There are still a few families in this county, who do not get the FULTON COUNTY NEWS. We want EVERY family in this county to have it. If you take it a year, and you find it is not good for all it is recommended, "bring back your bottle and get your money."

Dr. R. B. Campbell, of New Granada, was in town on Wednesday and had staked off, and will break ground in a few days for two dwelling houses in the new addition on the north side. He expects to complete them by October 1st.—Twice-a-Week Republican, Mt Union, Pa.

DR. FONTAINE COMING BACK.

Dr. Albert Hill Fontaine, the well known eye-sight specialist of Washington, D. C. will be at the Cooper House, McConnellsburg, for ten days, beginning Monday, August 24, where he will be glad to meet all his patients of his former visit. Dr. Fontaine makes all examinations absolutely without cost to the patient. Many of the diseases of the eye can be cured by the use of proper glasses, but if the case does not require their use, he will frankly tell the patient so. Dr. Fontaine will cure the worst cases of headache with glasses, when the cause is from the eyes. He will be at Fort Littleton Saturday, September 5; Burnt Cabins, Monday and Tuesday, September 7 and 8, and at Wells Tannery Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 9 and 10.

POTENT PILL PLEASURE.

The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. W. S. Philpot of Albany, Ga., says, "During a bilious attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than calomel, blue mass or any other pills I ever took and at the same time it effected me pleasantly. Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill." Sold at Prout's drug store.

HUSTONTOWN.

M., when and where all parties interested may attend if they see proper.

GEO. B. DANIELS, Master.

Shippensburg Normal School.

If the schools are to be improved the teachers must be improved. It is to be assumed that every teacher is doing as good work as he can with the qualifications he possesses. The qualifications of many teachers are not up to a proper standard. The best way to reach this standard is to take a course at the Shippensburg State Normal School. Write to Dr. G. M. D. Eckels, Shippensburg, Pa., for a catalogue giving full particulars of this very successful school.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Myers were the guests of Mrs. Myers' sister, Mrs. W. L. Shaw last Sunday.

NEARLY FORFEITS HIS LIFE

A runaway almost ending fatally, started a horrible ulcer on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove Ill. For four years it defied all doctors and all remedies. But Bucklen's Arnica Salve had no trouble to cure him. Equally good for burns, bruises, skin eruptions and piles. 25c at all drug stores.

MAKE CIDER.

Mr. N. H. Alloway near Waterfall has erected a new building for his cider press, and is better prepared than ever to serve his customers. The cider making season will open at his mill on the 18th of August and continue each Tuesday—and Wednesday too, if there is work enough to justify it—as long as there are apples to grind.

HOME FOR SALE.

A House and two Lots with outbuildings and stable 24x35, all under excellent repair.

This property would suit to open Hotel and Livery; or a good location for a physician. Will sell at a bargain, and moving to the City is reason for selling. Call or address MRS. REV. E. SHOEMAKER, Hustontown, Pa.

CHARGE OF PERJURY.
John Wood, claiming to be a minor from Frostburg, was arrested at Sixmile Run, Pa., on the charge of perjury and lodged in jail. On July 23, he obtained a license to wed Sarah Somerville of Klondyke, swearing her age was 18 years. Two days later he obtained a license to marry Lillian G. Eddy, of Hancock. It is not known that he married either girl, but the perjury charge comes from his swearing that Miss Somerville was 18, when she is only 14 years old. He was arrested when he called at Sixmile Run postoffice for a registered letter.—The Star.

EAT ALL YOU WANT.
Persons troubled with indigestion or dyspepsia can eat all they want if they take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. This remedy prepares the stomach for the reception, retention, digestion and assimilation of all of the wholesome food that may be eaten, and enables the digestive organs to transform the same into the kinds of blood that gives health and strength.—Sold at Trout's drug store.
