FIFTY YEARS AGO.

ber Wm. P. Schell as one of the most prominent. Another was John H. Fuller. He became editor of the Fulton Republican. James B. Boggs came from Greencastle. He was a jolly good fellow, but didn't seem to care whether he got any practice or not. It was hard picking for these young fellows as there was not much litigation. Fuller and Boggs both eked out a living by teaching in the town school. The big lawyers from Bedford and Chambersburg came down to attend the courts and picked up the best cases. Among these were John Cessna, the Barclays, J. K. Mower from Bedford, and Wilson Reilly from Chambersburg. Cessna and Reilly afterwards both became members of Congress. Cessna was a Democrat at that time. I have heard some fine speeches in the court room as well as in the political arena from these two men.

As I know from experience that editors do not like too long articles I will close this and add some more at another time.
