Didn't Think.

Used to let his poor old mother go and carry in the wood,
She was just a packhorse for him, but he never understood;
Never thought of bringing water from the spring down by the lane,
Or of helpin' her to gather in the clo's before the rain;
Let her keep waitin' on him, though her back was achin' so—
Twasn't 'cause he didn't love her—he just didn't think, you know.
After 'while the weary mother puts her burdens all away,
And we went and heard the preacher praise her poor old soul one day;
And I stood and looked down at her when they pushed the lid aside—
Poor old hands! I didn't wonder that her boy sat there and cried
Just as if he couldn't bear it—just as if his heart'd break—
He had kind of got to see'n what she'd suffered for his sake.
There's a lot of kinds of sinin' that the Good Book tells about—
Sins concernin' which a body needn't ever be in doubt;
But there's one sin that I reckon many a man who doesn't think,
Will be held to strict account for when he goes across the brink—
For the wrong that's done a person by another's want of thought
Hurts as much as though the injured was the victim of a plot!

When a man has more money than he knows what to do with it stands to reason that he isn't married.
A St. Louis woman became ill with nervous prostration from carrying a large sum of money on her person.—Men sometimes become ill from the same cause, but usually their nervous disorder takes the form of delirium tremens.
All a man needs do nowadays to insure his becoming a hero is to practice upon his swimming and go with all the water picnic parties. He can depend on someone's falling overboard or going on beyond his depth while bathing.
Six convicts of the Colorado penitentiary broke out of prison and took with them the warden's wife as a shield from the bullets of the pursuers. The lady fainted and the men ran, but were recaptured. Now, instead of quoting "faint heart never won fair lady," the men are doubtless muttering that "faint lady never won fair start."
Robert, with the garden hose, squirted water up his nose.
Mother ran to fetch the doctor: As for Rob, he only mocked her.

A SURGICAL OPERATION.

Is always dangerous—do not submit to the surgeon's knife until you have tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It will cure when everything else fails—it has done this in thousands of cases. Here is one of them: I suffered from bleeding and protruding piles for twenty years. Was treated by different specialists and used many remedies, but obtained no relief until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Two boxes of this salve cured me eighteen months ago and I have not had a touch of the piles since.—H. H. Tidale, Summerton, S. C. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles no remedy equals DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold at Trout's drug store.

All Sorts of Paragraphs.

Men who make a good canvass ought to go into the tent business.
Quite a number of men connected with the postal department are also shouting, "Hands off!"
"I always give him a wide berth," said the ship's steward, pointing to the fat man as he spoke.
A pugnacious ram is fond of a practical joke. He tries to make a butt of every one he meets.
Bachelors are creatures who have consulted their female relatives before venturing on matrimony.
In the matter of coloring in a storm, it will be found that the wind's blue and the waves rose.
A Texas young lady is named Angelina Acid. Her best fellow speaks of her as his sour wash.
The man who goes to church with squeaky shoes goes to the right place. His sole needs attention.
When Shakespeare said, "There's nothing in a name," he had not yet heard the cognomen of the new king of Servia.
The Bore—Haven't I met you somewhere before?
The Other Man—If you have it was entirely unintentional on my part, I assure you.

Mr. Borem—Yes, I always "pay as I go."
Miss Tyre-Dout—Indeed? And do your creditors never complain about having to wait so long?
A little boy in his night dress was on his knees saying his prayers and his little sister could not resist the temptation to tickle the soles of his feet. He stood it as long as he could and then said: "Please, God, excuse me while I knock the stuffin' out of Nellie."
Little Boy—What's all these women here for?
Little Girl—They've been upstairs to see the baby.
"Babies is plenty 'nough."
"Yes; but this is a new one, an' I expect they wants to see the latest fashion."
He—Reggie Fitzjames has become recklessly engaged to any number of girls, but he always gets out of it.
She—With decency?
He—Oh, yes! He merely has to go and ask the father's consent and it's all over.
"Yes," said the young student, thoughtfully, "when I get interested in a subject I never stop until I have embraced it thoroughly."
"That's nice," was his sweetheart's hesitating reply. "I wish I were an interesting subject."
And she was.
Little Johnny (looking curiously at the visitor)—Where did the chicken bite you, Mr. Billus? I don't see any of the marks.
Visitor—Why, Johnny, I've not been bitten by any chicken.
Johnny—Mamma, didn't you tell papa Mr. Billus was dreadfully henpecked? Why, mamma, how funny you look! Your face is all red.
"Strange about giddy young girls, aint it, Sallie?"
"How so, Willie?"
"Why, there's a girl in town who used to boast that she was kissed by President Grant when she was a baby, but now she declares it was President Hayes who kissed her. In a few years she will be claiming that President Roosevelt kissed her when she was a mere child."
"I want my photograph to be a natural likeness, without any retouching or embellishing. I suppose you will charge less for it?"
"On the contrary, madam, we must charge more."
"More? Why is that?"
"Madam, to let an exact likeness of you go out of this gallery without any work upon it would cost us a hundred customers at least."
When a man has a collar that is too small for him, it is almost impossible to get rid of it.
He will lay it aside, and his wife will put it back in the drawer with the other collars.
When he goes off anywhere to remain over night, that small, tight collar with the buzz saw edge is the one that will get into his valise to make him choke, and say things for an hour.
An Irish servant was complimented by her mistress before company on the elaborate ornamentation of a large pie at dinner.
"Why, Bridget, you are quite an artist. How did you manage to do this so beautifully?" she inquired, thinking to rally her for the company's amusement.
"Indade, an' it was meself that did it, mum," said Bridget, with a malicious grin. "Isn't it party? I did it with your false teeth, mum?"

SAVED FROM TERRIBLE DEATH.

The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbitt of Bargerton, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. It's the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at all druggists.

FISH GIGGING MUST STOP.

Attorney-General Carson Says it is Illegal, and Fish Commissioner Will Take Steps to Stop it.
Attorney-General Carson has given an opinion to State Fish Commissioner Meehan, of Harrisburg, on the gigging or spearing of fish, declaring that form of sport to be clearly illegal. The Commissioner announces that he will immediately take steps to stop it.
Gigging suckers and eels by torch light is common in all the clear, shallow rivers and streams of the State, and is largely practiced. The angling experts contend that many game fish are incidentally giggered, and consequently the Attorney-General's decision, which halts the night fisherman, will be hailed by them with rejoicing.

Your Column.

To show our appreciation of the way in which the Fulton County News is being adopted into the homes of the people of this county, we have set apart this column for the FREE use of our subscribers for advertising purposes, subject to the following conditions:
1. It is free only to those who are paid-up subscribers.
2. Only personal property can be advertised.
3. Notices must not exceed 25 words.
4. All "legal" notices excluded.
5. Not free to merchants, or any one to advertise goods sold under a mercantile license.
The primary object of this column is to afford farmers, and folks who are not in public business, an opportunity to bring to public attention products or stocks they may have to sell, or may want to buy.
Now, this space is yours. If you want to buy a horse, if you want hired help, if you want to borrow money, if you want to sell a pig, a buggy, some hay, a goose, or if you want to advertise for a wife—this column is yours.
The News is read weekly by eight thousand people, and is the best advertising medium in the county.
WANTED—To buy a safe, well-broken family horse, not over ten years old, medium size, and guaranteed sound—or as recommended. Call on, or address
JOHN T. RICHARDS, Anaranti, Pa.

A VERY CLOSE CALL.

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50 cents.
