TAKE CARE OF THE STOMACH.

The man or woman whose digestion is perfect and whose stomach performs its every function is never sick. Kodol cleanses, purifies and sweetens the stomach and cures positively and permanently all stomach troubles, indigestion and dyspepsia. It is the wonderful reconstructive tonic that is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by conveying to their bodies all of the nourishment in the food they eat. Rev. J. H. Holladay, of Holladay, Miss., writes: 'Kodol has cured me. I consider it the best remedy I ever used for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. I was given up by my physicians. Kodol saved my life. Take it after meals.'

JAPANESE DENTISTS.

The Japanese dentist does not frighten his patient with an array of steel instruments. All his operations in tooth drawing are performed by the thumb and forefinger of one hand. The skill necessary to do this is acquired only after long practice, but when once it is obtained the operator is able to extract half a dozen teeth in about thirty seconds without once removing his fingers from the patient's mouth. The dentist's education commenced with the pulling out of plugs which have been pressed into soft wood; it ends with the drawing of hard pegs which have been driven into an oak plank with a heavy mallet.—Indianapolis News.

CURED HEMORRHAGES OF THE LUNGS.

"Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages," writes A. M. Ake of Wood, Ind. "I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit. I then started to take Foley's Honey and Tar and my lungs are now as sound as a bell. I recommend it in advanced stages of lung trouble." All dealers.

RULE ON CREDITORS.

In the Court of Common Pleas of Fulton County, The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, County of Fulton, ss.

At a Court of Common Pleas held at McConnellsburg in Fulton County, Pennsylvania, before the Honorable S. McE. Swann, J. and Lemuel P. Kirk and David A. Nelson, Esqs., Associate Justices of said Court, on June 10, 1902, the petition of W. S. Smith of Washington county, Md., was presented setting forth: That H. C. Smith of the township of Ayr, in the county of Fulton, Penna., died on the fourth day of March A. D. 1902, and died intestate and assigned for the benefit of creditors to James Henry, George B. Daniels and S. W. Kirk, conveying to them all his property and as all the property of H. C. Smith and Co. (his wife Elizabeth joining with him in the said deed) and in and by the said deed made, executed and delivered by the said H. C. Smith and Elizabeth (his wife) for themselves and H. C. Smith, for H. C. Smith & Co., the said H. C. Smith alleges that the petitioner, W. S. Smith is a partner in the said firm of H. C. Smith & Co. and thus representing the petitioner, as interested, as a partner in the said firm of H. C. Smith & Co. The petitioner further represents that he was never associated with the said H. C. Smith as a partner in any business whatsoever, that he was not a partner in the firm of H. C. Smith & Co., that he had no interest, whatever in the firm of H. C. Smith & Co., that he never entered into partnership with the said H. C. Smith, or gave him permission to use his name in any way as a partner in the said firm of H. C. Smith & Co., or to use his name in the said deed of assignment, and that the name of your petitioner was placed in the said deed of assignment without his knowledge, consent and without any legal warrant or authority to do so, that he never knew that his name was in any way used or connected with the firm of H. C. Smith & Co. as a partner, and never was a partner in the said firm or business carried on under the name of H. C. Smith & Co. And further the petitioner represents and expects to be able to prove that the name of W. S. Smith, the petitioner, was included in the said deed of assignment as a partner of said H. C. Smith & Co. by mistake or inadvertence.

And therefore praying the court to strike the name of the petitioner from the said deed of assignment, as though the name of the petitioner had never been included in the same. Whereupon June 10, 1902, within petition read and considered and rule on assignees, James Henry, Geo. B. Daniels, and S. W. Kirk, and also the creditors of the said estate to show cause why the name of W. S. Smith should not be stricken from the deed of assignment returnable October Term next. Service of this rule on creditors to be by publication.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of the said court at McConnellsburg, this 1st day of July A. D. 1902.

FRANK P. LYNCH, Prothonotary.

PERSIMMON AS AN EDIBLE FRUIT.

Why is it the persimmon is not more highly regarded as a fruit? True, it is difficult to get it at just the right stage to avoid the "pucker," but well ripened and frosted fruit most persons would surely consider delicious and worth a little trouble to produce. Possibly it is because the ripe fruit is difficult to handle.

What is known as the Japanese persimmon is more encouraging to grow than our native ones, in respect to the size of the fruit, being fully twice as large. But it will not thrive farther north than Philadelphia, and even there it is uncertain. The flavor is a little less sweet, but with less "pucker."

Of late attention has been given to the improvement of our native persimmon, and it has been attended by more or less success. Some are almost or entirely seedless, and absence of most of the puckering is noticeable. One promising variety has been named Gold Drop, for which it is claimed earliness coming into bearing, extreme hardiness, unusually large and good shape, fine, yellow color, flesh melting and with little pucker when ripe.

The American persimmon makes a handsome tree ornamentally considered. It has dark green leaves that remain on late in the fall.—Mechans' Monthly.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION PROPOSED BY THE CITIZENS OF THIS COMMONWEALTH FOR THEIR APPROVAL OR REJECTION BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA.

A JOINT RESOLUTION Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth. Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, that the following be an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eightheenth article thereof: Amendment: Add at the end of section seven, article three the following words: "Unless before it shall be in the General Assembly, such proposed special or local law shall have been first submitted to a popular vote at a general or special election in the locality or localities to be affected by its operation, under an order of the court of common pleas of the respective county after hearing and application, and shall have been approved by a majority of the voters at such election. FEET SWOLLEN TO IMMENSE SIZE.

"I had kidney trouble so bad," says J. J. Cox of Valley View, Ky., "that I could not work, my feet were swollen to immense size and I was confined to my bed and physicians were unable to give me any relief. My doctor finally prescribed Foley's Kidney Cure which made a well man of me." All dealers.

IN THE GOOD OLD DAYS.

A letter written sixty-one years ago brings forcibly to view the change in medical practice which has occurred during that period. The writer was the nine year old daughter of a clergyman, and she describes how the doctors dealt with her father in case of sore throat. First they bled him, the next day they gave him calomel and jalap, and the third day they dosed him with a powerful emetic. The effect upon the good clergyman is shown in a letter from him dwelling upon the unsatisfactory state of his spiritual condition and rejoicing that life is short, so that the end at the most will soon come. There is unconscious humor in the apparent absence of any suspicion that the doctors had anything to do with his state of spiritual gloom. As he lived forty-five years longer and to the age of eighty-five it is apparent that he had a constitution which was too much even for the old school doctors.—Chicago Journal.
