Of Local and General Interest, Gathered at Home or Clipped from our Exchanges.

CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS.

Free, a knife worth at least 50c for only 25 tags from Honest John Plug and 5c., postage.

Walter C. Peck of Bedford, has been spending the past week in the home of his uncle the editor of the NEWS.

Honest John Plug has been made much larger, you get more of it for the same money and the tags are good for presents,

Rev. P. S. Sailer, pastor of the Melroy church, has accepted a call to the First Christian church in Norfolk, Va., at a salary of $1200.

The size of a plug of Honest John Tobacco has been made much larger, and the tags are still valuable, see premium list.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Fore and daughter Mabel, accompanied by Mrs. Lewis Cook and son Jack spent a few days very pleasantly in Philadelphia last week.

No danger of consumption if you use Foley's Honey and Tar to cure that stubborn cough.—Sold at Trout's drug store.

Rev. B. F. Black, has received and accepted a call to the First Christian church in Newport News, Va., at a salary of $1000. Rev. Black is well known in this county.

Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs and colds and prevents pneumonia. Take no substitutes. Sold at Trout's drug store.

D. G. Duvall, formerly of Wells Valley, but now of Bellwood, Blair county, was among those in attendance at court. Davy served as constable of Wells township for many years, and was filling that office, when this county was formed and had charge of the jury in Judge Black's court when it was held in the old white church in 1851.

FARM for Sale.—Situated in the Meadow Grounds about six miles west of McConnellsburg.—Contains 100 acres, a good bank barn weatherboarded, a good log house weatherboarded, and other outbuildings, also a good young orchard. The farm is admirably adapted for stock purposes, and can be bought on terms to suit the purchaser. Address the owner, JOHN H. TRUAX, McConnellsburg, Pa.

A DOZEN TIMES A NIGHT.

Mr. Owen Dunn, of Brenton Ferry, W. Va., writes: "I have had kidney and bladder trouble for years, and it became so bad that I was obliged to get up at least a dozen times a night. I never received any permanent benefit from any medicine until I tried Foley's Kidney Cure. After using two bottles, I am cured." Sold at Trout's drug store.

PIGEON COVE.

Oct. 5.—The farmers of this section are quite busy finishing their seeding.

Gordon's school is progressing nicely under the supervision of Miss Zoe Mason.

Mrs. F. C. Bare after an extended visit with her parents, Judge and Mrs. L. P. Kirk returned to her home at Ft. Littleton last Sunday.

Rev. Garland preached at Bethel last Sunday morning.—The attendance was very small.

Mr. Augustus Whitfield's little daughter, Meta, who has been very sick, is convalescent at present.

Robbed The Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at all drug stores.

HUSTONTOWN.

Oct. 7.—F. C. McClain who has been confined to his bed for some time is recovering.

Mrs. D. E. Lamberson is very sick at this time.

Messrs. Laidig, Mathias and D. R. Mumma have about completed a large dwelling for George A. King. Quite a lot of improving has been done this season in Hustontown and surrounding country.

Our "Village Blacksmith" was the guest of our veteran auctioneer James Chesnut one evening last week and ate too much peach pie. Since then his health has not been good.

David E. Strait traded horses some time ago with Robert Gallaher of Clear Ridge and got a strawberry roan, and we believe with little training that Davy will be successful in capturing the championship over Prince Albert or Dr. Davis's bobtailed bay.

A. V. Woodcock, who holds a lucrative position in Hopewell, Pa., is at home on a visit.

Our hustling marble man B. H. Shaw has been very busy this season. We are afraid he will get stung with a matrimonial bee.

Rev. Owen Hicks, our former pastor preached an able sermon last Sunday morning and evening and succeeded in clearing the church of debt.

Harry Horton was the guest of W. M. Keebaugh last Saturday night.

Messrs. Wink, Dawney and John Woodcock went coon hunting one night last week and succeeded in capturing three; one was about 14 inches between the eyes, and thirteen rings on its tail; the other two were smaller.

DIETING INVITES DISEASE.

To cure dyspepsia or indigestion it is no longer necessary to live on milk and toast. Starvation produces such weakness that the whole system becomes an easy prey to disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that one cares to eat, and it is a never failing cure for indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Kodol digests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet. Sold at Trout's drug store.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE.

One of the most joyous, surprise socials of the season, was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Shives of Dickey's Mountain, Saturday evening, October 3, 1903, in honor of Mr. Frank Martin, who has made his home with them for many years, it being Frank's 21st birthday.

The members of the party quietly arranged to assemble at the home of a near neighbor, and at 7 o'clock drove to Mr. Shives' and of course, greatly surprised Frank but he jovially and promptly invited them into the parlor, where they were kindly received and entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Shives, who are noted for their courtesy and hospitality.

Promptly at 10 o'clock Mrs. Shives invited the guests into the dining room, where they partook of lemonade, cake, ice cream and bananas.

The music was furnished by Mr. Davy Little of McConnellsburg from his graphophone, giving forty-six records.

Davy knows how to keep the young people from getting drowsy.

Those present were Miss Belle Catlett of Missouri; Misses Janet Shives, Frances Gordon, Ettie Comer, Lula and Nellie Simpson, Messrs. Davy Little, Harvey Sharp, Wilber Comer, Edward Simpson, Wilson Zimmerman, Willard Litton and Roy Daniels.

After a very pleasant evening together, the young folks bade Frank good night, wishing him many, many joyous birthdays in the future.

SPENT MORE THAN $1000.

W. W. Baker of Plainview, Neb. writes: "My wife suffered from lung trouble for fifteen years.—She tried a number of doctors and spent over $1000 without relief. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and thanks to this great remedy it saved her life. She enjoys better health than she has known in ten years." Refuse substitutes. Sold at Trout's drug store.

A CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA.

I had dyspepsia in its worst form and felt miserable most all the time. Did not enjoy eating until I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure which has completely cured me.—Mrs. W. W. Saylor, Hilliard Pa. No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, sour risings, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles are quickly cured by the use of Kodol. Kodol represents the natural juices of digestion combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. It cleanses, purifies and sweetens the stomach. Sold at Trout's drug store.

ROCKY CLIFF.

Oct. 7.—Listen for the wedding bells.

The question was asked where Rocky Cliff is. Well, it is 24 miles north of Hancock and one mile south of Harrisonville.

Our boys are waiting patiently for the game law to open up.

Coon hunters are plenty and they say that coons are fat and plenty.

J. W. Hoop has raised his sweet potatoes. He got 15 bushels from 200 hills.

Nevin Strait has added an end to his house which has improved it very much.

Mr. Joseph and Homer Sipes have begun Theophilus Sipes' new house.

In perusing the columns of the News I noticed that the Philip Grove correspondent spoke of a large pumpkin, E. J. Wilson can beat that. He has a pumpkin that is seven feet and 2 inches long and 5 feet around. And William Hoop has one seven feet square; and Bill says he doubts if any one else has 49 square feet of pumpkin.

"WATCH THE KIDNEYS."

"When they are affected, life is in danger," says Dr. Abernethy, the great English physician. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys. Sold at Trout's drug store.

MORE BIG CABBAGE.

Mr. Andrew Glenn of Carroll county, Illinois, a reader of the NEWS, saw the challenge a week or two ago to beat a twenty-pound Fulton county head of cabbage. Mrs. Glenn wishes to say that she has a patch in cabbage this year the smallest of the heads weighing twenty-one and a half pounds and the largest—well, you may imagine! Mrs. Glenn would like Fulton county gardeners to see her crop.

Nothing has ever equalled it. Nothing can ever surpass it.
