COALPORT.

Work around Coalport is good and the mines are running about full time. Carpenters are very scarce. If some of the Fulton county carpenters were here, they could make good money.—The U. M. W. of A., have built a fine hall here which cost the locals $3,000. The new Methodist church is about complete. I stated in my last letter that it would cost $8,000 but it will cost about $11,000.

Mrs. Mary J. Mellott of Sipes Mill, is visiting her sons and daughter here—Ahimaa, George, Albert and Charles Mellott, and Mrs. Malinda Swope. Charles and Mrs. Swope accompanied her to Karthaus, Clearfield county, to visit her daughter, Mrs. Mary Fohner.

Charles Decker of Whips Cove, is here now seeking his fortune digging black diamonds. Charley says Coalport is all right, and he is now looking up a good building site.
