Long and short slabwood for sale at Spangler's mill at Knobsville.

Mr. Nathaniel H. Peck, of Ambridge, Pa., is visiting his mother Mrs. Nancy Peck, and other relatives and friends in this county.

Mighty good is Fort Bedford Coffee and better still a handsome present in each pack, and it only costs a cent more than other package coffee.

County Auditors W. C. Davis, John A. Myers and George W. Glenn, with their clerk John S. Harris are busy this week examining the accounts of the county treasurer. This is an exceptionally able board, and no fear need be entertained that the interests of the county will suffer.

Fatal kidney and bladder troubles can always be prevented by the use of Foley's Kidney Cure. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Gen. John Pedden and Capt. H. Dotterman will hold the ordinance of Feet Washing and the Lord's Supper at the home of William Stone on Timber Ridge, next Saturday evening at 7 o'clock; and, also, an ordinance meeting will be held at the home of Anson Weller on Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. All are welcome to these meetings.

The prevention of consumption is entirely a question of commencing the proper treatment in time. Nothing is so well adapted to ward off fatal lung troubles as Foley's Honey and Tar. Sold at Trout's drug store.

The Union prayer services this week are well attended, and very interesting. The services to-night will be held in the United Presbyterian church; to-morrow evening in the Methodist, and Friday night in the Reformed.

Prothonotary Geo. A. Harris on Monday administered the oath of office to Associate Judge-elect William H. Bender, Judge Kirk's term of office having expired. Judge Bender's term of office is for five years, his term expiring on the first Monday of January, 1905.

The Commissioners give notice that they will sit for the purpose of hearing appeals from the triennial assessment at the usual places of holding such appeals, beginning January 18, at Fort Littleton, in Dublin township. The sessions will be from 10 o'clock a. m. to 1 p. m., and assessors are required to attend.

Messrs. Charles B. Stevens, M. R. Shaffner, Charles E. Barton, Merrill W. Nace, of this place, James A. McDonough, of New Grenada, and C. J. Potts, of Bedford, composed a party of the Masonic fraternity's members who went from here to Chambersburg last Friday to witness the conferring of the Master Mason's degree upon Mr. Nace. These six gentlemen represented five different lodges.

C. V. Has Another Wreck. Another wreck occurred Saturday afternoon on the Cumberland Valley Railroad about a quarter of a mile west of Shippensburg. It is reported that seven freight cars, which were loaded, were derailed. No one was killed. Spreading of the rails caused the accident.

Cured After Suffering 10 Years.

B. F. Hare, Supt. Miami Cycle & Mfg. Co. Middletown, O. suffered for ten years with dyspepsia. He spent hundreds of dollars for medicine and with doctors without receiving any permanent benefit. He says, "One night while feeling exceptionally bad I was about to throw down the evening paper when I saw an item in the paper regarding the merits of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I concluded to try it and while I had no faith in it I felt better after the second dose. After using two bottles I am stronger and better than I have been in years, and I recommend Kodol Dyspepsia Cure to my friends and acquaintances suffering from stomach trouble." Sold at Trout's drug store.

WHIPS COVE.

Pretty fine sleighing here and people are making good use of it.

A local institute was held at Oak Grove last Friday evening, but owing to the inclement weather only four teachers were present.

One of Belfast's teachers seems to have a hankerin' over this way. Mrs. Brabson, who has been sick a good while, does not seem to be improving any. Mrs. Clef Diehl is no better, but the rest of the folks in the cove are pretty well.

Miss Minnie Mellott returned to Altoona last week; we wish her success, for she is as fine a girl as she is fine looking.

Some of the good people of the Cove sawed and hauled Mrs. Rachel Wink a fine lot of wood last week; also a nice lot was hauled to the churches. Whips Cove people have the name of being very clever.

In Bed four weeks with La Grippe.

We have received the following letter from Mr. Roy Kemp, of Angola, Ind. "I was in bed four weeks with la grippe and I tried many remedies and spent considerable for treatment with physicians, but I received no relief until I tried Foley's Honey and Tar. Two small bottles of this medicine cured me and now I use it exclusively in my family." Take no substitutes. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Surveys Calculated and Drafted. There are many persons throughout the county who have no draft of their land, and many of the drafts now in existence are badly torn and faded. I am prepared to make new drafts on best quality of paper at low cost. Calculations of land made, blue printing done, small tracts adjoining, connected into one draft. F. M. TAYLOR, McConnellsburg, Pa.

Record Breaker.

Monday night was a record breaker as far as cold weather is concerned. Not for years has mercury dropped so low in this locality. During the night the extreme limit of 17 below was registered here; 27 at Fort Littleton; 16 at Hancock, and 14 at Mercersburg. Almost any old thermometer could register 10 or 12 below.

SEND US A GOW,

THE CROSBY TRISLAN FUR COMPANY, 116 Mill Street, Rochester, N. Y.

PLEASANT GROVE.

Our school at Pleasant Grove is progressing nicely under the care of Amos N. Mellott. His brother Charles from Coalport is visiting friends in this vicinity.—They went to Whips Cove New Year's day. What's the attraction boys?

Mrs. Isaac B. Layton is suffering with a severe headache. Isaac is talking of brushing the dust from his sligh. Never mind, Isaac, there are no weddings.

Jim Fagley, who has been employed chopping cord wood at S. W. Truax's started home Saturday. Samuel says it pays to lime.

Bert Truax is busy moving his dwelling house onto a tract of land he has bought. Bert is a hustler. He lacks the required help that he is in need of.

H. K. Hill and wife spent New Year's day at Benj. H. Truax's.

Miss Blanche Truax and sister Jennie visited Mr. Will Truax New Year's day.

Some of our young folks attended the debate at Alpine schoolhouse Friday night.

Job Truax is not improving very fast.

Luther Smith and family are visiting relatives on Pleasant Ridge.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but, when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at all drug stores.

FARM FOR SALE.

I will sell at private sale my farm of 150 acres lying along the pike 4 miles east of Harrisonville. About 90 acres are cleared and balance in timber. The improvements are a good two-story Frame House nearly new, Bank Barn and other out buildings.—There is also an orchard of fine fruit. Good water near the door. Will sell on terms to suit the purchaser. W. A. VALLANCE, Harrisonville, Pa. 11-25-03
