Elye $\mathfrak{E n l t o n} \mathfrak{C o u n t y}$ Axcus.

DOWN THE RIINE
Interesting Descripior of What One Sees on tie Trip.

| Iermans Belleve Americats to be Very atiouns. Nir. Wolf Ateets a Cultolicic Priest. |
| :---: |
|  |  |

Here we are at fair Bingen.

rule for the time beng. Fr here it is only one hour's ride ohel, the old home of Philip Sui der of Tod towoship. About ten miles farther down the river, we come to the town of Oberwesel, the river varrows between the gainst it and past it, that it is, ith theatest exertion and eare only, that boats can be steered past it nud not be dushed to pieces. This rock is called the Lorelel rock. This is the only tory about it: Once it was the home of a most beantiful, but very wicked maiden, who sat up on it combing her golden har which was so long that tt reached to her feet. She saang so enchant lagly that the sallors in the pass ing boats lost all consclousness of their perilous situation and suf fered ther boats to be dashed to pieces against the big rock, and so perished with all aboard. Al most every big rock or castle is the subject of some queer nod romantic story. There is another Itg rock called bie Drachenfeis.
It is suid that a digagon lived there and devoured a great manypersons, especially children. He vas at last couquered and killed y a brave youth named Tiegfriedwho became thereny a great na tional hero in Germany. Where the biood of the dragon soaked rape growing, the wine of whice of my old schoolnates in Gee mauy, while telling me a simila queer story abruptly asked m this question: Heury do you be lieve in phosts? I answered him plied, but the Americans belheve souls of the departed, come back with the living. Such stuff I do not believe. I told him that I did had refereace to spiritualism which originated in America.-

You will notice in what light thi German viewed the psychology of the Americans. Now we are at Coblenz, also an old Roman town. That river fl ing into the Rhine here is Moselle. That Fortress on der high rock is Ehrenbreits sometimes callod the Gloralts the water of the river, and is the finest and strongest also the larg est fort in all this regio 000 men, but in time of peace ha only 5,000 . It was used as a mir itary post, even before the day of Napoleon Bonaparte, for in.the year or 1799 that haughty yeua al, in tume of peace besieged and through starvation, capture its German garrison. For thi wily act and many others similn to it, the Germans became English to defeat him, and caused his utter downfall, fifteen year we still go down the valley wards Bonn, we fiud no percep ble change of scenery. It is still vine clad thll ine clad hills, castles aud towu origio, in I whas ole of the Hause

GEO. SHOEILAKER'S LETTER

resolutions pubished in the conu ly papers a copy be iven the bereaved fanily, nud that they bo spread upon minute book of League, and that our charter be

OUR PHILIPPINE COUSINS
ABOUT PEOPLE YOU KNOW

$\square$
$\qquad$

$\qquad$
and while not very stout muscular War, hs ived near St. Louis, Mo. ship, has been suffering fron a and well developed. The wonen owned slaves. and set them free severe attack of peumonia durare as a rule very attractive in ap. ither the war broke out After iug the past weels.
visiting his Thompson,deemed it hest to bo changed to another tield, and the Bisliop and Cabinet concurrume it was so or.

recovered as to make a trip to visit his son Josse B. McClain in Wells Valley.Atter an extended visit at the home of her son and daughterThe trees came from seeds plant. ed and are what would be called new roof on his dwelling, Mr., Geo. Thomas and family o
Welly V

Andrew Bolnger, wife and daughter o T Taylor, spent Sundayand class abound from the riceand form an exceedingly arrea. ble article of diet. Fish are pre. pared by boling never by frying.Arthur Foster left on MondidyJesse C. Bolinger bought a ne taining a full developec chick.This is prepared by boiling and "oould go home, wneh was about ing serum and all. The spectacle of natives openly eating this disgusting article of diet was Rice is the stapie artiele of duct open eurtheaware vescelk. swells th a large size, sulmal t laste better thas the rice as we eat it here at home. The Filipuonever adds sugar to his rice or makes it a foras of dessert but uses it as a substitute for bread Saturaay. he had not yetarried opposite the Fulton House, dun't ome. The tamily by this tuee thilk he hay left town. Just cre amost prostrated, as ap to his place diagoually npposit store rooms in town, with a fulwn, which was greatly increaies and noveltues. teeth," Dr. Davis, came to the ..... sides of Wooden Bridge Creek ront and began telling what had was fruitless. The excitement byhappened forty-seven other poo- this time was something fierce pio in sunilar cases. A company The Captainwas quickly formed, headed by and a council of war was called party of braves John Wood-s is arch a mile west of town and

| at the annual "Thanksgiving Fes  tival, ${ }^{11}$  Very truly,  Geo. B. Shoemareb. |  |
| :---: | :---: |
|  |  |
|  |  |

