The Path We Should Follow.

I'll climb that golden stairway, Till I reach the height of fame, And when I reach the top-most round I'll have an honored name.

No matter how the way may seem, Nor how dim the light may shine, But our path in time may beam With the light in course of time.

Oh! young men, I pray thee, Make your way so bright That your descendants may follow you In the paths of right.

We know not when the day may come— But I sure to come in time; So why not make this life of ours A life of great sublime.

Do not think me conceited, In saying these few lines; For often I've repeated To younger men in time.

Some young men go unbecoming, Through this bright world of ours, And from the right path receding, Go to the drunkard's bower.

Oh! this disdainful habit, That's brought ruin to their souls, May they shrink from the filthy habit, And begin again as whole.

May some young man heed this, Who has lost his precious years, And now resolve to repent of it— Repeat with bitter tears.

Oct. 16, 1902. M. S. N. S. NATURAL ANXIETY.

Mothers regard approaching winter with uneasiness, children take cold so easily. No disease costs more little lives than croup. It's attack is so sudden that the sufferer is often beyond human aid before the doctor arrives.

Such cases yield readily to One Minute Cough Cure. Liquifies the mucus, allays inflammation, removes danger. Absolutely safe. Acts immediately. Cures cough, colds, grip, bronchitis, all throat and lung trouble. F. S. McMahon Hampton, Va.: "A bad cold rendered me voiceless just before an oratorical contest. Multitudes are singing the praises of Kodol, the new discovery which is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by digesting what they eat, by cleansing and sweetening the stomach and by transforming their food into the kind of pure, rich, red blood that makes you feel good all over. Finally I was induced to use Kodol and after using four bottles I am entirely cured. I recommend Kodol to all sufferers from indigestion and dyspepsia. Take a dose after meals. It digests what you eat.

THOUGHT HUNTER A TURKEY.

George H. Buffington of Mechanicsburg, was shot in mistake for a turkey while hunting in the mountain near Dean's Gap. He had secreted himself along a path turkeys were said to frequent. Thinking his position not as good as one nearby he shifted to another spot. A gunner some distance away, noticing the commotion in the bushes and seeing a moving figure, mistook Buffington for a turkey and pulled the trigger. The contents of the gun struck Buffington in both legs, midway between knee and hip, inflicting very painful wounds. Five of the shot, almost as large as buckshot, entered the right leg, which is the most badly injured, and two the left leg.

NEVER ASK ADVICE.

When you have a cough or cold don't ask what is good for it and get some medicine with little or no merit and perhaps dangerous. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar, the greatest throat and lung remedy, it cures coughs and colds quickly. All dealers.
