DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.

Miss Cora A. Speer of Saluvia Burned to Death Tuesday.

WAS BOILING CIDER FOR APPLE BUTTER.

Her Clothing Became Ignited from the Fire Under the Kettle, and Death Ended Her Dreadful Suffering in a Few Hours.

One of the most distressing accidents that we have had to chronicle for a long time, occurred at Saluvia on Tuesday.

Miss Cora A. Speer, daughter of the late William A. Speer was assisting to boil cider in a large kettle at the east side of the yard between the house and garden, when about 10 o'clock her clothing became ignited from the fire under the kettle.

No one being near, she ran screaming to the store, some fifty yards distant. It happened that her brother, who is usually in the store, had gone out to the orchard but he heard her screaming and seeing the blazing form of his sister ran to her relief. Seizing some blankets he wrapped them about her writhing form, and succeeded in extinguishing the flames, but not until their deadly work had been accomplished.

Dr. McClain of Hustontown was immediately summoned, and arrived in about an hour, but no human power could save the life of the poor suffering girl, and death came to her relief about two o'clock in the afternoon.

Funeral at ten o'clock Thursday morning, and interment at Greenhill.

The family have the sincere sympathy of everybody in this sore trial.

Miss Speer was aged about 22 years, a refined Christian lady, and her untimely death is a severe shock to her numerous friends.

Miss Maye Johnston who had been spending a week in Philadelphia selecting a Fall stock of Fashionable Millinery returned yesterday, and in a few days her store will be full of the latest styles.

Preston Bowles purchased at public sale on the 5th inst. of the heirs of the late Jacob Houck the mill property one mile east of Hancock. This property has belonged to his grandfather, father and uncle, and has been in the family for over seventy years with the exception of a few years when owned by Wm. Dicken and the late Jacob Houck.

MORE RIOTS.

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Over work, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the liver or kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic, an effective nerve and the greatest all around medicines for run down systems. It dispels nervousness, rheumatism and neuralgia and expels malaria germs. Only 50c, and satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists.

THE GENUINE VS. COUNTERFEITS.

The genuine is always better than a counterfeit, but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized or more thoroughly appreciated than when you compare the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market.—W. S. Ledbetter, of Shreveport, La., says: "After using numerous other remedies without benefit, one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me." For blind bleeding, itching and protruding piles no remedy is equal to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Nothing has ever equalled it. Nothing can ever surpass it.
