Authors and Authoresses.

The wife of an author is less obscure than the husband of an authoress, in the very nature of the case.

For an author, being almost always poor, probably has more children than can lean against him, in his photo-graphs, with artistic effect, and thus his ife has to be brought out into the limelight.

Whereas, an authoress has seldom or never to cope with exigencies of this character.

Name Your Glants.

This habit of pushing forward small men for great places has done more than any other one thing to spread misconceptions of the sagacity, brains, and breeding that characterize Chicago's best citizenship. Would it not be wise, then, to 'treak the habit now, and, if we must boom somebody for something every little while, to pick men from the giants rather than the pygates of this community?

No Widowhood Vet.

"Ah!" sighed the poetess of passion in a tense tone, "have you never pray-ed and hoped for death?"

"Many and many a time." replied the petulant young beauty, "but it doesn't seem to be any use. My husband is seventy-five now and he looks to be good for ten years more, at least." States in 1002.

The train had stopped to take water. "What's the name of this place?" asked a passenger in the rear car, speaking through an open window to a gaunt native on the station platform. "Turnipville," replied the native.

"What's its population? The native scratched his jaw. "Well." he said, "you kin count 'em fur yourself, mister. They're all here at the deeps."

larged prosperity by employing these convicts on the public roads. Public roads, next to railroads, are the greatest developers we have. Who can estimate the value of the turn pikes of Kentucky, Tennessee and Vir ginia? Convenience to market, to post offices, schools and churches is what is necessary to make useful and per manent citizens. Good ronds furnisl all of these things. The tendency of late years has been for people in the country to flock towards the towns and cities. The reason for this is ob vious. On account of the present pub lie road system of the State, or rather lack of system, they are unable often times to market their products, they have no educational facilities, they are removed from churches and otherwise subjected to inconveniences that pro ple in the citles and towns do not feel. A good system of public roadi will do more to remove these troubles and satisfy the farming element which, at last, is the backbone of the country, than all other influences com If the State of Georgia will bined. employ her criminals in the improve ment of the public roads of the State instead of receiving $200 per head for their services, she will receive many times that amount in actual increased values, to say nothing of the benefits conferred upon her citizens, which can not be estimated in dollars and cents b, 9@10c; do, drakes, each, per lb, 30 @40c; do, white Pekings, per lb, 10@ 11c. Railroads and Forestry.

The railroads of the United States use ever year 110,000,000 new ties to replace old ones. Timber suitable for ties has become scarce, and prices have increased year by year. For twenty years railroad managers have been considering the question of timber supply for ties, and have been led inter-experiments in forest culture for hundred thousand. The catalpa is of rapid growth, the wood is durable, and the influence of the planting experiments on a large scale of the railroad companies has been a practical demonstration of the advantages of forest culture for profit. If it is profitable for corporations to grow catalpas it is profitable for indi-viduals to grow them.

A Bottled Brother.

Dr. Gillespie, the present moderator of the Church of Scotland, tells how he was nonplussed the other, day by a ragged urchin with whom he got into conversation. He said:

"My boy, who looks after you?" "Naebuddy," was the quick reply, "Where is your father?" "He's deid."

"Have you a mother?" "She's deid, tae."

"Have you not a sister, then?" "I niver had yin." "But surely you have a brother?" "Yes, but he's at Glasga College." "Well, cannot he spare some time on his studies to had often from his studies to look after you a bit?"

'Na, sir; for he was born wi' two heids, and they keep him in a bottle."

His Clever Plan.

"Five dollars, please," said the law-er to his prospective client, "But I haven't stated my case yet," protested the client. "Five dollars first, and then it won't be so difficult to be honest with you," insisted the lawyer. "How's that?"

"How's that?" "Well, if you haven't got any case, and I advise you to sue, you'll pay me a $50 retainer without a murmur; but if I tell you frankly that you haven't a ghost of a show you'll kick like a steer on a $5 fee, so if I get that fee first I won't be quite so strongly tempted to run you cp against a lot of useless litigation, if that happens to be the kind of a case you have." the kind of a case you have.'

My appe-tite was fitful, and I would lie awake for hours, and could not sleep, until I seemed more weary in the morning than when I retired. After reading one of your advertisements I decided to try the merits of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so glad I did. No one can describe the good it did me. I took three bottles faithfully, and besides building up my general health, it drove all disease and poison out of my body, and made me feel as spry and active as a young girl. Mrs. Pinkham's medicines are certainly all they are claimed to be." ----Mas. M. E. HUGHSON, 347 East Ohio St., Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. Pinkham Tells How Ordinary Tasks Produce Displacements.

Apparently trifling incidents in woman's daily life frequently produce displacements of the womb. A slip on the stairs, lifting during menstruation, standing at a counter, running a sewing machine, or attending to the most ordinary tasks may result in displacement, and a train of serious evils is startol.

The first indication of such trouble should be the signal for quick action. Don't let the condition become chronic through neglect or a mistaken idea that you can overcome it by exercise or leaving it alone. More than a million women have regained health by the use of Lydia E.
