Found Lewis's Money.

The following special sent from Hancock, under date of 22d inst., appears in the city papers:

"About fifty years ago Lewis, the robber and highwayman, of Fulton county, Pa., buried a whiskey bottle containing 100 $50 bank notes and some $5 gold pieces in a field near Rays Hill. He did not carefully mark the place, and never recovered his buried treasure.

"Saturday H. F. Mellott plowed up the bottle. He did not notice the bottle until about to cover it with a second furrow.

"Lewis was one of the most noted highwaymen and counterfeiters that ever operated in Fulton county. He kept himself hid in caves in the mountains when pursued by officers, and in one almost inaccessible cave he operated a complete counterfeiting plant."

Of course it's all true, or the Hancock correspondent wouldn't say so."

Mr. Guthrie is a well known business man of Indiana, at which place they will make their home upon their return from the wedding trip.

A New Jersey Editor's Testimonial

M. T. Lynch, Editor of the Philadelphia N. J. Daily Post, writes: "I have used many kinds of medicines for coughs and colds in my family but never anything so good as Foley's Honey and Tar. I cannot say too much in praise of it."

James Harris of Potts Mill was among those who remembered us in a substantial manner last Saturday. He said some fellow who shot at a flock of wild turkeys in one of his fields one day last week, missed the turkey and hit one of his sheep, crippling it badly. It is bad enough to trespass on a man's land and try to kill game out of season, but to kill or maim stock pasturing in an enclosure on one's farm is beyond the limit of forbearance.

Doctors Could Not Help Her.

"I had kidney trouble for years," writes Mrs. Raymond Conner of Shelton, Wash., "and the doctors could not help me. I tried Foley's Kidney Cure, and the very first dose gave me relief and I am now cured. I cannot say too much for Foley's Kidney Cure." All dealers.

Used For Pneumonia.

Surprise Party.

Saturday evening while E. C. Hendershot of Union township, was gunning, about sixty of his friends gathered at his home to celebrate his birthday.

Everything was put in readiness; and when Elmer returned, he was greatly surprised to see his many friends.

After partaking of a delicious cup of tea and a nice piece of cake, the floor was cleared, and until the faithful time piece told the hour of midnight, the young people enjoyed themselves to the utmost.

Mrs. Hendershot deserves much praise for her kindness.

Elmer is a jolly boy and one who is always ready to meet you with a smile, and crack a joke; and is, also, one of Union's most successful teachers and deserves the kindness shown him. He was the recipient of several nice presents.

A Sad Disappointment.

Ineffective liver medicine is a disappointment but you don't want to purge, strain and break the glands of the stomach and bowels. DeWitt's Little Early Risers never disappoint. They cleanse the system of all poison and putrid matter and do it so gently that one enjoys the pleasant effects. They are a tonic to the liver. Cure biliousness, torpid liver and prevent fever.

Needmore.

The public school opened here Monday morning, and the bright faced little urchins were hustling around before your scribe had her breakfast. Each wanted to be on hand first so as to have choice of seats.

Andy Mellott took a bunch of fine cattle over to Franklin county this week.

Little Esther May, daughter of Thompson W. Peck, fell from a bench last Sunday cutting an ugly gash in her head which struck a sharp stone. We hope she may soon be able for school.

Miss Minnie Funk's many friends will be pleased to learn that she is now rapidly convalescing from a protracted attack of typhoid fever.

Elder T. N. Alderton who was enroute to the Union Meeting at Trough Creek, preached here on Monday evening.

Squire T. P. Garland's new house is nearing completion. When finished, the Seat of Justice will be removed to the suburbs.

Miss Emma Pittman of Hagers-town, Md., spent Saturday and Sunday with friends here.

Miss Olive Hess who is employed as cashier in a meat market in Philadelphia, came home last Wednesday, being called hither on account of the serious illness of her uncle, William H. Hess, of Thompson.

The loafers in the stores here fell over themselves in their haste to get out the other evening to see Job Bernhart's corn harvest. Mr. Bernhart need not fear to go into the field in the daytime with a machine that does its work as well as that.

Dr. Job B. Mellott recently sold his farm to Job L. Plessinger for six hundred dollars.

Uncle John Shafer's health has so much improved that he is able now to drive out in his buggy.

Not Doomed For Life.

"I was treated for three years by good doctors," writes W. A. Greer, McConnellsville, O., "for Piles, and Fistula, but, when all failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me in two weeks." Cures Burns, Bruises, Cuts, Corns, Sores, Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Piles or no pay. 25c at W. S. Dickson's drug store.

Rev. Horace G. Clair, pastor of the St. Thomas and Rocky Spring Presbyterian churches, has resigned to accept a call of Millers-town Presbyterians, who have been without a pastor since the death of Dr. Alexander. The closing services of his pastorate at Rocky Spring was held last Sabbath afternoon at 3 o'clock. He has been the pastor of Rocky Spring and St. Thomas churches for five and a half years. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Clair of this place join in wishing them a pleasant home in their new field.

Lingering Summer Colds.
