Bometimes when me an' all the rest Are busy on a sum The teacher says, "Now, look your best Before the trustees come." An' then she picks up eviry scrap An' rubs the blackboard down, An' we just sit with hands in lap, When the trustees come around.

When the Trustees Come

It seems so awful long to us To sit so still an' straight. But we just dus'ent make a fuss While they investigate. An' if we even whisper low We see the teacher frown. An' ev'rything must be just so When the trustees come aroun'.

Then Squire Jubb will take his stand An' read from off a card An' ask where did John Cabot land Or something just as hard, An' then he'll ask, one at a time, To write the oceans down, An' you must have your mem'ry prime When the trustees come aroun'.

An' while the squire turns his face An' while the squire turns his face An' talks on cold an' heat Young Dr. Jones has found a place Beside the teacher's seat, An' he just shows his words confuse An' lots her eyes drop down, But we must mind our "p's" and "q's" When the trustees come aroun'. --Victor A. Hermann.
