The proprietors of Foley's Honey and Tar do not advertise this as a "sure cure for consumption." They do not claim it will cure this dread complaint in advanced cases, but do positively assert that it will cure in the earlier stages and never fails to give comfort and relief in the worst cases. ### Poisoning the System.

It is through the bowels that the body is cleansed of impurities. Constipation keeps these poisons in the system, causing headache, dullness and melancholia, then unsightly eruptions and finally serious illness unless a remedy is applied. DeWitt's Little Early Risers prevent this trouble by stimulating the liver and promote easy healthy actions of the bowels. These little pills do not act violently but by strengthening the bowels enable them to perform their own work. Never gripe or distress.

A six-inch pipe line was laid under the Mississippi river at New Orleans last week under the direction of Charles T. Sloan of Buffalo. ### A. B. SHAFER KILLED.

Son of Uncle John G. Shafer at Needmore.

From the Florence Iowa Times, July 3.

Our community was shocked and sorrow-stricken last Thursday afternoon upon hearing that Mr. A. B. Shafer had been accidentally killed by being caught between a threshing engine and the separator. He had gone out to Jacob Watermiller's place at Bailey's Grove with Henry Stroemer and Julius Preibe, to help run the outfit in from there. Mr. Shafer was backing the engine up to couple onto the separator. The engine came back with a sudden lurch, catching him between the boiler and the feeder of the separator, and killing him instantly. The accident happened at 3 o'clock.

Messrs. Stroemer and Preibe both had very close calls, Mr. Stroemer being on the platform with Mr. Shafer, and only by jumping did he save his life.

Mr. Shafer was a native of Virginia, coming to Hancock county with his family several years ago, first locating in Garner, afterwards removing to Klemme, being one of the first to start in business here. He leaves an aged father and mother in Pennsylvania, who sadly mourn the loss of an only son; also a loving companion who became his wife in youth; one daughter at home and three married daughters, all residents of Klemme.

A wide circle of friends extend their sympathy to the bereaved ones in their sad hour of affliction. A large delegation of the G. A. R., also the W. R. C., and Society of Mystic Workers, together with the many friends, composed the vast audience which attended the funeral services held at the Eng. M. E. church, conducted by the pastor, after which the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Garner. The church was beautifully decorated by loving hands and the floral tributes from the societies and friends were fine.

Abdon Barnhart Shafer was born Jan. 24, 1848, at Morgantown, W. Va. He received his education at the public schools, after which he taught school until he was married. He was converted at the age of 19 and united with the Goshen Baptist church. He served four years in the war of the Rebellion enlisting at the age of 13 years and 8 months, going as a drummer boy. Sept. 6, 1868, he was married to Miss Priscilla Holland. Five children blessed this union the only boy dying in infancy. Four daughters are left to sustain the wife and mother in her declining years.

A Mother's Love.

The following tribute to mothers should be read by every young man:

"The person to whom you owe more than you can ever pay, or even imagine, is your mother. She endured more for you, served you more patiently, loved you more constantly, and hoped for you more bravely than any other person you have known on earth or ever will know, save your wife or your husband, if indeed, they can always be excepted. If your mother be spared to you, then are you bound to make her a first charge on your life, as you desire a peaceful conscience and as you shall answer before the judgment seat of God. She must be encompassed with every observance of comfort and honor and gentleness and love, with sacrifices, also, if so be it will please her, of tastes and occupations and time, and even friendships, and after you have done all that you can think of, and any one suggests, you will still remain a hopeless bankrupt for the love wherewith she loved you."
