TEACHER A GOOD SOAP MAN.

Offic Wible Winning "Roubles" and Praise from His Employers.

From a private letter from one of the managers of the James S. Kirk Soap Company of Chicago, we learn that H. O. Wible, a former Fulton county teacher who has been with the Kirk people during the past two years, is one of their most successful salesmen, and occupies a high place in the esteem and confidence of his Company, and earns three times as much cash as when teaching.

REPORT FROM THE REFORM SCHOOL.

J. G. Gluck, Superintendent, Pruntytown, W. Va., writes: "After trying all other advertised cough medicines we have decided to use Foley's Honey and Tar exclusively in the West Virginia Reform School. I find it the most effective and absolutely harmless."

WEST VIEW.

Butchering seems to be taking the lead now-a-days.

Miss Alice Lewis of Franklin Mills spent a few days last week with Malinda Nycum.

Harry B. Hill and Maurice Shaw spent last Sunday with Benj. Hollenshead.

Ed Simpson and sister, Miss Nellie, were guests of Miss Olive Zimmerman a couple days last week.

Mrs. Remy Sharpe of Round Top spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Myers.

Miss Mamie Lashley is visiting relatives and friends in Bedford county.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Weaver and son Leo were the guests of G. W. Fisher's family last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John May spent last Sunday with John Truxel.

Miss Alice Myers spent a few days with Mrs. Emma Weaver.

Misses Bessie Weaver and Audie Dickens spent last Sunday with Bertha Shaw.

A TIMELY TOPIC.

At this season of coughs and colds it is well to know that Foley's Honey and Tar is the greatest throat and lung remedy. It cures quickly and prevents serious results from a cold.

License Notice.

IN THE COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS OF FULTON COUNTY, PA. It is provided that all applications for licenses for the sale of wines, liquors, malt or brewed liquors, wholesale or retail, for the year 1905, shall be heard on Tuesday, the 13th day of January, 1905, at 10 o'clock A. M., at which time all persons signing or making objections to applications, will be heard by evidence, petition, counter-petition or answer. There must be no communication at any time upon the subject, with the judges personally either by letter or any other private way. The petition, verified by affidavit of applicant, shall be in conformity with the requirements of the acts of Assembly. Judgment bond shall be executed in the usual form, with no less than two reputable freeholders of the county as sureties, each of them to be a bona fide owner of real estate in the county of Fulton worth over and above all incumbrances, the sum of $500.00 (other legal security given) bond conditioned by the faithful observance of all the laws relating to the selling or furnishing of liquors, and to pay all damages which shall be recovered against the licensee, and all costs, fines and penalties which may be imposed on him under any provision for violating said laws; and the sureties may be required to appear in Court and testify under oath. The Court shall in all cases refuse the application whenever, in the opinion of the Court, having due regard to the honor and character of the petitioners for and against the application, such license is not necessary for the accommodation of the public and enforcement of the laws and regulations of the State, and is not a fit person to whom such license should be granted. Petitions to be filed with the Clerk of the Court not later than Monday, the 13th day of December, 1904. Objections and remonstrances to be filed with the Clerk, Tuesday, the 13th day of January, 1905. Upon sufficient cause being shown, proof being made to the Court that the party applying for license is not a citizen of the Commonwealth relating to the sale of liquors, the Court shall, upon notice being given to the person licensed, revoke the license. By the Court. SAMUEL McO. SWOPE, P. J. GEO. A. HARRIS, Clerk Q. S. Dec. 2, 1904.
