Jeremiah Gulden and Mrs. Margaret E. Deshong, Warfordsburg, were married Thursday in Hagerstown.

A bald eagle measuring more than ten feet from tip to tip of wings was killed last Saturday by John Gordon of Timber Ridge.

Mr. Howard P. Charlton and Miss Ray Yonker will be married at the M. E. church in Warfordsburg, November 4th at 5:30 P. M.

Dr. D. E. Fisher left this week for Lilly, Pa., where he has purchased a drug store and practice. The first of the year Dr. Fisher thought he had purchased this same store, but when he went to take charge the doctor with whom he had dealt changed his mind.—This time the deal is closed. We wish the Doctor success in his new field.

DIETING ENVIES DISEASE.

To cure dyspepsia or indigestion it is no longer necessary to live on milk and toast. Starvation produces such weakness that the whole system becomes an easy prey to disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that one cares to eat, and it is a never failing cure for indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Kodol digests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet. Sold at Trout's drug store.

PIGEON COVE.

Oct 24.—The leading industries among the farmers are corn husking and apple picking.

Daddy Bender was seen in this section last Thursday.

There will be preaching at Bethel the first Sunday in next month at 10:30 a. m.

Charles Meyers was in this vicinity last Sunday evening.—Some attraction, Charley?

Grover C. Kirk, who has been employed in Frank Bare's store at Fort Littleton, returned home recently.

The cholera has been very destructive among the h-g's. Some of our farmers have lost as high as twenty-two.

Mrs. Clyde Andrews, Miss Bertie Andrews and Miss Lizzie Friggle, of Oil City, were guests of Misses Rebecca and Jane Gordon one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam'l Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Whitfield, Mr. H. P. Kirk and daughters, Miss Nella and Kittie, and Misses Mamie Gulden and Lulu Slusher were the guests of Lewis Yonker and family last Sunday.

Mr. Leroy C. Gulden and Miss Anna Bowers were united in marriage last Wednesday near the bride's home at Cherry Run. The young couple have our best wishes for a happy and prosperous life. The groom's grandfather, Mr. Jeremiah Gulden, was also married on the same day to Mrs. Margaret Deshong.

Robbed The Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at all drug stores.

BUZZARDTOWN.

Some of our farmers are done with their fall seeding.

Mr. George Snyder of Tod township, was in our town Wednesday on business.

Local Institute.

A local institute will be held in Bethel township at Gordon's School on Friday night, Oct. 30. The following questions will be discussed: 1. How to retain the confidence of our pupils. 2. Child study; its importance, and how conducted. 3. How do you get your pupils, who attend irregularly, interested in their work? 4. Query Box.

Everybody is very cordially invited to attend.

ZOE M. MASON, Teacher.

The second local institute of Licking Creek township held at Shanes school house last Friday evening proved to be a success in every respect.

The house was very beautifully decorated, and the literary work rendered by the school, was fine. It was largely attended by the patrons of the school, and others. The topics were nicely handled by the fifteen teachers present.

The third and next institute will be held at Mountain school house November 13. The topics for discussion:

1. Language work and advanced Grammar? 2. How do you teach Primary and Advanced Geography? 3. Diacritical marks spelling by sounds and primary reading.

All friends of education are invited.

A Great Sensation.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind. when W. H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from Asthma but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure. Similar cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis and Grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c, and $1.00. Guaranteed by all Druggists.
