ON TO SYRIA.

Miss Ruth West's Second Chapter on It

cidents and Scenes in Her Journey.

Visits the Acropolis, the Parthenon, and Other

G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of ays: Holiday conditions permarkets. Manufacturin s stopping for inventories and in many cases the extent of ABOU considerably greater the corresponding season in eceding years. There has been plume of business in holiday about the comparison with 1902. An ign is the improvement in delta Smith of Union township Saapshoteffic was not seriously imhad been united in wedlock, and peration, and earnings of y six per cent. Agree-g made with little frie-ge reductions, except in coal-mining, and several .bor disputes are in progress, producers look for much new Mearly next month. tinsburg, of gold were checked many of our eceipts have raised at Bedford of far above all preappeared and "persuaded" the week to Miss that town. ie in speculation, Mr. Ged can a year ago at other leading cities was in of 5 per cent. beginning sers don't intend to Mr. Jame ets beyond the seateen inches PUOTATIONS. Squire Dan, No. 2, 501/2c; Phil-Thom - 481/4@481/4; Baltimore abour York No. 2, 40Mc; Phil-same 2, 41@42c; Baltimore No.

W. I timothy, large bales, No. 1 timothy, small Shippens; No. 2 timothy, school, at 3 timothy, $12.00@

Va., retuer bunch 11/202c. schools Mr box 20/22c. Cab-

Dr Sappington of Wees. Mills, was in town Monday. The doctor, who had the misfortune a few weeks ago to have one of his legs broken by the fall of his horse on the ice while returning Some of the girls in our com. from a professional visit, still motion. J. William Martin of Hancock, Md., was one of the victims in the railroad disaster at Laurel Run Shimer of this place. He was ac Miss Mabel Trout of McConnells of the evening of December 23rd. Just before he died he wrote this message to his wife and handed Mrs. L. C. Kelley spent a few it to a fellow passenger, who dewere of you; please remem that I have always been true to you." A party of young ladies an gentlemen of Everett drove Wells Tannery on Thursday ernoon, where they we tained at the William . Ter. ner homestead. d Southners are well kng Choice, ing her sister Mrs. Ella Speck at Roxbury, Franklin county.

as the essence ogood, 13
The young folks per lb 12 day loud in thei choice, good time.—Ever 3. Geese A curious gland Penn-to hear the dozen -@30; voice. All n rage, fancy, at are obliged t month afte to prime

MAtative lambs

George Mil yearlings

moved into oww; choice, Miss Lenovi; fair. $3.00 heavy, $4.70 her sister in 65; heavy Jesse Danierkers, $4.45 ghs, $3.00@ with friends hers, $3.85@

Rev.Logue will preac chapel Saturday evenio ry 23d.

Miss Bertha Golde Christmas with friends in berland.

George R. Martin recer his farm to William Hiles cock, Md. Oliver Mann had the o tune to fall off his hors break his arm. Mr. and Mrs. P. Fern Crist I th

ON THE MEDITERRANEAN.

Miss Alice Wishart Continues Her Jour ney to India.

Has Her First Experience with Sensickness in Crossing the English Channel-Glimpse of Paris and Marseilles.

MARSEILLES, FRANCE, Dec.4 .get this written so I can mail it the grand hotel Du Louvre a-elde-la-Paux. Now isn't that a name? My! but it is fine here! it only lasted an hour. When we ago. reached Calais on the other side, we got into a railway carriage immediately for Paris, which is one of the most beautiful of cities. We stayed at quite a grand hotel, too-the St. James, which overlooks the famous gardens of the and Clearfield county. Tuilleries and the Louvre (art galleries.) We secured first class compartments for Marseilles, which city it took the whole day till after 10 at night to reach .-Mr. Lee had bought quite a lot of regular picuic on the train. We told stories, played games, read ger. and talked; and when the permin made a stop we got on the cised a little. I m know impresses read at that our impresses read at that our Epoch. In the very nature of one truth is supernatural. It truch contrary to as beyond, our is brinciples are not like the wations of mathematics. The whole field of religion is beyond the realm of the senses and of scientific rules; therefore, it is to be wondered at least of all when we find that in this field speculation and doubt run riot.

bm.

that in this field speculation and doubt run riot.

There is another fact to be considered which Horace Bushnell states admirably:

Our faculty is itself in disorder. A broken or bent telescope will not see anything rightly. So a mind wrenched from its true lines of action, discolored and smircher's a red fez burred, misshapen look on everythip slippers, Truths will only be as good as errors.

Truths will only be as good as errors doubte as natural as they. gult covered in view of all this, let us have gult covered with abusing those who doubt. Chmen amuse wronerly pursued is only knowledge, talk so fast, and: "Infidelity is the ultimate resoulders, and checking the desire for expanded a checking the desire for expanded and the checking the desire for expanded and e that doubt is not a final conditie of our party a dishonest mind. Through the of our party to-day they will come to the bich, and so we to-morrow, and let us also received as what they hold as the trunderstood.

w should have great exps that coming days will goind I must stop, as id add to the proportions the steamer "India."

I have heard of these the steamer "India."

make interpretations minutes.
was the King's "india," Dec. 5.—We King's father dened wir stopped at the St. James in Paris. As I sat out on the balcony to get the air. I had a fine view of the Tuilleries, Louvre, and Eiffel Tower in the distance, the hotel the M. E. church on Monday evel the broad white walks by the laglow of dozens and dozens of cab and sympathetic audience. lamps like big fire flies in the distance. poor cause where easiest thing in the world of the town praying the court to with from sophistan one is traveling, especially withhold license from the two ho-The first thing for very. Marseilles is a beauth to do is to cy. Marseilles is a beauth to do is to cy.

The first thing for toy. Marseilles is a beauter truth to do is to by Marseilles is a beauter truth to do is to by Marseilles is a beauter truth to do is to by Marseilles is a beauter truth to do is to by Marseilles is a beauter truth to do is to by Marseilles is a beauter truth to do is to by Marseilles is a beauter truth to do is to by Marseilles is a beauter truth when he said the incomplete the light we have to refuse the light we have four and five him as a light and sace and the material, it is to low the light we have to refuse the light we have to refuse the light when he said: Whe should he not cry "after us the deluge" when conscious the nothing but an unfathomable was caused eaver the putrefaction of his life? Whese a man has made up his mind to give him self to the sensual and the material, it is belong. The light we have the light of the light will be and the light of revealed religion and pillow in dying head upon a certain fairle. Knowing the life of Wardswerth we would expect him to be proud to write himself down "an atheist;" knowing the life of Wardswerth we would expect him to be proud to write himself down "an atheist;" knowing the life of Wardswerth we would expect him to be proud to write himself down "an atheist;" knowing the life of Wardswerth we would expect him to be proud to write himself down "an atheist;" knowing the life of Wardswerth we would expect him to be proud to write himself down "an atheist;" knowing the life of

CHRISTMA' IN ST. PAUL.

kgs Disappear.

A letter rom Ed Austin, Min-TRIP ONE OF INTEREST AND PLEASURE neapolis, Minn., says that a little Shafer will be pained to learn of wasn't worth speaking about.

Humphrey and his wife have a family of three children-two 15th of this month, he would have seen. On the Mediterranean, and Clarence, Bertha, Frances and hands of Frank Smith was by ac-From London we went by ral to Dover (noted for its white cliffs) and took a steamer across cliffs) and took a steamer across cliffs) and took a steamer across lawyers. He is remembered here Civil War he enlisted, and saw the afterglow, which shows ev. D. S. Garland, Mr. and Mrs. Den- of Ed Clingerman, crushing one the English Channel, where I got much hard service in that great much hard service in that great ery color one can conceive of.—

of the bones of the right forearm.

One never grows weary of watch
Oliver Morris, Mr. and Mrs. W. The services of Dr. Jim McKib-

HUSTONTOWN.

Dec. 30 .- N. E. Laidig and S.B. Speck have returned to Pitcairn. David Heefner spent the holidays with relatives in Petersburg

Kirk Cutchall of Cumberland, Md., is visiting his parents, Mr. ed brother. and Mrs. Wm. Cutchall, in this of McConnellsburg were among church in Buck Valley. fruit and lunch, and we had a the callers on Monday, the latter visiting his uncle, George Cleven- by one daughter, Mrs. G. G.

Lawyers Kirk, Shaffner and J. Nelson Sipes were in town on Tuesday of last week taking testimony in the Shaw vs. Taylor township case.

Miss Lena Laidig, bookkeeper in the Acme Department store in Huntingdon, is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and from Franklin county. Mrs. W. F. Laidig.

C. W. Robinson of Thurmout, Md., representing the Chase Nursery Co., has been making his headquarters at the "Indian Christmas day.

Queen" for the past two weeks. The Christmas entertainment at this place on Christmas night found them all in bed. drew the largest crowd ever known in the history of the church. The program was good returned to his school. and well rendered; but we are sorry to say the order was not John attended preaching at the what might have been expected Christian church last Sunday in a civilized community, yet we morning. are proud of the fact that the "heathens" who created the disorder are not natives of this immediate vicinity.

Reform Association Work.

The Reform Association met in being opposite the gardens of the ning of last week at 7:30. The de-Tuilleries, with the Louvre be votional exercises were conductyoud. It was beautiful in the ed by Rev. A. G. Wolf of the Luevening with the rows and rows theran church. The lecture by of lights flashing and twinkling, Rev. J. Vernon Adams, topic-The Boy and What We Feed goons in the gardens, and the Him," proved a treat to a large

A committee was appointed to prepare a remonstrance to be dis-I find that letter writing is not tributed in the several churches

So the apparel in question w passed free of charges.

JOHN G. SHAFER DEAD.

Ed Austin Help to Make Two Big Tur- Well Known Soldier and Citizen Succumbs to Attack of Heart Disease. The many friends of John G SIGHTS IN HISTORIC CITY OF ATHENS. compan composed of himselfand his death which occurred at his wife, Ar and Mrs. Elijah Barton, home at McKibbin postoffice in Mr. Abert Barton and family, Belfast township last Saturday. Mr. Will Barton and family, and While he had not been in vigorous Dr. and Mrs Geo. Barton, spent health for several years, he arose Chrstmas with Mr. and Mrs. last Saturday morning in appar-We reached here from Paris last Humphrey Barton in St. Paul. eutly good health, ate a hearty night at eleven and I m trying to Ex says they had a good oldfash- breakfast, but an attack of acute Mediterranean just a little before her parents and relatives in the the house when the elder Carson med Pennsylvania dinner; and heart disease followed soon there sunset! We were scheduled to Cove. Those present were: before I sail to-day. We are at what was left of two big turkeys after, and before noon he had sail at four, but were delayed. To passed away. Had Mr. Shafer lived until the the most beautiful I had ever Mrs. John Engle and children, very far when a revolver in the

By his kindly generous discircle of friends who will sincerely mourn his death.

He was a member of Warfordsburg Lodge No. 601 1. O. O. F., His funeral took place on Mon-

Supt. Barton and Don Morton the little cemetery at the M. E. He is survived by his wife, and

SHADY HILL.

Geinger of Union township.

Dec. 30,-Harry Deshong has moved in with his father, Mr. Daniel Deshong.

Mrs. Clara Decker visited her daughter Stella last week.

Russel Mellott has returned George Schooley, who has been in the West, is home on a visit. Leona and Annie Schooley took dinner with Tena and Daisv Sipe

Santa Claus called at C. W. Schooley's Christmas eve and

Leslie Decker, who came home with the grip, has recovered and Mrs. Jennie Schoolev

WELLS TANNERY.

Mr. and Mrs. George Adams are moving to Kearney this week. Our sick people are all improving except Ernest Meredith, who is still right poorly.

The people of Wells are enjoying the New Years snow by sledding and sleighing.

We are sorry to hear that Jas. Horton, the contractor who built the new No. 2 school house that was burned a few days ago, will lose all his labor on account of there being no insurance.

The champion fox hunters. Sprowl brothers, captured twoone on Monday and one on Tuesday-one being grey and the oth-

Cold weather has set in and times are getting dull by reason

Misses Lizzie Sprowl and Bess sie Johnson spent Thursday and Friday at the Hunters Club at the top of the mountain visiting Lizzie's uncie Jerry, who has

The new telephone hue is about Wells. About all the farmers are

B. W. Stunkard and Ban Mc-Donald of Kearney and Finley-

Places of Bible Interest - The People She Saw and Their Ways. What a picture que time it was daughter, Mrs. Simon Claybaugh, true calithumpian style. They to start out on the beautiful blue beyond description.

voyage was added to by the fact Grace Layton. that we rarely lost sight of land. The day was pleasantly spent The hills are of great variety in feasting on the good things the outline and color. They are not ladies present had prepared for the green hills such as we have in occasion, games by the young pso-America, but brown of various ple and much social chat by the list. hues with only patches of green older until evening. With many here and there, and villages dot- good wishes for Mrs. Claybaugh ted over them.

not a great amount to be said in many such occasions. praise of any of the Mediterranean steamers. They are a decided come down after the North German Lloyd steamers a- To begin with they're crowded with passengers. There are only two promenade decks; the upper one runs about one-third the length of the vessel to the rear; the lower one, occupied principally by the dining-saloon, covers the same space as the upper one .-We managed to be quite comfortable. Early in the trip we made the discovery that the extreme bow of the boat beyond the capmost of our evenings up there.

ples. We got up early to see the as our steamer sailed at 10:30, Roxbury, Franklin county. well repaid.

was the most beautiful sunrise I just as we were opposite, there was well attended. had ever seen. That's not saying was a tremendous flare of lightso much, as I can't boast of hav. Stromboli was in eruption. What ing seen so many sunrises as a sight it was! I'll not attempt sunsets in my life. Of course we to describe it. went on shore, and it was one On Monday we reached Piraeus from us, the parsonage was great- bands. Whe 22.40; bulls long circus from the time we the harbor of Athens, at about 10 ly surprised by the influx of a remove this 575; Texas started to dicker to go on shore A. M The ship's doctor had to goodly number of St. Paul's conuntil we were safely on the Equa- give oath that he had examined gregation, laden with the good with a gift, heavy $4.300 teur once more. Naples is, as all, before we were allowed to go things of this life. St. Pauls chatter to he steady; good you know, one of the worst places on shore on account of the quar- know how to encourage the heart on record for sharpers. They antine against Marseilles for of her pastor and his family; she even cheat on post cards, if one plague. This, then, was the way realizes the teaching of the Masdoes not keep close guard. It he took-we were all shut up in ter's saying: "It is more blessed was like beginning all over again the dining-saloon, where he pass- to give than to receive." Many be to use the Italian money. The ed around the hat, collecting a her blessings for kindness mani-German and French were quite franc from each one of us, with fested, is our prayers. The house an old story by that time. It was out even giving us half a look, hold joins, in making this public rather amusing, interesting, and then we were permitted to pass acknowledgment with grateful too, rather repulsive, along the on. At Piraeus we took a rail- hearts for the kind rememb! completed from New Grenada to quay at Naples. Even the dirty way car for a way-station of rance. little street gamins are engaged Athens, adjacent to the Acropoin scrapping over small coms, hs; in fifteen minutes we had trying to "do" one another .- reached there. Above the rail zie, and Mac Stunkard, were out There are bands of Italian sing- way station, on quite a terrace. trying George's new sleigh Sun- ers burrying to and fro. Maca- is the Thesrus. This temple is in rout making is in progress; fish the best state or preservation of parsonage in Hustontown Decemand other food are prepared and all the ancient temples of Athens; ber 24, 1903, by Rev. J. R. Melcooked right on the carbon small supposedly was built in 470 B. C. roy, Mr. Daniel Bishop of near stoves. Around all is dust and It belongs to the Doric Order of Hustontown and Miss Lucy L. dirt galore. I know it does not Architecture, and is built of Rancs of Hustontown. take the Neapolitans long to get | Pentelic marble, with six columns their "traditional peck." They on each front and thirteen on Lost .- On the Cove road south they drive the cows around the perfect condition.

At the Home of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Smith

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

in Honor of Their Daughter. One of the most delightful so- the couple went to the home of cial occasions in Whips Cove oc- the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs NAMES curred at the home of Mr. and Robert Carson, where they were Mrs. Levi Smith on New Year's given a reception. To add to the fore for day. It was a surprise party giv- celebration of the occasion a en in honor of the twentieth anni- number of young men assembled versary of the marriage of their and tendered them a serenade in of Iowa, who is at present visiting thad made but one journey around

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Layton and serenaders to depart. They despeak again of the sunset, it was sons, Alfred and Chester, Mr. and parted, but had not proceeded ing the harmony of these colors. H. Decker, Mrs. Ellen Boor and bin were then sought, and the has in his pcposition he won to him a large This first evening on the Medi. daughters, Ethel and Pearl, Mr. obliging surgeon fixed the unforterranean the sun itself was like a ball of fire as it disappeared over the island of hills; the after.

and Mrs. James S. Akers and son, Lee, Mrs. Simon Garland, over the island of hills; the after.

And Mrs. James S. Akers and son, Lee, Mrs. Simon Garland, over the island of hills; the after.

And Mrs. James S. Akers and circumstances would permit, but he will always bear a reminder of apple grev. Solve tints were marvelous. The color Layton, Mrs. William B. Lake, that night's trolic. members of which attended his of the water in the Mediterrane. Mrs. Henry Vanclief, Mr. Howfuneral and performed the last an is a wonder in itself; at first and Garland, Mr. Charley Shiverites in memory of their depart- one might say indigo-blue-but ley, Mr. Charles Decker, Mr. no, it is purple also, and has Clarence Claybaugh, Mr. Philip snades of rose and crimson-lake. Lanehart, Miss Gertrude Garland, day and interment was made in The conclusion is that it is quite Miss Nora Garland, Miss Rosa and thanks to the donors for their About the Equateur of the kindness, all returned home feel-Massagerie Maritime Line I have ing that it was time pleasantly said nothing. Really, there is spent, wishing they might enjoy Robert Shimer, who has been employed at Harrisburg for the past few months is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Miss Mary E. Largent, who had McGehee's. been spending a few days in Har bersburg.

street and milk them as the milk is called for. The Aquarium and Museum

tain's bridge was quite the nicest | are the only things there of great | part of the boat, so we spent interest aside from the streetscenes. Both of these are very last Wednesday. Saturday at 6:30 a. m. we drop- fine. We did not have time to go ped anchor in the harbor at Na- out to Pompeli-to our dismaysun rise over Naples, and were and among the swindlers one had to allow plenty of time.

The Bay of Naples, with smok- On Saturday night, when we vacation with friends here. ing Vesuvius in the background, were up in the bow of the boat, Unfortunate Serenade.

George Carson and Miss Cor-

We are having some very cold

Quite a number of our young folks attended the entertainment Morris, Miss Anna B. Garland, at Hustontown and also the watch dent at fland Vegetables .- Ap-The interest of our southern Miss Goldie Plessinger, and Miss meeting at Mt. Tabor on New ness Coaryland and Pennsyl-Year's eve.

The meeting at Mt. Tabor is still progressing under the care of Revs. Melroy and Wolf. their holiday ton, domestic, State, per ton, parents, Hon. :—Cape Cod, Revs. Melroy and Wolf.

James Hampton is on the sick Morton, near towbox $1.75@

Mrs. Jonas Lake is suffering from a lame back and badly sprained arm the result is of being in the wreck on the C. V. R. R. last Friday.

munity are making good use of finds it convenient to use a cruithe opportunity that leap year af. and a cane to assist him in locc

BURNT CABINS.

Dr. Fontaine accompanied by companied home by his friend burg, spent Monday with Chas.

risburg, Shippensburg and Cham- days last week with her adopted livered it: "My last though son, Geddes, who is ill with measles in Martinsburg, W. Va.

Miss Bessie Reese, who spent the holidays with her parents, returned to Shippensburg State Normal Monday.

Geo. Comerer and wife returned to their work in Wells Valley

Mrs. Sarah McGowan is visit-

Dr. J. Alvin Comerer of Clearfield county, spent his holiday is a picture in itself. Again, it we passed near the Stromboli; held in the M. E. church here penalty for hore, Maryland Acknowledgment. As the first day of the New

Year was rapidly shipping away

A. G. WOLF, Pastor.

Married.

BISHOP-RANCK,-At the M. E.

At the Lutheran parsonage, really seem to thrive on the dirt each flank. As to the sculpture, of town on Monday a small black Dec. 30, 1908, Mr. Clarence P. which surrounds them: Another much of it has been destroyed .- and white shepherd dog was loss Seacrist of Farmersville, Ill., and curious spectacle met my eye-it The reliefs from each pediment, or strayed away. A liberal re-Miss Massmin, howerman of was the entirely alive and walk- etc., the remaining scupitures, ward will be paid for his return of the mines being closed.

been on the sick list.

The people of Wells were much excited on Thursday by a mad dog report.

having phones. George Sprowl and sister Liz-ville, respectively, were home dining with their families Sunthey drive the cow around the perfect condition.