animal in the road. He got a shillalah and meant to make war, but he soon discovered from a peculiar odor in the air, that it was best not to be too familiar.

The School Miss of Sipes Mill got on a horse last Thursday morning, and jumped down to see how deep the snow was. As her head only, was above the snow, she concluded that it must be about four feet deep.

Thomas Mellott chased a coon across Scrub Ridge mountain to the foot of Sideling Hill last Saturday.

Frank Spade of Emmaville, made a flying trip to M. E. Bard's last Saturday. He reports good sleighing.

Amos N. Mellott spent Sunday at John Hollenshead's.

Surgeon's Knife Not Necessary.

Surgery is no longer necessary to cure piles. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures such cases at once, removing the necessity for dangerous, painful, and expensive operations. For scalds, cuts, burns, wounds, bruises, sores, and skin diseases it is unequalled. Beware of counterfeits.

Needmore.

The roads are almost impassible on account of mud and snow. We were isolated from the outside world last week by being without mail two days—the longest time since we have had a daily mail. W. H. Hess of Thompsons, has been spending several days with friends in this vicinity.

Dr. Swartzwelder was called to see Mr. Israel Hill, who is in a critical condition. Dr. Fisher of Warfordsburg was in town Sunday evening, and came near having to walk home. His horse got loose, but remembering that the Doctor had forgotten his gum boots, stopped at a neighboring barn. Misses Olive and Clyde Hess went to Philadelphia last week. Mrs. Dennis Mellott has been ill for the past week. Calvin Mellott who has been suffering from a cut on his knee continues quite ill. John Carnell has moved into the "Mill house" owned by Charles Kershner. Rev. Baugher has taken up his abode within the "city's limits."

Raw or Inflamed Lungs.

Yield rapidly to the wonderful curative and healing qualities of Foley's Honey and Tar. It prevents pneumonia and consumption from a hard cold settled on the lungs. All dealers.

Saluvia.

Miss Ethel Hays of Everett was the guest of Mrs. E. R. Austin Monday night. Miss Hattie Betz left last Monday for Shippensburg, for an indefinite visit with her sister, Mrs. H. K. Stevens. Harvey Strait, who had been called to Shippensburg last week by personal interests, was delayed by the storm until the first of the week. Geo. A. Harris returned from Chambersburg Monday. Charlie Wink and family spent last week at the home of Mrs. Wink's parents Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Mellott. They had expected to leave for Ohio, this Monday; but owing to the storm, their departure has been postponed for several days.

Pneumonia Follows A Cold.

But never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough, heals and strengthens the lungs and affords perfect security from an attack of pneumonia. Refuse substitutes. At all dealers.

Quite a number of our people are going to Orbisonia to work in the furnace. Among those from the Cove are Clarence M. Unger, Elijah Knable and his sons, Clarence, Walter, and Will.

A Horrible Outbreak

"Of large sores on my little daughter's head developed into a case of scald head," writes C. D. Isbill of Morgantown, Tenn., but Buckden's Arnica Salve completely cured her. It's a guaranteed cure for Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Pimples, Sores, Ulcers and Piles. Only 25 cents at W. S. Dickson's.

Brush Creek.

The sale of Mrs. Nancy Akers' personal property; and, also, the real estate of W. A. Akers, deceased, was held last Saturday. Quite a crowd of people were there. N. B. Jackson purchased the farm. Oliver Holly has purchased the farm of H. E. Akers near Akersville. Our schools are now closed on account of an epidemic of scarlet fever. Clark Barton's youngest child, Lulu, aged about three years, died of scarlet fever last week. Her two little sisters are quite low with the same disease. P. V. Barton visited Whips Cove from Saturday till Monday. M. P. Barton was calling on friends in the vicinity of Emmaville Saturday and Sunday.

Working 24 Hours a Day.

There's no rest for those tireless little workers—Dr. King's New Life Pills. Millions are always busy, curing Torpid Liver, Jaundice, Biliaryness, Fever and Ague. They banish Sick Headache, drive out Malaria. Never gripe or weaken. Small, taste nice, work wonders. Try them. 25c at W. S. Dickson's.

Cito.

One of the greatest storms of the season passed over our town Wednesday.

Messrs. Leonard and Frank Bradley of Mercersburg, were "snow bound" at Mr. J. W. Johnston's.

Our school teacher, Mr. E. B. Truax, spent Saturday and Sunday at Joseph B. Mellott's.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Peck spent a few days with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Peck, last week.

William Paylor's sale was postponed until March 18.

Murray Ray's family moved to Mr. A. W. Johnston's on Tuesday, March 11.

Mrs. Anna Everts spent Saturday and Sunday with her son, Amos Seville, near McConnellsburg.

For The Complexion.

The complexion always suffers from biliousness or constipation. Unless the bowels are kept open the impurities from the body appear in the form of unsightly eruptions. DeWitt's Little Early Risers keep the liver and bowels in healthy condition and remove the cause of such troubles. C. E. Hooper, Albany, Ga., says: "I took DeWitt's Little Early Risers for biliousness. They were just what I needed. I am feeling better now than in years." Never gripe or distress. Safe, thorough, and gentle. The very best pills.

Sales Postponed.

Owing to the big snow storm last week the public sale of Wm. H. Paylor in Ayr township was postponed to Tuesday March 18, and that of Frank Fore in Tod township to Tuesday March 14. The date of Newt Summer's sale has been changed to Wednesday, March 19.

Foley's Honey and Tar Cures coughs and colds. Cures bronchitis and asthma. Cures croup and whooping cough. Cures hoarseness and bronchial troubles. Cures pneumonia and la grippe. All dealers.
