Howell of Houston, Tex., says "No better pill can be used than Little Early Risers for constipation, sick headache, etc." Sold at Trout's drug store.

WEBSTER MILLS
Our farmers are busy rolling, dragging and harrowing the ground, preparatory to seeding, which job will soon be the order of the day.
Two important real estate deals were consummated in the Cove last week. Mr. C. Glazier, Jr., purchased from the Jas. G. Kendall heirs, what is known as the "Lower Farm"—consideration—$10,000. And Mr. J. F. Johnston bought the Jno. M. Fore farm east of Knobsville—price $4,000. Jefferson Harris goes about his work these days with a pleased expression on his face. Cause: the stork stopped at his home one day last week. Jeff says if it had only been a boy, his cup would be full and running over.
Rev. and Mrs. S. B. Houston entertained a large company of friends at their pleasant home on Tuesday evening of last week.
Mrs. Florence Hayes accompanied by Miss Glazier of Baltimore, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Duffy from Saturday till Monday.
Two of our young ladies left lately—Miss Helen Johnston, to Lewistown to assume charge of a graded school; and Miss Estella Logue to McConnellsburg, to resume her work in the Intermediate school at that place.
Mrs. Sappington who was called to Baltimore three weeks ago by the sudden death of her mother, Mrs. Robertson, returned to her home last Saturday.
Cadet Herbert Duffy, who for two years has been a student in the Maryland Agricultural College is now visiting in Chambersburg.
