To Prevent Blight in Potatoes. Mr. Emanuel Fagley, near Needmore, one of the most successful potato raisers in the county, says that the blight which so often interferes with the crop, may be entirely averted by making a mixture of one part salt and two parts plaster and dropping a teaspoonful in each hill just at the time the potato is coming into blossom.

Wonderful Nerve. Is displayed by many a man enduring pain of accidental cuts, wounds, bruises, burns, scalds, sore feet or stiff joints. But there's no need for it. Bucklen's Arnica Salve will kill the pain and cure the trouble. It's the best Salve on earth for piles, too. 25c at all druggists.

Somerset Farmers up Against it. Somerset was thrown into considerable excitement recently by the actions of a strange gentleman of portly appearance, an elegant dresser, and of bewitching tongue, who had visited some of the farmers to the number of about ninety, and persuaded them to put up $17.50 each, on the representation that a Union had been formed for the purpose of controlling supplies to all agricultural machines and that our farmers could not obtain such supplies unless they were members of the Union and he demanded the $17.50 as a membership fee from each of them.

All of them had paid the money and came into town for their instructions when one of them grew dissatisfied, employed a lawyer, made a complaint of false pretence before Squire Knable. The stately gentleman was arrested, a hearing had, much eloquence expended and many tears shed, taking up the time almost to the arrival of the train, when his money was refunded to complainant, and the prisoner left town after paying the costs and about a thousand dollars richer than when he came in. The other farmers are still trying to persuade themselves that they have a good thing.—Windber Era.

Catarth of the Stomach. When the stomach is overloaded; when food is taken into it that fails to digest, it decays and inflames the mucous membrane, exposing the nerves, and causes the glands to secrete mucin, instead of the natural juices of digestion. This is called Catarth of the Stomach. For years I suffered with catarth of the stomach caused by indigestion. Doctors and medicines failed to benefit me until I used Kodol Dyspepsia cure.—J. R. Rhea, Coppell, Tex. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Shock of Wheat Earned.

Last Saturday as John Ott who lives on the Trout farm west of town, with his harvest hands were going to the barn for shelter from an approaching storm, a loud crash of thunder caused them to look around, and they saw smoke curling from a wheat shock in the middle of the field. In a moment the shock was all ablaze and was destroyed by fire, it having been ignited by a bolt of lightning.

An Outing Spoiled.

The Everett Republican says that on Tuesday of last week Officer Mills received a telegram from McConnellsburg, Fulton county, requesting him to arrest a colored girl named Mince Spriggs, who was in company with the band of musicians who had been furnishing music in Everett for some days past. The officer drove down the "pike to "Bummers' Rest" at the old toll-gate, where the crowd was stopping, and arrested her and took her to Everett and placed her in the borough lock-up for the night. On Wednesday relatives went to Everett and brought the girl home.
