What's in a Name?
Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co. of Chicago discovered some years ago how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for Piles. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding Piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Mrs. Phoebe Bard.
Phoebe, wife of Mr. John Bard of Belfast township, died at 4 o'clock last Sunday morning, aged about 54 years.

Mrs. Bard's health had been failing for several months, but it was not until last Monday a week that she became confined to her bed from a violent attack of pneumonia which her waning vitality was not able to withstand, and death came as before stated.

Mrs. Bard was a daughter of the late Theodore Mellott, who many years ago was a prominent citizen of Belfast township.

She is survived by one full brother and sister, Rev. Absalom Mellott of Belfast and Mrs. Rebecca Lake of North Dakota; also by her husband and the following named children: Lou (Mrs. James McClay of Bedford county), Stella, a student at the Mountain State Business College, at Parkersburg, W. Va.; Laura, Ida, Erastus, Virgil, and Webster.

Mrs. Bard was a woman of strong intellect, and well beloved by all who knew her.

Funeral this morning at 10 o'clock. Interment at the cemetery at the Dunkard church on Pleasant Ridge, of which she was a faithful member.

Mrs. Mary Kelso.
The many friends of Mary Kelso, wife of William Kelso near Knobsville, were pained to learn that she passed from this world last Sunday night.

Mrs. Kelso had been afflicted for several months with a tumorous growth in her stomach and her physician advised an operation, but from this she shrank until her vitality had become too low to risk etherization.

Mrs. Kelso was a daughter of Mr. Frank Hershey, and was a consistent member of the United Brethren church. She was aged about 40 years, and interment was made at Knobsville on Tuesday.

The grief-stricken husband and children have the deepest sympathy of their friends in this the loss of wife and mother. May they find comfort in the thought that she is now beyond the realm of pain and suffering.

Mrs. Mahala Brabson.
The subject of this notice died on the 4th inst. at the home of her son-in-law, John Hiles, in Brush Creek township, aged about 79 years, and was interred at the cemetery at the Dunkard church near Amaranth on the 6th.

Mrs. Brabson was married twice, first to Denton Lanehart, who was killed in battle in the Civil War, and second to George Brabson of Whips Cove. Samson Lanehart and Mrs. Hiles are the surviving children by the first husband, and George Brabson, Jr., by the second husband, who died about five years ago.

Surveys Calculated and Drafted.
There are many persons throughout the county who have no draft of their land, and many of the drafts now in existence are badly torn and faded. I am prepared to make new drafts or best quality of paper at low cost.

Calculations of land made, blue printing done, small tracts adjoining, connected into one draft.
