Foley's Honey and Tar is best for croup and whooping cough, contains no opiates and cures quickly. Careful mothers keep at in the house.

Mrs. A. S. Greenland of Wells Valley spent a few days recently visiting her sister, Mrs. J. T. Sheeder, in Everett.

This is a good time to subscribe for the FULTON COUNTY NEWS. Only a dollar a year in advance.

Rev. John H. Barney of Clearville is a candidate for the nomination on the Republican ticket for the office of associate judge in Bedford county.

If you need anything in Millinery, now is the time to get it at Maye Johnston's. What she has must go in order to make room for spring.

Frank B. and William H. Spade of Brush Creek township spent last Friday night in McConnellsburg.

Foley's Honey and Tar cures the cough caused by attack of la grippe. It heals the lungs.

Mr. Emanuel Sharpe of Needmore was in town last Saturday arranging for his sale on the 16th of March. Mr. Sharpe intends to move with his family to Montana in the spring.

Kidney complaint kills more people than any other disease. This is due to the disease being so insidious that it gets a good hold on the system before it is recognized. Foley's Kidney Cure will prevent the development of the fatal disease if taken in time.

Big Sale.

Attention is directed to our sale register for a synopsis of the large sale of personal property to be sold at the late residence of James G. Kendall, deceased, 2 miles south of McConnellsburg on Wednesday, March 2.

Social Event.

Last Thursday evening about seven o'clock as Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Rotz had just finished their supper, quite a number of young folks, from and about town went walking into the Rotz home. The visitors soon joined in and had a delightful play-party.

Those who were present were Olive, Bess, Mae, Herbert, and Harvey Helman, Mazie and Nell Gross, Lloyd Ray, Mertie Snider, Roy Rummel, Mertie and Bess Smith, Daisy Morgret, Gertrude, Ella and Benjamin McLucas, and Luther Gordon.

About twelve o'clock Mrs. Rotz called them for refreshments, which were much enjoyed.

Sale Continued.

The sale of the Mansion Farm and adjoining tracts of the late John Daniels, deceased, lying on the turnpike, one mile west of Harrisonville, has been continued to SATURDAY, MARCH 5, 1904, at 10 o'clock a. m.

S. P. WOODCOCK, Salisbury, Wicomeo county, Maryland.

THE DEATH PENALTY.

A little thing sometimes results in death. Thus a mere scratch, insignificant cuts or puny boils have paid the death penalty. It is wise to have Bucklen's Arnica Salve ever handy. It's the best salve on earth and will prevent fatality, when burns, sores, ulcers and piles threaten. Only 25c, at all druggists.

FOR SALE

Stock, Grain, Grass, Truck & Paul

Arm Broken.

Last Saturday a week Paul, the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. David Hershey of Tod township, was down in the lot chasing some calves, when the little fellow slipped on ice and broke his left arm between the wrist and elbow. Dr. Mosser fixed the boy up and he is now about as good as ever.

AN EARLY RISER.

A strong, healthy, active constitution depends largely on the condition of the liver. The famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers not only cleanse the system but they strengthen the action of the liver and rebuild the tissues supporting that organ. Little Early Risers are easy to act, they never gripe and yet they are absolutely certain to produce results that are satisfactory in all cases. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Educational Meeting.

An educational meeting was held at the Corner school house, February 12, 1905.

The meeting was called to order by the teacher, Miss Carrie Humbert, and Mr. D. H. Comerer was chosen president.

The following questions were well discussed by the teachers present: 1. How do you secure the co-operation of the patrons in school work? 2. How and to what extent do you teach current events? 3. How do you secure promptness in school work?

The teachers present were G. B. Mellott, G. E. Clouser, Maude Ruedollar, Carrie Humbert and Mae Mellott. The program was interspersed with recitations and singing by the school.

Mae Mellott,
Secretary.

HAVE YOU INDIGESTION?

If you have indigestion, Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will cure you. It has cured thousands. It is curing people every day—every hour. You owe it to yourself to give it a trial. You will continue to suffer until you do try it. There is no other combination of digestants that digest and rebuild at the same time. Kodol cures, strengthens and rebuilds. Sold at Trout's drug store.

A NEWSPAPER WORTH READING.

The Pittsburg Times is a conservative, careful newspaper for particular people. Its statements of fact and comments on them are concise and correct. Its departments are in charge of experts, and its authority in all matters pertaining to the events of the world at large and of the community it represents more particularly is recognized. It has no Sunday edition, and its position in that regard in Pittsburg is as unique as its thorough reliability in every way. Staunchly Republican in political policy it yet gives all the news of all parties. Its moral tone is high, and churchmen of every creed find in its columns more news of their interests and work than in all its contemporaries combined. Sports are given the prominence they deserve and no more. The news concerning them is bright, timely and adequate, for the work is done by a master. Theaters in The Times as in no other paper have the truth told about them and the plays they offer. No business considerations ever interfere with the publication of criticisms that really criticize, and in this department, too, the work is done by a master. Society and the affairs of women find careful and complete exposition on the page devoted to them. Industrial matters are accorded the prominence they merit in a Pittsburg paper, while the stock market is given the attention that has brought The Times into the front rank of financial authorities.—Above all The Times is a model not only of brevity of statement but of dignified simplicity in its typographical appearance. It offends neither the eye nor the sensibilities. Those things that are of importance are treated accordingly. Those that are unimportant are handled in keeping with their value. Each issue of The Times is a day's history of events the wide world round. Its price is one cent daily or $3 a year.
