George C. Leader, a highly respected citizen of Bedford, died at his home in that place on the 6th inst. Since the burning of the bridge at the Narrows near Bedford, west-bound travelers leave the pike at the south end of the bridge and go around by Dunning's Creek bridge. The toll-house is just across the river at the south end of the burned bridge. Travelers amuse themselves now, says the Bedford Gazette, by stopping and calling to the gatekeeper to come over and get the toll. As the good natured toll-gatherer cannot fly and does not fancy a swim through the ice-cold river, he does not accept the invitation.

Haven't you a son, a daughter, a brother, or some other friend that has left the home nest and gone out into the world to fight the battles of life? And are you not at this season of the year puzzling your brain to know what pleasant little reminder you may send that will help to strengthen the ties that bind him to home and to home friends? It is the experience of most people that the matter of finding the money to pay for a Christmas present is not always as difficult as it is to decide just what to get. We want to help you out of the dilemma. Just send us a dollar bill and the address, and we will send him a copy of the FULTON COUNTY NEWS that will keep him informed of all the happenings of his old home county and friends, and will be a source of new pleasure to him each week throughout the whole of next year.

Foils a Deadly Attack. "My wife was so ill that good physicians were unable to help her," writes M. M. Austin, of Winchester, Ind., "but was completely cured by Dr. King's New Life Pills." They work wonders in stomach and liver troubles. Cure constipation, sick headache. 25c at W. S. Dickson's drug store.

Fifteen Carloads of Peanuts. H. C. Heckerman, Bedford's wholesale grocer, has made that enormous purchase, which amounts to three thousand five hundred bags of four bushels to the bag, making fourteen thousand and bushels. Mr. Heckerman will use these in packing his Fort Bedford brand of package peanuts, which he now sells to the jobbers in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, and North Carolina and on which he has a very large sale. He reports that at present he is between four and five hundred cases behind with orders.

honesty, but are the first to go in for plunder whenever they have an opportunity of reaching the public purse."

The Democratic ticket to be voted at the fall election of 1843 in Bedford county appears in the Gazette in regular sale bill type, and among the names we find that of James J. Kirk, father of Associate-Judge Lemuel Kirk of this county, and a of our relative Assemblyman, S. W. Kirk. The Gazette has this to say of Mr. Kirk:

"JAMES J. KIRK is a working man, and resides in the glorious Township of Bethel, which is generally termed the 'Berks of Bedford County.' He possesses in a pre-eminent degree sound and practical information, and, by his honesty and talents, will, if elected, adorn the station of a Legislator, and thus enable his constituents to point to their representative with pride and pleasure.—The qualifications, experience and devotion to Democratic principles of Mr. KIRK pointed him out from among his neighbors as the man who, in the halls of Legislation, would add weight and dignity to the deliberations of that body. Although Mr. Kirk is not generally known throughout the county, this will not in the least detract from his merits, because it is well known that those who make their living by honest industry, have very little opportunity to become generally acquainted. Mr. Kirk is beloved by his neighbors, and the vote he will receive in old Bethel where he has resided for years will fully exhibit this fact. The Democracy of Bedford county may rest assured that in him they will find everything they desire, either as a good citizen or a faithful representative."

Of course, Mr. Kirk was elected, and proved by his fidelity in filling his office that the Gazette had not overestimated his ability. About one-third of the paper is devoted to advertising matter, a whole column being used to bring "Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills" to the attention of a confiding public, and gives the names of James Austin & Son at Licking Creek [Harrisonville], John Nycum at Rays Hill, and Work and Beckwith, McConnellstown, [McConnellsburg]. Among the notices we see that Elias Wink, late of Belfast township, Bedford county, deceased, has purchased the place of the said deceased and requests all who have a lawful interest in said estate to come forward immediately and receive their share of the money. The "place" to which reference is made is the stone-house farm now owned by D. A. Fisher, near Gem.

George Metzler gives notice that on or about the 8th day of August, 1843, a brindle steer came to his premises at Licking Creek [Harrisonville], Bedford county, with the letters S. & M. on the right horn, and a slit in each of the ears. The owner is requested to come forward prove property and take him away.

Henry Duffy, of Bedford, offers a reward of six cents for the apprehension of James Kelly an apprentice, says Kelly is very worthless and that neither thanks nor charges will be given for bringing him back.

Mark Dickson, our Mark's grandfather, bears testimony to the value of a cooking stove as follows:

"Having had in use since January last one of Hathaway's Patent Hot Air Cooking Stoves, it affords me pleasure to add mine to the numerous certificates already given in favor of the excellence, and I may say, so far as my knowledge extends, decided superiority of this Stove over all others at present in use. I need not particularize its merits, but advise all disposed to possess an article of the kind, to adopt the best method of satisfying themselves, and that is to TRY IT.

MARK DICKSON. McConnellsburg, Aug. 25, 1843.

A Timely Topic. At this season of coughs and colds it is well to know that Foley's Honey and Tar is the greatest throat and lung remedy. It cures quickly and prevents serious results from a cold. All dealers.
