THE JUNE TERM OF COURT

The Hagerstown Loan, Building and Construction Co.'s Case Took Up Most of the Time.

FULL REPORT OF THE PROCEEDINGS.

Seven adult spectators and the usual court officers were in attendance when the regular June term of the Fulton county courts opened here Tuesday morning. There was but little business on the calendar. President Judge Samuel McC. Swope and Associates Kirk and Nelson presided. The following current business was transacted:

The first and final account of D. W. Kelso and Geo. W. Wagner, executors of the estate of J. A. Hammil, late of Tod township, was confirmed absolutely.

Second and final account of Mrs. Lizzie Knass, one of the executors of the estate of Henry Oyler, late of Tod township. No exceptions were filed, and S. W. Kirk, Esq., was appointed auditor to make distribution.

First and final account of Mrs. Mary H. Fagley, administratrix of Mrs. Anna Folmer. Confirmed and John P. Sipes, Esq., appointed auditor to make distribution.

Account of George W. Glenn, administrator of the estate of Mrs. Rebecca Carbaugh, late of Ayr township. Confirmed and S. W. Kirk, Esq., appointed auditor to make distribution.

A process was awarded for the arrest of George Walker unless he satisfy certain costs before June 13, 1903.

There were exceptions to the report of John P. Sipes, Esq., auditor to make distribution in the assigned estate of H. C. Smith, and the court fixed Monday, June 29, 1903, at 2:30 p. m., as the time for hearing argument in the case.

Account of Elsie Greathed, administratrix of the estate of Hepzibah Greathed, late of the borough of McConnellsburg. This is the contested will case that has been before the court several times and which was compromised at a recent term. Frank P. Lynch was appointed auditor.

Sheriff's inquisition on real estate of Matthew W. Mellott was confirmed and the usual rule on heirs granted.

Same in the estate of John Daniels, late of Licking Creek township.

Petition of Marie and John Daniels, minor children of John Daniels, for citation, awarded returnable in 30 days.

The return of the sale of real estate of the late Josiah Speck, of Taylor township, was confirmed.

Mr. Kirk presented a certificate of incorporation of the Fulton County Rod and Gun Club. The court decreed and approved the charter. The incorporators are Harry E. Schneider, Ed. T. Drew, Clarence S. Daugherty, Charles Sprowl, P. J. Little.

Report of viewers to inspect new county bridge at Maxwell's Fording. Exceptions were filed to the report because the bridge was incomplete, the approaches not having been properly filled in. A new board of viewers was appointed.

Inventory and appraisal of the estate of David Fraker, late of Dublin township. Approved unless exceptions be filed within 20 days.

The master's report in the divorce proceedings of John G. Sipes vs. Lucy L. Sipes, his wife, was presented. The master recommended that the divorce be granted as prayed for. The court took the papers in the case, intimating that the decree would be made.

Master's report in the divorce proceedings of Josephine D. Mellott, who seeks a separation from her husband, Raynard Mellott. They were married Nov. 11, 1898, and lived together eleven months. She charges her husband with intimacy with another woman. A decree of divorce was made, as recommended by the master.

Middle States Loan, Building and Construction company, of Hagerstown, use of John W. Woodland, vs. John Henry and Sarah Henry. Case called and argument made. To be decided at chambers.

LIFE PARTNERSHIPS.

Union of Well Known People Who Will Journey Through Life Together.

BARTON—MELLOTT.

At six o'clock in the evening of Wednesday, June 3, 1903, at the M. E. parsonage at Breezewood, Mr. Jesse C. Barton of Akersville, and Miss Iva Mellott of Gapsville were united in marriage. The bride was handsomely gowned and looked very pretty. The happy couple are both excellent young people and have the best wishes of their many friends.

BARTON—HANKS.

The residence of N. B. Hanks, Esq., near Emmaville, was the scene of a wedding last Wednesday which was witnessed by seventy-five people. The ceremony was performed at noon and made Miss Nellie Grant Hanks the bride of Mr. Marshall P. Barton. The marriage service was conducted by the Rev. C. H. Campbell, pastor of the Ray's Hill Methodist Episcopal church, and almost at the moment when Miss Hanks' hand was laid in that of her future husband, a clock in the room musically chimed the hour of twelve. The parlor was prettily decorated, cut flowers and evergreens being everywhere in evidence. Miss Jennie Lodge of Emmaville, attended the bride as maid of honor, and Mr. Norman Akers of Sipes Mills filled the role of best man. As the bridal party entered the parlor the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss Clara Hanks, sister of the bride, were borne out upon the noontime breeze. Miss Hanks wore a handsome gown of white silk mull trimmed in all over lace. The maid of honor was attired in white crepe de chine.

An excellent dinner, of which all present partook, following the ceremony. Among those in attendance were Dr. J. G. Hanks, wife and daughter Helen, of Breezewood; Mrs. John Sheets, of McConnellsburg; Mrs. Blackheart and grandchildren, of Elkkins, West Virginia; A. H. Whetstone and wife, Charles P. Ott and wife, Harry O'Neal and wife, Boyd S. Jackson and wife of Everett; Scott Fletcher and family, of Bedford; Misses Lydia and Ella Mann of Saluvia; S. W. Hart and family; C. R. Akers and sister of Akersville; Mason Barton, father of the groom; Charles W. Truax, Norman Akers, Howard Dickson Amos Hixon and wife, George W. Hixson, wife and family, W. J. Hixson and wife, F. M. Lodge and wife, Mrs. E. H. Lodge and family, M. W. Hixson and wife, J. C. Hixson and wife, Harry M. Barton and wife, John M. Lodge, Jr., C. W. Spade and wife, and Mrs. Irene Truax.

A Costly Mistake.

Blunders are sometimes very expensive. Occasionally life itself is the price of a mistake, but you'll never be wrong if you take Dr. King's New Life Pills for dyspepsia, dizziness, headache, liver or bowel troubles. They are gentle yet thorough. 25c, by all druggists.

In pursuance of an opinion given by Professor Martin, one of the assistants to Professor Bullock, of John Hopkins University, that gas exists near Cumberland, Md., a company will be organized at once and a well begun. Professor Martin, there, states that gas will be found at a distance of from 2200' to 3000 feet. A well was sunk in that locality ten years ago and abandoned after going down 2010 feet.

Wanted.

A lot of teams to haul bark to Saltville. Big cash price will be paid. Apply at once to HARVEY COOPER, McConnellsburg.

When the improvements to the residence of Mrs. A. L. Erb are complete it will be one of the noblest homes in town. A handsome porch, a sun parlor with large fancy windows, a balcony, and spire, all the work of Michael Black, and the foundation of cut brownstone placed by David Gress, are strong testimonials of the skill of the those men as mechanics.

WANTED.—1000 chickens at 10 cents a lb., and 5000 dozen eggs at 14 cents a dozen.

The State Department has issued instructions to the County Superintendents to hold their teachers' examinations as soon as possible after the reorganization of the school boards in June. The reason assigned is, that by so doing teachers may not leave their own counties and go away to seek for schools, rather than take the risk of not getting one at home. Superintendent Barton will hold examinations at the close of the Normal schools and will make his annual trip through out the County during the latter half of July.

Sale Register.

Saturday, June 20.—W. R. Speer, executor, will sell on the premises one mile south of Saluvia the Mansion farm of the late James Mammel, deceased, containing 102 acres, more or less about 90 acres cleared and well fenced; also a house and lot adjoining farm. Sale begins at 10 o'clock.
