FROST IS ON THE PUNKIN.

When the frost is on the punkin and the fodder's in the shock, And you hear the kvouck and gobble of the struttin' turkey cock, And the clacking of the guineys, and the cluckin' of the hens, And the rooster's halloooyer as he tiptoes on the fence, Oh, it's then's the time a fellow is a feelin' at his best.

There's somethin' kind o' hearty like about the atmosphere When the heat of summer's over and the coolin' fall is here. Of course we miss the flowers and the blossoms on the trees, And the humble of the hummin'-birds and the buzzin' of the bees; But the air's so appetizin' and the landscape through the haze Of a crisp and sunny morning and the early autumn days Is a picture that no painter has the colorin' to mock.

The husky, rusty rustle of the tassels of the corn, And the raspin' of the tangled leaves as golden as the morn; The stubble on the furries—kind of lonesome like, but still A preachin' sermons to us of the barns they growed to fill. The straw-stack in the medder, and the reaper in the shed, The horses in their stalls below, the clover overhead— Oh, it sets my heart a clinkin' like the tickin' of a clock, When the frost is on the punkin and the fodder's in the shock.

A REMARKABLE CASE.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold at Trout's drug store.

A Symposium.

"What is the secret of success?" asked the Sphinx. "Push," said the Button. "Never be led," said the Pencil. "Always keep cool," said the Ice. "Take pains," said the Window. "Do business on tick," said the Clock. "Be up to date," said the Calendar. "Never lose your head," said the Barrel. "Do a driving business," said the Hammer. "Make light of everything," said the Fire. "Never do anything offhand," said the Glove. "Aspire to greater things," said the Nutmeg. "Get good pull with the ring," said the Door bell. "Do the work you are suited for," said the Flue. "Strive to make a good impression," said the Seal. "Find a good thing and stick to it," said the Glue. "Make much of small things," said the Microscope. "Be sharp in all your dealings," said the Knife. "Spend much time in reflection," said the Mirror. "Turn all things to your advantage," said the Lath. The Jewish Criterion.

A POLICEMAN'S TESTIMONY.

J. N. Patterson, night policeman of Nashua, Ia., writes, "Last winter I had a bad cold on my lungs and tried at least a half dozen advertised cough medicines and had treatment from two physicians without getting any benefit. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and two-thirds of a bottle cured me. I consider it the greatest cough and lung medicine in the world." Sold at Trout's drug store.

Nov. 13. — Indian summer seems to be here. Miss Sadie C. Kirk is visiting friends in Harrisburg. Ross Covatt was husking corn for Albert Kirk last week. Rev. Anthony took dinner at Lewis Yonker's last Sunday. Lemuel Kirk and Alonza Bernhart are in this section baling hay. H. K. Markley was up in the Cove hunting with P. H. Kirk last Wednesday. Oscar Sharpe and lady friend spent last Sunday with Miss Stella Sigel. Thomas Downes, who has been employed at Moses Hess, has returned home. Howard Charlton and bride drove up to see their future home last Sunday afternoon. Edward Batt expects to leave this community in the spring and move to Johnstown, where his brother has been living for some time. The debate at Alpine was very interesting. A. M. Bivens and some more of the speakers gave us very good talks on the subject which was, "Resolved, That wealth causes more crime than poverty." The next one will be held on the 20th inst.

A STARTLING TEST.

To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt of No. Mehoopany, Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, "A patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. A SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even when but slightly disordered or overloaded. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and enables the stomach and digestive organs to transform all food into rich, red blood. Sold at Trout's drug store.

SMOKEY SUMMIT. Lasten for wedding bells. Mrs. Clara Strait visited Mrs. Fanny Sipes Sunday. Hunters can be seen every day, yet game is scarce. Foster Ambrose caught three 'coons last Friday night. Our noted skunk hunter, Rexie Sipes, has caught fifteen. Rev. Shull's meeting at Siloam has been very well attended. Some of our men and boys have returned home from corn husking. That bear in the Nigger Cabin Hollow hasn't been seen. Perhaps it has been caught. Some of the people have killed some very large hogs, but there are some larger ones to be killed. Last Thursday quite a large crowd gathered at the home of David Strait to butcher his fine porkers, one of which tipped the beam at 550 lbs. They all seemed to enjoy themselves very much.

Wanted. 5000 Chickens and Turkeys. Will pay highest market price in cash. ELLIOTT RAY, McConnellsburg.

Weak Hearts Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, pushing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased. Mr. D. Kauble of Nevada, O., says: "I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me. Kodol Digests What You Eat and relieves the stomach of all nervous strain and the heart of all pressure. Bottles only $1.00. Five holding 25c. the trial size, which sells for 50c. Prepared by E. O.
