Death of an Esteemed Citizen.

Joseph Hoopengardner, one of the early settlers of Buck Valley, died at his home July 17, 1903, of paralysis, aged 79 years. He was a son of John Hoopengardner and his wife, Elizabeth Hall.

Being of a lively temperament "Joe" always took an active part in the pleasures as well as improvement of our Valley. He was an earnest and consistent member of long standing in the Methodist church, which he aided with energy and a liberal hand in building up and maintaining.

He served in Co. H, 20th Reg. P. V., and was a member of John Q. Taylor Post, 589 G. A. R., having been elected Chaplain of this Post year after year since its organization.

He is survived by his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Anna Beatty, of Philadelphia, and five sons—George, living in Michigan, John and Luther in North Dakota, Harry in Indiana county, Pa., and Will, of Philadelphia.

His remains were laid away in the pretty cemetery of the M. E. church, near the scene of his entire life. An excellent sermon was preached by Rev. Anthony to a large number of people who gathered to pay their last respects to their friend and comrade. He was buried under the auspices of John Q. Taylor Post. While in the church acting Commander Stephen Mellott held the draped flag droopingly over the casket, which was prettily decorated with wreaths of beautiful flowers. The services were very impressive and comforting to the bereaved relatives, comrades and friends.—Fulton Republican.

Catarh of the Stomach.

When the stomach is overloaded; when food is taken into it that fails to digest, it decays and inflames the mucous membrane, exposing the nerves, and causes the glands to secrete mucus, instead of the natural juices of digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach. For years I suffered with catarrh of the stomach caused by indigestion. Doctors and medicines failed to benefit me until I used Kodol Dyspepsia cure.—J. R. Rhea, Coppell, Tex. Sold at Trout's drug store.
