John F. Johnson of Taylor spent Monday night and Tuesday in town.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Sipes spent a day or two in Harrisburg this week.

The Borough school board had a substantial slate blackboard placed in the grammar room last Saturday.

Free, a knife worth at least 50c for only 25 tags from Honest John Plug and 5c. postage.

The attendance at the Hagerstown fair last Wednesday was estimated at 20,000.

J. W. Stech of Altoona, spent last Thursday and part of Friday with his father, Mr. James Stech of this place.

Honest John Plug has been made much larger, you get more of it for the same money and the tags are good for presents.

Miss Dora Johnston and Mrs. Doran of Burnt Cabins, called at the News office a few minutes while in town last Thursday.

Miss Mary Sloan of this place, is making a visit of two months at Parkers Landing, Pa., Buffalo, N. Y., and Detroit, Mich.

The size of a plug of Honest John Tobacco has been made much larger, and the tags are still valuable, see premium list.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cosgrove of Waynesboro, were the guests of the latter's sister, Miss Annie B. Frey a day or two last week.

John and Lewis McQuade of Altoona, came over to be on hands for the opening of the hunting season. The boys are usually successful sportsmen.

No danger of consumption if you use Foley's Honey and Tar to cure that stubborn cough.—Sold at Trout's drug store.

Mrs. Jno. C. Wagoner and son Herman, of Guilford Springs, is visiting her brother, Edward Croft, and other friends in this county.

Lake McDonald who has been in the employ of the Ross Lumber Company at Jamestown, N. Y., has recently been promoted to a place on the road as purchasing agent.

Ex-commissioner J. A. Wishart of Wells Tannery spent a day or two in town last week. While John is looking well, he says his health has not been at all rugged for awhile.

Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs and colds and prevents pneumonia. Take no substitutes. Sold at Trout's drug store.

J. A. Wister of Foltz, who recently sold his mill to Mr. Koser has arranged to go into the business of selling automobiles after January 1, with place of business in Philadelphia.

Mrs. H. S. Wishart of this place spent Saturday night the guest of friends at Harrisonville and attended communion services at the Green Hill Presbyterian church on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Bard of Pleasant Ridge spent a few hours in town on Saturday, and in the afternoon went up to Tod and stayed Saturday night and part of Sunday with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Keislo.

There seems to be no limit to the quantity of cider being turned out this fall. Splendid cider may be had at five cents a gallon. Last week Elliott Ray made at his mill 6,257 gallons of cider.—Some of the farmers are glad to dispose of the fallen apples in their orchards at five cents a bushel.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Snyder of Burnt Cabins spent a few hours in town last Friday. Mr. Snyder is formerly from Huntingdon county, but has spent the last twenty-one years in Fulton without being a subscriber to one of the Fulton county newspapers.—The News will be a visitor to his home hereafter.

The barn of George McClellan, of Rainsburg, was burned to the ground last Thursday morning. Thirty-five tons of hay, a lot of grain, a buggy and a wagon were consumed. The supposition is that the building was set on fire. The property was insured, but the insurance will not cover the loss.

COALPORT.

A coalport correspondent left out a few brief items I will try and give them.

Coalport has a population of 3,500 people.

They say brick works is coming to our town. We have an abundance of fire clay here. Then I think our town will be transformed into a city. The C. and C. R. R. and P. R. R. go through here.

The Clearfield creek goes through the center of our town which is large enough to induce other industries to come here.

Rev. Charles Karns, our able Methodist preacher, went on a hunting tour in the wilds of Huntingdon county to try his luck on turkeys.

Mrs. Mary Mellott, of Sipes Mills, who has been visiting here for several weeks returned home on Friday, accompanied by her son Albert.

The new U. M. W. of A. hall was dedicated here last Saturday by several very able speeches.

Robbed The Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at all drug stores.

CLEAR RIDGE.

The hunting season is here and the reports of guns are heard in all directions. But few turkeys have been killed in this section.

John A. Henry's new house is nearly finished, and will be a fine residence when completed. It will not be occupied by Mr. Henry until next spring.

J. W. Heeter has been assisting Amos Sipes in picking his winter apples.

On their way home from Fort Littleton Monday with a load of corn, Mrs. N. B. Henry and son Charlie met with an accident that might have proved serious. One of the tugs broke as they were ascending a hill, and the wagon ran back into a gutter, throwing Mrs. Henry out of the wagon, by which she was pretty badly broken up.

Mrs. Mary Heeter is no better, and grandmother Fields has been right poorly.

Quite a number of people from this place attended the fair at Hagerstown.

Gilbert Kerlin has bought the George Myers property.

Mr. Figart of Altoona, is visiting Mr. Henry Wilson and family.

Mrs. R. E. Brown has raised a beet that measured 26 1/2 inches in length and 1 1/2 inches around.

James H. Fields and Dr. F. K. Stevens, of McConnellsburg, came out and took a little hunt last week, but we can't say how much game they took home.

SPENT MORE THAN $1000.

W. W. Baker of Plainview, Neb. writes: "My wife suffered from lung trouble for fifteen years.—She tried a number of doctors and spent over $1000 without relief. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and thanks to this great remedy it saved her life. She enjoys better health than she has known in ten years." Refuse substitutes. Sold at Trout's drug store.

We had a pleasant call Tuesday from our old friend, John G. Metzler, formerly of Harrisonville, but now spends about half his time in Clearfield.

PHILIP'S GROVE.

Weather is cool. Mack Fix, who has been spending some time with his uncle, has returned home.

Frank Sipe and wife spent Sunday with John Deshong.

Among those who attended the Hagerstown fair were Mr. and Mrs. David Strait and son Nevin, and Riley Sipes and mother.—They say they had a fine time.

Cleveland Strait and V. R. Sipes went to Franklin county on Monday.

S. B. Deshong and son returned home Wednesday.

Nevin Strait has bought a fine driving horse. Look out girls.

Ed Swope spent Saturday night at David Haun's.

S. B. Deshong spent Sunday at Jacob Deshong's.

David Strait and wife spent Saturday at M. P. Sipes.

William Hoop is feeling down hearted. His champion pumpkin is spoiling.

Well, as Philip's Grove is a small place, and, it is so windy, we will expect to hear a little more from Rocky Cliff next time.

DIETING NIVES DISEASE.

To cure dyspepsia or indigestion it is no longer necessary to live on milk and toast. Starvation produces such weakness that the whole system becomes an easy prey to disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that one cares to eat, and it is a never failing cure for indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Kodol digests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet. Sold at Trout's drug store.

94,000 Miles of Roads.

State Highway Commissioner Hunter says that the department has received the report of road mileage from over half of the counties. The aggregate mileage of the counties which have reported is 48,000. It is roughly estimated that there are in the state 94,000 miles of public roads.

A DOZEN TIMES A NIGHT.

Mr. Owen Dunn, of Brenton Ferry, W. Va., writes: "I have had kidney and bladder trouble for years, and it became so bad that I was obliged to get up at least a dozen times a night. I never received any permanent benefit from any medicine until I tried Foley's Kidney Cure. After using two bottles, I am cured." Sold at Trout's drug store.

Nothing has ever equalled it. Nothing can ever surpass it.
