SOUTH DUBLIN.

There is considerable corn standing in shocks; some cold fingers will be the result of the delay in storing it.

"Dad" Greer seems to be slowly improving, and there is fair hopes that he may fully recover his usual health. The sick at Regis, are reported convalescent. Some of the schools in this township are closed on account of the prevalence of scarlet fever.

The squad of hunters, who spent some time in this neighborhood left some days ago, having bagged some game. It is, we think, about time that the property owners in this section declare an embargo against strangers, who come here and overrun the whole country, and kill anything and everything they see in shape of game, with out asking the privilege from the owners, and disturbing the community by engaging in shooting matches on the Sabbath day. It is a shame, that even some of the young men of the community join in the pastime of annoying the whole community and desecrating the Sabbath.

Mrs. Bertha Oakman and two daughters spent Tuesday and Wednesday of last week with her mother Mrs. D. H. Myers. Nelson Myers who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Cordell near Waynesboro, for the last three weeks has not as yet returned home.

John A. Long of Utah Valley, has a new house in course of construction.

Some fine porkers have been slain.

Ask George Myers how to make cider when the thermometer is down to zero and apples mellow.

That Throbbing Headache

Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches.—They make pure blood and build up your health. Only 25 cents, money back if not cured. Sold by all druggists.

WEST DUBLIN.

Frank Price bought a young horse from Polk Sipes a short time ago.

Harry Keller, Scott Brant, and another hunter killed three wild cats on King's Knob last week.

H. K. Stevens made a business trip to Chambersburg on Saturday. Harry is engaged in huckstering, and makes weekly trips to Sixmile Run.

A remark in Mr. Wolf's article on the roads of Germany about loose stones in the road, brings to mind the fact that teamsters are sometimes careless in regard to throwing out the stones which they use to scorch the wheels when going up a hill.

John Walter Conner.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Conner, who lived four and a half years on the Joseph Palmer farm in Belfast township but who now reside in Waynesboro, will be grieved to learn of the death of their little son, John Walter, which occurred on Saturday, November 28, 2003. The little fellow had been sick about four weeks, of catarrhal pneumonia.

Interment was made at the Stone church, in the Little Cove, on the following Tuesday. The child was aged 4 years, 2 months and 22 days.

Driven To Desperation.

Living at an out of the way place, remote from civilization, a family is often driven to desperation in case of accident, resulting in Burns, Cuts, Wounds, Ulcers, etc. Lay in a supply of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's the best on earth. 25c at all druggists.

LOCAL INSTITUTE.

The fourth local institute of Licking Creek township was held at Salvia school Friday evening, November 27. The meeting was called to order by the teacher Miss Margaret Daniels, who appointed Mr. W. R. Speer chairman.

The questions, "How do you teach Primary Arithmetic? Education; its Purpose and Value." "The value of attractive and healthy schoolrooms," were ably discussed. There were eighteen teachers and the County Superintendent present.

The program was interspersed with music and recitations rendered in such a manner as to reflect much credit on both pupils and teacher.

THE LONE STAR STATE.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller on one of his trips east to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car, "Here take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning feeling good." For the "dark brown" taste, headache and that logy feeling DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best pills to use. Sold at Trout's drug store.

New Grenada.

Your scribe wants to kick gently at ye Editor and News staff. Two weeks ago the whole push of items was discarded; why? Guess they couldn't read them on account of poor penmanship. Last week a name was misspelled, saying Harvey "Sharpe" was married. It happened to be Harvey Shafer. We, of course, can pardon the editor, as the Christmas Jug time is nigh.

A large steam saw mill landed this week on the timber tract in McClain's "loop." There will be sawed and shipped about 80,000 feet of lumber per month. It will furnish employment for men and teams, as all lumber goes to Three Springs.

Coughing gripe struck our town just after Thanksgiving. Yes, it is mixed with "Sneezerink-tims."

Loy McClain made a business trip to McConnellsburg Friday. Jesse O. McClain, of Robertsdale, made a business trip to our town on Saturday.

Libbie Grisinger, who has been a sufferer for two years past, is growing weaker, and looks as if her days here are few.

M. W. Houck made a trip over the mountain to Saxton the past week.

George Alloway has left town for the winter, and is stopping with his brother Charles at Three Springs. He will go on the miners' train to and from work. George, keep away from the girls, I say.

The many friends of Charles Thomas will be glad to learn that he has so far recovered from a dose of typhoid fever as to be able to walk about his room at his home in Saltillo.

The school board of Weils have decided to build at once a new house at No. 2 to take the place of the one recently destroyed by fire.

The Bethel Sunday School has voted in favor of a Christmas Entertainment. Programme as follows: "The Story Never Grows Old." Every person in the community is invited to lend a helping hand and make it a success, as well as a benefit.

Harvey Berg-stresser, of Three Springs, W. B. Stankard, of Wells Tannery, and Hunter Truax, of Enid, called on Flick at New Grenada on Sunday.
