

Memorial Day.

Memorial Day will be observed by services in the Court House on May 30, under the auspices of King Post. Addresses will be delivered by M. R. Shaffner, Esq., and Hon. S. W. Kirk. Mrs. Geo. W. Reisner, assisted by a choir of young ladies, will furnish music during service. The Sunday Schools with their teachers are requested to attend and assist in the distribution of flowers at the ceremonies.

Committee on flowers: Mrs. Lou Jackson, Mrs. N. Roetger, Mrs. Fred Black and daughter, Mrs. Abram Runyan, Mrs. Jas. Ruml, Mrs. E. Ruml, Mrs. Matilda Helman, Mrs. Chas. Bender, Mrs. Henry Comer, Mrs. D. S. Flock, Mrs. D. T. Fields, Mrs. Sallie Cook, Misses Nellie Comer, Myrtle Comer, Grace Shiner, Alice Hamill, Olive Grissinger, Marnie Grissinger, Kittie Cook, and Netha Nesbit.

Services to commence at 1 o'clock P. M.

ELLIOTT RAY, D. C. FLECK, ABRAHAM RUNYAN, D. T. FIELDS, Committee.

To every patriotic citizen of McConnellsburg and vicinity: Memorial Day is the most sacred of the year, and its proper observance, one of the nation's strongest safe guards. It is the nation's Easter when the people are summoned to the patriot's tomb—not with power to stir the encampment of the dead, but by the mystic chords of memory to resurrect the virtues that adorned their lives.

It is the nation's Sabbath when at the shrine of Patriotism all creeds are forgotten and we receive into our hearts a new inspiration to duty. A benediction day to all who observe it in its true spirit and meaning.

No more beautiful or impressive scene could be witnessed than that of a redeemed nation ceasing from its daily toil and gathering around the graves of its founders bearing offerings of flowers and giving suitable expression of the love and gratitude which a great people feel toward those who gave their lives in defense of their country.

To every soldier of the Union it is a day filled with sweet and precious memories. Unlike the dead of other wars, the memory of our comrades never fades. Though unseen by mortal eye, they still walk by our side, and their place in our hearts remains unfilled.

We rejoice as the day approaches, and in their diminishing number lovingly deck with flowers the multiplying graves of comrades. In broken columns and with enfeebled step we still carry the flag they loved so well and march to the same music to which their loyal feet were attuned, our hearts pulsing with joyous pride, as we realize that the memory of those who fell in defence of freedom and right is immortal. May the myriad streams, as they go laughing and sparkling on their joyous journey to the sea, carry some forgotten notes to those who sleep undisturbed in its restless bosom. Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic and kindred organizations and all citizens who sympathize with the spirit of the day are cordially invited to unite with us in the proper observance of Memorial Day. Let the sons and daughters of all soldiers show their presence on that day.

The superintendents of the various Sabbath schools of McConnellsburg are asked to bring the children out on that day, and to march with us to the graves of our dead heroes and strew some flowers there in remembrance of them.

ELLIOTT RAY, Commander King Post No. 165.

Reveals A Great Secret.

It is often asked how such startle-grip cures, that puzzle the best physicians, are effected by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Here's the secret. It cuts out the phlegm and germ-infected mucus, and lets the life-giving oxygen enrich and vitalize the blood. It heals the inflamed, cough-worn throats and lungs. Hard colds and stubborn coughs soon yield to Dr. King's New Discovery, the most infallible remedy for all Throat and Lung diseases. Unreheated bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at W. S. Dickson's.

DR. KING'S TRY NEW DISCOVERY FOR THAT COLD. TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE. Cures Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Pneumonia, Hay Fever, Pleurisy, La Grippe, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Croup and Whooping Cough.

His Conclusion Reached After Personal Experience. "Now, I rather pride myself on my ability to read character," said the man who was given to buying detective tales, "and yet why should I? It is really a very simple thing; requires nothing but close observation. For instance, it is very easy to tell a man's occupation. His facial expression, his actions, even his dress, are stamped by his daily work. You see that man sitting opposite us? Well, I'm just as sure as though he had told me that he is a barber."

"You are mistaken," replied his friend. "That man is a butcher."

"Impossible!" exclaimed the amateur detective. "You never saw a butcher with slim, white hands like his."

"Perhaps not," admitted the other, "but he is a butcher just the same."

"How do you know he is?"

"How do I know? Why, the scoundrel shaved me once."

Three Views of Life.

There is gladness in her gladness when she's glad—

—and there's sadness in her sadness when she's sad—

—but the gladness of her gladness nor the sadness of her sadness is nothing to her mad when she's mad.

Had a Use For Him.

The photographer labored industriously. He got out a jumping jack and various other toys, and in the course of half an hour or so he had the baby crowing and laughing. Then he took the picture.

"You're a wonder," said the father. "I flatter myself," returned the photographer, "that I am pretty good at my business."

"The best ever," asserted the father. "If you can do that with the baby as a regular thing, I'd give you board and lodging free just to have you in my house nights."—Chicago Post.

His Tenure of Office. "So you're going to keep Bill Husker in congress?"

"We are," answered Farmer Corn-tassel. "We don't want him around here. He was so slick that he didn't give anybody a show in a horse trade or anything else, and he got so uppish that it ground us to have to travel on the same road with him. You kin bet he'll stay in congress. We couldn't indict him nor have him kidnaped, and we've got to get rid of him somehow."—Washington Star.
