A. J. Mellott. The Merrill (Iowa) Record has this to say about J. Calvin Hoke, a former McConnellsburg boy: "J. C. Hoke, who has been cashier in the Farmers & Merchants bank here for the past four years, resigned his position last week to accept the one of traveling auditor for the Farmers Loan and Trust company of Sioux City."

This company has twenty-one banks in northwestern Iowa and it will be Mr. Hoke's business to visit these banks and audit their accounts at least once a year.—Mr. Hoke has rented a house in Morningside, Sioux City, and will move there the first of the year. He began his labors for the company last Monday. Mr. Hoke is a splendid citizen and a kind neighbor and we regret to see him go. We offer congratulations, however, on his rapid advancement in the business world."

When You Come to Chambersburg Just go up Main street till you come to Queen street Right at Bloom Bros.' corner turn to the west half a block and you will come to a modern 3-story cream-colored brick building. Step inside and you will find the nicest rooms, and the largest stock of good furniture and its belongings, to be seen in the Cumberland Valley. You will find many articles here that you do not see in other stores. There has been a furniture store on this spot for 75 years and yet there are many of the younger people and some others who don't know it. That is the reason we are telling you about it. About a block farther, on the bank of the Conococheague, whose water drives the machinery, you will find our factory; where with skilled mechanics and seasoned lumber we can make almost anything you may require. COME TO OUR STORE and look around—Much to see that is interesting even if you don't want to buy. We want you to know what it is and where it is. Open till 8 o'clock in the evening now—Saturday till nine. H. SIERER & CO., Furniture Makers on Queen Street. Chambersburg, Pa.
