THERE SHOULD BE NO FLAT CHESTED WOMEN.

The flat-chested, or worse yet, hollow-chested girl, ought to be ashamed of herself. She stoops or she does not breathe properly. To straighten herself is her first duty to her health and to society. And it is the simplest thing in the world as well as one of the most important to fill out the hollows in a sunken chest and to develop the lungs, and thus do away with most of the coughs and colds that sap so much of the trip to Three Springs on Saturstrength of many women, even at this time of year.

To "transform" a hollow chest: Stand in a doorway, placing the flattened palms of your hands on the casings just at the height out removing your hands, walk through the door. Do this forty live stock. times night and morning. You will be amazed to see how your chest will rise. You'll look like a grand opera singer in a few months. Any exercise that sends | T. R. R. the shoulders back and brings the chest muscles into play is helpful and good. When you begin treatment measure yourself just under the arms. In six weeks' time measure again. You'll have a surprise party.

Sung By "Little John" Peck.

(The following hymn was sent us by a subscriber with a request to publish it in the News, as it was one often sung in his singing schools by Little John Peck. "Little John" has been dead about 28 years, but is well remembered by nearly all the older folks. -Editor.]

The line to Heaven by Christ was made. With heavenly truth the rails are laid From earth to Heaven the line extends To life eternal where it ends.

Chorus.-We're going ficme, we're going hom-We're going home to die no more. To ale no more, to die no more, We're going home to die no more.

Repentance is the station then Where passengers are taken in. No fee for them is there to pay For desus is, Himself, the way,

The Bible then is engineer. Through tunnels dark and dreary here. It does the way to glory steer God's Love's the fire, His Truth the stea Which drives the engine and the train; All you who would to glory ride.

Must come to Christ, in Him abide. In first and second and third class-Repentance. Faith, and Holiness. You must the way to glory gain Or you with Christ can never reisn.

Come then, poor sinner, now's the time. At any place along the line-If you repent and turn from sin. The train will stop and take you in The depots' built on solid ground,

No earthly power can tear them down. The train is coming right at hand. No switch is there for us to tend. There's but one track from end to end; When the alarin bell rings to tell.

Look out and all things will be well. No curves on this celestial way-Tis' safe to run by night or day.

Are you in haste bright beaven to gain. Be sure and take the express train

When we get to our final home. The track is left and more can come And that is sound and won't decay And will be to the judgment day.
