H. H. Bridenstone, one of our merchants, will have auction on Saturday, June 6th, closing out and moving to Indiana county to engage in same business. While we are sorry to lose him from our town, we hope our loss may be his financial gain.

On account of rain there were no Memorial services held in our Valley. M. R. Shaffner, Esq., who was to be the orator of the day, did his part faithfully by driving through rain forty miles to accommodate our good people—and all to no avail. Surely he possesses grit of the proper degree. "Thanks," Bro. Shaffner, we will give you another opportunity in the future.

Why let your wife break her back washing the old way when you can buy the Vandergrift Rotary washer best on the market, at Berkstresser's store for $6.25.

Alouzo Barnhart's hand, which was so badly mutilated by a saw some time since, is so far improved that it gives him very little pain. He was sworn in for one of Uncle Sam's mail carriers Monday morning. Soon every man in the community will have had a turn at the mail business.

Last Wednesday evening, while Master Floyd Hart was at play with some other children, in running was thrown violently on the hard ground, striking his head with such force that he was rendered unconscious, and remained so until the next morning. Dr. Sappington was called, and pronounced his injuries not so serious as was at first feared. However, he is almost deaf in one ear, and still complains of a very sore head.
