PNEUMONIA FOLLOWS A COLD.

but never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough, heals and strengthens the lungs and affords perfect security from an attack of pneumonia. Refuse all substitutes. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, On the 4th day of March, 1904, the soul of Walter Morgan, a loved member of Wells Tannery, Pennsylvania, was called from earth, and his body separated from loved ones, and laid away to await the final resurrection. Therefore, be it Resolved— That the members of the above named Castle bow with humble submission to the will of Him who has seen fit to remove from our number a faithful and loved brother.

That in this way we desire to transmit to posterity the memory of his fidelity and integrity as an example for the emulation of brothers whose life work is not yet ended.

That we extend to the bereaved widow and child our warmest sympathy, and commend them to the fraternal interest of every loyal eagle in the brotherhood.

That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this Castle; that they be published in the FULTON COUNTY NEWS, and that a copy be sent to the widow of the deceased brother.

That the charter of this Castle be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days, and that the brothers wear the usual badge.

W. H. BAUMGARDNER,
H. W. S. WILSON,
JAMES A. BORTON,
Committee on Resolutions.

WELLS TANNERY.

Mrs. Shives of Everett, was a guest in the family of A. S. Greenland a part of last week.

Dr. John R. Hunter of Lewistown, was called to see Mrs. Harvey Wishart, who has been ill for some time. At this writing she is much improved in health.

A little daughter came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Bivens.

Harry Spangler a native of this place but now of Pittsburg, is suffering from a severe attack of quinsy and grippe.

John Gibson is kept indoors with rheumatism.

Misses Margaret Golden and Jessie Mellott, gave a complete surprise last Wednesday evening to Mrs. A. S. Greenland and Mrs. Kirk. There were about twenty-five of their friends present, and a very pleasant evening was spent.

Sixteen of our industrious ladies assembled to make a quilt for Mrs. Harry Edwards, who so recently lost all she had in the fire at their home at Enid. After the patches were all complete, they met in the home of Mrs. A. F. Baker and quitted it all ready for use.

BEATS NO-TOBAC.

Simple and Effective Remedy for Curing the Tobacco Habit.

Apples are a sure cure for the drink habit, the tobacco habit and the low morals which lead to crime says John T. Stenson, director of pomology at the World's Fair. Pamphlets setting forth the efficacy of apples as a cure for bad habits will be distributed with one million apples on Apple Day, Sept. 28.

In order to work a cure by means of the apple diet, Mr. Stenson advises that when one has a craving for a smoke or a drink of liquor to take an apple in its place; if there is a tendency to do something desperate, sit down and quietly eat an apple and reflect over it. Just what medical property is contained in the apple Mr. Stenson does not pretend to say. Senator Cockrell's moral life and high standard of statesmanship is cited as an incident of the refining influence of apples. It is a well-known fact that the Senator makes his lunch of apples every day to the exclusion of all other food, and has kept up this diet for thirty years.

Cough Settled on Her Lungs.

"My daughter had a terrible cough which settled on her lungs," says N. Jackson of Danville, Ill, "We tried a great many remedies without relief, until we gave her Foley's Honey and Tar which cured her." Refuse all substitutes. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Came Back To Him.

A boy stepped into one of our barber shops the other day leaving the door open behind him, when a smart young fellow sitting inside yelled, "Were you brought up in a barn? Shut that door!" The boy did as he was told, but the tears were seen to trickle down his cheeks. "There, never mind, boy, of course you weren't brought up in a barn." "That's just it," blubbered the boy. "I was; and every time I see a jackass, it all comes back to me."

THE NEW YORK WORLD.

Thrice-a-Week Edition.

Read Wherever the English Language is Spoken.

The Thrice-a-Week World long ago established itself in public favor, and it is now recognized as the strongest publication of its kind in the United States. Advertisers and publishers seeking clubbing combinations—and they know best—universally testify to this. It is widely circulated in every State and Territory of the Union, and even in remote South Africa and on the gold fields in the deserts of Australia. These are the things that tell.

This year we have the Presidential campaign, in which all Americans are deeply interested. Already the issues are being discussed and the two great parties are preparing for the first moves. You will not want to miss any details, and if you subscribe now your year's subscription will cover the campaign from beginning to end.

The Thrice-a-Week World is absolutely fair in its political news. Partisan bias is never allowed to affect its news columns, and Democrat and Republican alike can obtain in its pages truthful accounts of all the great political contests.

In addition to all the news, the Thrice-a-Week World furnishes the best serial fiction, elaborate market reports and other features of interest.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and The Fulton County News together one year for $1.75.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.00.

HAPPY, HEALTHY CHILDREN.

Any child can take Little Early Risers with perfect safety. They are harmless, never gripe or sicken, and yet they are so certain in results that robust constitutions requiring drastic means are never disappointed. They cannot fail to perform their mission and every one who uses DeWitt's Little Early Risers prefer them to other pills. They cure biliousness. Sold at Trout's drug store.

The Ways of Hogs and Men.

"It's a fact that when one hog gets an ear of corn every other hog will trot along behind and be ready for a bite. But just let that hog get his head fast in a crack and every other hog will jump on him and help tear him to pieces," says the Lincoln Herald.

Just so it is with men. As long as one is prosperous and has money, he can't keep friends off with a ball bat. The moment he is unfortunate and his wealth is gone, he is not only snubbed by his former friends, but they begin to do him all the harm possible. When a man stands down grade the world stands aside and greases the track."
