CLEVER MR. FOX.

The fox about which I am going to tell you and his mate had two young ones.

One day off he started, after telling the little ones to be good and not worry their poor mother.

Now, it won't pay to go near the barnyard again to day. They will surely be on the lookout for me.

Still he wouldn't give up. "I've seen boys fishing with lines," he meditated.

He recovered himself, and said seriously, "I must catch some more for the children."

The little foxes did like them very much, and soon the whole catch had disappeared.

"But still, you know," said Mrs. Fox, "that won't last us till tomorrow."

So away went Mr. Fox again. "Children are a great care," he sighed.

A Texas farmer fell sick through overwork and hired temporary help.

"Ha! ha! ha! here's luck!" he cried, and capturing several, he scampered away.

But while running along he thought, "If I take these fish home my wife may complain."

He was troubled, and sat down to reflect. While wondering whether he had better take the fish-heads home or not.

problem. "I have it," he gleefully cried, as he suddenly spied a hollow tree.

At once he went to work and placed the fish-heads temptingly in a row before it.

The crows kept circling about the spot, attracted yet fearful. As the fox had disappeared they became bolder.

Off he started for home, dragging his crows after him. "Won't my good wife be glad?" he thought.

And she was. For now the whole family dined well, and still something was left for the morrow's breakfast.

"You really are the wisest fox I ever knew," said Mrs. Fox, admiringly.

"I think perhaps I am up with the times," answered Mr. Fox, in a very self-satisfied tone.

Saves Woman's Life.

To have given up would have meant death for Mrs. Lois Cragg of Dorchester, Mass.

BRAINS AND BRAWN.

Many farmers, ambitious to succeed, sacrifice their best years in hard physical labor.

He recovered himself, and said seriously, "I must catch some more for the children."

If you could hire a man to work a month for $20, but do the work yourself instead, you earn the $20

Mother Always Keeps It Handy.

"My mother suffered a long time from distressing pains and general ill health due primarily to indigestion," says L. W. Spalding.

LARGE IMMIGRATION.

The immigration statistics for the year, which closed on May 30th last, shows that during that period nearly half a million people from foreign countries came to the United States.

When you are suffering from rheumatism, the kidneys must be treated at once so that they will eliminate the uric acid from the blood.

Treat Your Kidneys For Rheumatism.

Naturally, Britons are much exercised over the possibility that these greyhounds under their flag will be unable to help protect the flag in case of war.

THE BOOKS WHICH HELPED LINCOLN.

It is frequently said that the young people of to-day read too many books. It is not difficult to believe this when one remembers what strong types of intellectual greatness have been developed through the thorough study of a very few of the masterpieces of literature.

Vacation Days.

Vacation time is here and the children are fairly living out of doors. There could be no healthier place for them.

MEANING OF SHIP TRUST.

The American Shipping Trust seems to have disturbed nearly the whole of the British Empire, but more especially certain elements in Great Britain and Canada.

Two Bottles Cured Him.

"I was troubled with kidney complaint for about two years," writes A. H. Davis, of Mt Sterling, Ia., "but two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure effected a permanent cure."

GOOD ADVICE.

It is as easy to be a rich man as a poor one. Half the energy displayed in keeping ahead that is required to catch up when behind would save credit, give more time to attend to business, and add to the profit and reputation of those who work for gain.

When Other Medicines Have Failed.
