A. L. Rogers, Chambersburg's photographer, will be at Malloy's in McConnellsburg Monday, June 22, 1903, and all of that week.—Come and bring the children.

Miss Mary Etta Evans is improving slowly. She has been confined to a dark room three or four weeks on account of the over-sensitiveness of the optic nerve to light.

Rev. S. L. Baugher of Needmore, Pa., was a pleasant guest at our sanctum on Monday morning. Rev. Baugher was the guest of Mr. Albert Eshelman a few days.—Everett Press.

Miss Ada Rexroth after completing another term as teacher at Churchville, Pa. is spending her summer vacation with her mother and sisters at the Fulton House.

The work on the Bedford-Fulton Telephone Company's lines is progressing rapidly. About seven miles of poles have been erected between Breezewood and Everett. The wires will be strung as soon as the poles are erected.

Volume 1, Number 1, of the Twice-a-Week Republican, a new paper at Mount Union, is before us. It is published by the Mount Union Publishing Company, Thos. A. Appleby, president; Dr. W. J. Campbell, secretary and treasurer, and George M. Spanogle, editor.

From the Everett Press we learn that the Everett school board has re-elected Miss Sadie Michaels as teacher of No. 1 Primary at a salary of $37.50 a month. They have nine schools, a nine month's term, pay their principal ninety dollars a month, and have a thirteen mills tax.

Old Mother Bedford is going to show her boys a nice time the Fourth of July. She has passed the hat around and now has about four hundred dollars to spend on fireworks balloons and other attractions. Of course, there will be speeches, parades, cannon crackers, a big crowd and—a general jubilee day.

Mr. J. Nelson Mellott of Lyman Pa., was an agreeable caller at this office last Wednesday. Mr. Mellott has spent the last ten years in the railroad mail service, running between Indianapolis Ind. and Pittsburg. The position pays well, and Mr. Mellott had nothing to do to get it but to commit the names and location of ten thousand post offices and pass the Civil Service examination.

Ex-County Superintendent Zumbro of Franklin county, has just been elected principal of the High School at Chambersburg at a salary of $80 a month. Among the other new teachers elected is Miss Blanche Woodal. About the same time Blanche was elected at Chambersburg, she was elected teacher of one of the schools at Windber, but will accept the Chambersburg position. Miss Estella Teeter was elected one of the substitute teachers.

Mary, eldest daughter of Rev. L. Carmon Bell of Greencastle, while visiting the children of Edward Snively, near that town, on Wednesday of last week met with a serious accident. In the afternoon she, with the other children, climbed into the cherry trees for cherries. Losing her balance she fell a distance of 20 feet to the ground and was rendered unconscious. A doctor was summoned and upon making an examination found her badly bruised, although no bones were broken.

There is a general misapprehension in regard to when the school teachers' minimum salary law becomes operative. The general impression seems to be that the new law goes into effect this year. This is a mistake. The law does not go into effect until the first Monday of June, 1904. School boards can therefore fix the salaries for next winter's term at any figure they see fit, without regard to the new law.

Notice to Teachers.
The Borough schools will be given out on the Fourth day of July; and only applications made in writing will be considered by the board.

A. U. NACE,
Secretary.

WANTED.—1000 chickens at 10 cents a lb., and 5000 dozen eggs at 14 cents a dozen.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS

In Annual Convention at Wells Tannery Last Week.

addresses were made by Messrs. Lange and Cork.

Friday morning's session opened by Hon. S. L. Buckley conducting the devotional exercises. Lesson Preparation was discussed by M. R. Shaffner, Hugh Cork Dr. Lange, Rev. Chambers and others. This was followed by an address on Organized Sunday school work by Mr. Cork. We regret that space will not permit to at least give a Synopsis of the talks of our State workers.—Those who missed hearing them, missed a good thing.

Miss Alice Wishart read a most excellent paper on Visitation Methods, and showed how "House to House Visitation" had been done.

The following committees were then announced: On nomination S. L. Buckley, Jacob Strait, A. F. Baker, H. H. Hertzler and E. R. Mellott. Auditing committee G. W. Sipes, S. A. Nesbit, M. E. Barton. Resolutions? M. R. Shaffner, G. E. Clouser and Thomas Ramsey.

Mr. W. H. Spangler conducted the devotional exercises at the beginning of the afternoon session.

Miss Maud Baumgardner took her mother's place on the programme, and by her interesting and instructive paper showed that she was quite equal to the task.

The principal address of the afternoon was made by Dr. Lange on "Keeping Out of the Ruts."

The committee on nominations reported the following named persons as officers of the Fulton County Sunday school year for the ensuing year, and the same were duly elected, namely president, B. W. Peck; vice president, E. A. Horton; recording secretary, Ephraim Mellott; permanent secretary, M. R. Shaffner; primary secretary, Miss Mary Sloan, and treasurer, M. W. Nace.

The church was filled to the extent of its seating capacity Friday evening, and the audience was well repaid for coming out to hear Mr. Cork's address on Planning and Working for Definite Results.
Nine o'clock was now here, and with a few closing remarks the convention adjourned.

A Surprise Party.
A surprise birthday party was given Mrs. Emma Sharpe last Saturday by her sister, Mrs. Agnes Drake, of Oregon.

After an absence of nine years, three of the sisters were together and were sorry the others could not have been with them.

There was a crowd of twenty-two persons went from Knobsville and vicinity. D. R. Gunnells drove the two-horse wagon with a load of eleven. Two buggies and a spring wagon brought up the rear.

All had a very enjoyable afternoon. There was plenty of good things to eat, including lots of ice cream.

A Costly Mistake.
Blunders are sometimes very expensive. Occasionally life itself is the price of a mistake, but you'll never be wrong if you take Dr. King's New Life Pills for dyspepsia, dizziness, headache, liver or bowel troubles. They are gentle yet thorough. 25c, by all druggists.

Mrs. Rebecca Baldwin.
Mrs. Rebecca, wife of Elijah Baldwin died at Fort Littleton, Monday evening aged about 67 years. Mrs. Baldwin was in usual health up to last Friday evening when she was stricken with paralysis. Funeral this Wednesday afternoon. Besides her husband she is survived by one son, and two daughters. John at Burnt Cabins, Rebecca, wife of Elmer Fraker, and Kate wife of Ellis Fraker, both of Fort Littleton.

Wanted.
A lot of teams to haul bark to Salthill. Big cash price will be paid. Apply at once to HARVEY COOPER, McConnellsburg.

Caution.
Notice is hereby given that my wife Sarah Funk, and my daughter, Annie Funk, have left my home without giving any reason, therefore caution and forewarn all persons not to sell to them on any account, as I will pay no debts of their contracting on and after this date,
ELI M. FUNK,
Covalt, Pa.,
June 11, 1903.

Wanted.
Two good girls—one for dining room, and the other for general housework. Good wages, GREENLAND'S HOTEL, 875 Braddock Ave., Braddock, Pa.

NEEDMORE.
"It rains every day," says the growler, "I can't plow my corn." Saturday was a throning day here, but the tax gatherer carried off the cash.

Ensy, daughter of W. H. Wink, who has been confined to her room the past week or two, is convalescent.

Miss Clyde Hess is very little better than when she came from the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Plessinger; of whips Cove, spent a few days last week among their friends on this side of the mountain.

Darlington Hart passed through here Saturday evening on his semi monthly trip. Sharp advised him it was too wet to pick strawberries.

Mrs. Lydia Hess was relieved of her long and tedious suffering by death last Saturday about 5 p. m. Funeral this Monday afternoon at 1 p. m. at Pleasant Grove.

Howard S. Mellott, who had been for some time at work at Riddlesburg, is home again.

A little child of Mr. Geo. Schank's was terribly scalded at Benj. Truax's last Sunday. The accident was caused by the handle suddenly giving way from a coffee pot, throwing the contents all over its face and breast.

Rev. Baugher and Mr. Job P. Garland attended the Sunday school convention over in Bedford county last week.

Sammy Clevenger returned last Monday after a short visit in Illinois.

A nice lot of pine limcklin wood for sale cheap. See A. M. SEVILLE, McConnellsburg, Pa.

A Puzzle That Puzzles.
We all like to puzzle our brains over things which give us certain and strange results, but which we cannot explain. Here's a puzzle that puzzles everybody. Take the number of your living brothers, double the amount, add it to three, multiply the result by five, add to it the number of living sisters, multiply the result by ten, add to it the number of deaths of brothers and sisters, subtract 150 from the result.—The right hand figure will be the number of deaths, the middle, figures the number of living sisters and the left the number of living brothers.

A Frightened Horse.
Running like mad down the street dumping the occupants, or a hundred other accidents, are every day occurrences. It behooves everybody to have a reliable Salve handy and there's none as good as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Burns, cuts, Sores, Eczema and piles, disappear quickly under its soothing effect. 25c, by all druggists.

Spring House Valley.
The colored folks of the Valley had preaching Sunday.

Mrs. Anna Everts spent Sunday with her son Amos.

Dent Gamble is ripping up the lumber in Alex Patterson's woods.

Arthur Seville of Kaskiesville, spent a few days last week with his mother and brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. William Seville recently visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Seville.
