CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS.

Chambersburg has the trolley car in operation now. The first trip was made Thursday evening.

When folks get an architect to build a house they always say:—"We did the planning and he carried them out."

Vacations are a very good thing while they last. It's the coming home and getting down to work again that rubs.

Parker R. Skinner and Alex Sharpe of Chambersburg spent a few days during the past week with Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Patterson.

Mrs. Eliza Michael and her daughters, Miss Sadie Michael and Mrs. James H. Irwin, of Washington, D. C., spent a few days this week in Bedford.—Everett Press.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Karns of Everett came down to this place last Saturday. Mr. Karns returned Monday and Mrs. Karns will spend a week among her relatives and friends here.

Mr. A. C. Fields, of Dayton, Ohio, arrived in Everett on Tuesday and will visit friends at Gapsville for several weeks. Mr. Fields expects to attend the Crystal Springs Campmeeting, this making the fifth successive camp he has come east to attend.—Everett Press.

That continued advertising is absolutely necessary is proved in the case of men who after building up a business by its aid discontinued their advertising. As a result their business fell off.—The lesson to be drawn from this is: Advertise well and constantly.

Rev. W. H. Roberts, stated clerk of the general assembly, furnishes the following estimate of salaries of ministers so far as the Presbyterian church is concerned: One hundred ministers receive a salary of $5,000 or more 300 receive from $3,500 to $5,000 and 700 receive between $2,000 and $3,500. In other words, of the 7,800 ministers, less than 14 in 100 are paid $5,000, slightly over 5 in 100 receive $3,500 or more, and about 14 in 100 receive $2,000 or more.

David Smith and his hired man on the John Shank farm south of Shady Grove, Franklin county, had a very narrow escape from death a few days ago. They had been pumping water for the stock and a few seconds after they had stepped off the pump platform, there was a cavein carrying down the platform, part of the stone wall and a great quantity of earth to the bottom of the well 70 feet below. Had it occurred a minute before both men would have met a shocking death.

The Morrison's Cove Home for the Aged and Infirm, which is located at Martinsburg, Blair county, will be dedicated on August 29. Prof. W. J. Swigart, of Juniata College, a well known minister of the German Baptist Brethren church, will make the address. The cost of the buildings comprising the home, and their equipments will be over $7,000. The arrangements of the buildings are such that they can be conveniently enlarged when more room is needed. This institution is under the supervision of the German Baptist Brethren church.

WISHES.

Each one of the company should be supplied with pieces of paper of a uniform size and a pencil.—Some one reads off these questions, and time is given to answer each one. The papers are folded and collected. Then they are read by one of the party, and the rest are to guess whose answers they are. The more ridiculous the answers, the merrier for the company.

Whom do you wish to be, if not yourself?
Where would you wish to live?
How would you wish to look?
What would you wish to do?
Where would you wish to go?
Whom would you wish to marry?
What accomplishments would you wish to possess?
What is the brightest saying you can recall?

THE NOTES WENT WRONG.

"A queer thing happened to a young friend of mine a week or so ago," remarked the Man About Town. "He had just received a present of a beautifully worked pair of slippers from his intended and as a little return he determined to send her his picture enclosed in a handsome frame."

"He sat down and wrote two notes, one to accompany the picture, the other in reply to a letter from his tailor, which said something about an unpaid for suit.—Then he engaged a messenger boy to deliver both notes and the picture."

"Imagine the look of astonishment that overspread the young lady's countenance when she read these words in her loved one's handwriting:—

"I am getting tired of your everlasting attentions. The suit is almost worn out now. It never amounted to much anyway. So please go to Jericho."

"And consider the wonder of the tailor when he opened the package containing the picture and read the inclosed note which said:—

"When you gaze upon my features, think how much I owe you."

"When that unlucky young man called on his sweetheart a few evenings later his reception was hardly such as he expected."

BETTER THAN GOLD.

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N. H.—"No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50c Satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists.

SOME THINGS YOU CAN'T DO.

You can't stand for five minutes without moving if you are blind-folded.

You can't stand at the side of a room with both of your feet touching the wainscoting lengthwise.

You can't get out of a chair without bending your body forward or putting your feet under it, that is, if you are sitting squarely on the chair and not on the edge of it.

You can't crush an egg when placed lengthwise between your hands that is if the egg is sound and has the ordinary shell of a hen's egg.

You can't break a match if the match is laid across the nail of the middle finger of either hand, and pressed upon by the first and third fingers of that hand, despite its seeming so easy at first sight.

DEWITT'S IS THE NAME.

When you go to buy Witch Hazel Salve look for the name DeWitt on every box. The pure unadulterated Witch Hazel is used in making DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve which is the best salve in the world for cuts, burns, boils, bruises, eczema and piles. The popularity of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, due to its many cures, has caused numerous worthless counterfeits to be placed on the market. The genuine bears the name of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. Sold at Trout's drug store.

DAINTY WAYS OF PERFUMING.

Refined, elegant woman do not wet their handkerchiefs with perfume or pour it on their clothing. They have sachet bags of fragrance scattered among their wardrobes and chiffonier drawers always using one perfume. This gives a suspicion of delicious odor to the garments when they are put on without overpowering the sense of smell. A thumb nail size bag of the powder is put by many dressmakers in the sleeves of all their bodies under the shields.

This is a dainty way of using perfume. Wetting the finger in cologne and drawing it over the eyebrows is harmless and agreeable, besides having a most soothing effect.

SAVE THE CHILDREN.

Ninety-nine of every hundred diseases that children have are due to disorders of the stomach, and these disorders are all caused by indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is just as good for children as it is for adults. Children thrive on it. It keeps their little stomachs sweet and encourages their growth and development. Mrs. Henry Carter, 705 Central St., Nashville, Tenn., says "My little boy is now three years old and has been suffering from indigestion every since he was born. I have had the best doctors in Nashville, but failed to do him any good. After using one bottle of Kodol he is a well baby. I recommend it to all sufferers."—Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Running a Country Paper.

The "Enid Events" describes the troubles and powers of a country editor in the following story: "A business man in an Oklahoma town got mad at the editor of a local paper about something in the paper, and notified the editor that he would in future have his printing done at a job office where they didn't have a paper to roast everybody. He thought, of course, the paper would have to quit business, but it kept on going.

"In about two months the man's daughter was married and they had a big blow-out, but not a line appeared in the paper. Later on his wife gave a big reception to some visitors, but not a line appeared in the paper.

"Later on the man's youngest child died, but not a line appeared in the paper. The next Fall a mass meeting was held in town to see about some public improvements and this business man made a big speech. The meeting was written up in full, except this man's speech. This was skipped. Then the business man called and asked the editor what he had it in for him about. "Oh, nothing at all," replied the editor. "You got mad last year, if you remember, and said you were going to have your work done at the job office, so I thought I'd just let your job printer print the account of your daughter's wedding, your wife's reception, your child's obituary and your speech."—Kansas City Journal.
