PIGEON COVE.

Jan. 2.—The light of a new year has dawned upon us. Let us all try to make our lives better and purer during this year than they have ever been before. Wm. Charlton, who had been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Chas. Cover, of Covington, returned home last week.

Mrs. Wm. Mellott, who has been in bad health for some time, is better.

Miss Ellen McKibbin has gone to Martinsburg, where she expects to spend some time among relatives.

John Kirk and bride spent last week with the groom's father, H. P. Kirk.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Andrews were guests of the Misses Gordon on Christmas evening.

Mrs. George Ward is visiting her mother, Mrs. Rachel Hughes.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson of Frostburg visited Mrs. Watson's brother, Mr. Whitfield, recently.

Mrs. Lee Charlton is a little better but is still unable to walk without the aid of crutches.

A great many of our people attended Dr. Thompson's lecture at Warfordsburg on New Year's eve.

The Christmas entertainment at Bethel was well attended. The program rendered by the school was very good. The tree, which was beautifully decorated, held many handsome presents.

What's In a Name?

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co. of Chicago discovered some years ago how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for Piles. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding Piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Communion.

The Methodists at Center will have Communion service at Speck's church next Sunday morning at 10:30. Also Communion at Fairview at 2:30 p. m.

Wanted.

5000 Chickens and Turkeys. Will pay highest market price in cash.

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS
THE NECESSARY MAGAZINE IN THE PRESIDENTIAL YEAR
The Review of Reviews is often called a necessity, in recognition of its usefulness in keeping readers "up with the times."
In Presidential election years the REVIEW OF REVIEWS is more than ever "the necessary magazine." Everybody wants to be truly and quickly informed about this or that public question that has forged to the front; to know about the new candidates and personal factors in politics, to have a complete picture at hand of the current movement of history.
In Dr. Shaw's editorials, in its authentic and timely contributions, in its brilliant character sketches, in its condensations and reviews of all the important articles of other magazines, and in its hundred or more of valuable portraits, witty cartoons, and interesting views, the REVIEW OF REVIEWS gives the much desired news of the world and our own progress. "The World under a Field-glass" is the way one subscriber describes it. "The Man in the public life, like President Theodore Roosevelt, the members of Congress, and the great captains of industry, who must keep 'up with the times.' Intelligent men and women all over America, have decided it is 'indispensable.'"
