The surest and safest remedy for kidney and bladder diseases is Foley's Kidney Cure.

Miss Anna Wink and her nephew, Ross Wink of Webster Mills, were the guests of Mrs. Mary A. Kelley Saturday evening and Sunday.

Misses Nell and Blanche Johnston, the former having taught at Lewistown and the latter at Willow Hill, Pa., have both returned home.

Canned sweet potatoes, pine apples, peaches, tomatoes, and corn—only 10cents each at Scott's grocery.

John Huston of Clear Ridge has gone to Poughkeepsie, N. Y., to take a commercial course at Eastman's College.

Mr. Eli Zearfoss of Franklin county, who is slightly demented and who imagines that he is a candidate for president, has been wandering through the upper end of this county for several weeks. The friends of Mr. Zearfoss are very anxious to have him return home; and any one knowing of his whereabouts, will confer a favor by notifying this office by phone at our expense.

Since the above was put in type we learn that Mr. Zearfoss, who is a pensioner, and that a pension check ripens about this time, made his way back to Chambersburg on Monday, and on Tuesday was placed in the insane department of the Franklin county almshouse.

If you want to keep in touch with the live business people of McConnellsburg, read what they have to say to you in their advertisements in the News. Some people say there are too many advertisements in the newspaper. An intelligent farmer said in our office the other day that the information he got from the advertisements was worth to him much more than the subscription price of the paper.

Grand Regent Howard B. McNulty will make a special effort to increase the membership of the Royal Arcanum in the western part of the State. By his direction Dr. John A. Bouse, special deputy, will open an office in Tyrone. From the headquarters at Tyrone he will work a class movement, including Altoona, Bellwood, Tyrone, Huntingdon, and other nearby places.

THE BEST FAMILY SALVE.

Dewitt's Witch Hazel gives instant relief from burns, cures cuts, bruises, sores, Eczema, Tetter and all other abrasions of the skin. In buying Witch Hazel Salve it is only necessary to see that you get the genuine Dewitt's and a cure is certain. There are many cheap counterfeits on the market all of which are worthless, and quite a few are dangerous, while Dewitt's Witch Hazel Salve is perfectly harmless. Sold at Trout's drug store.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE
Cures Kidneys and Bladder Right

Chronic Bronchitis Cured.

"For ten years I had chronic bronchitis so bad that at times I could not speak above a whisper," writes Mr. Joseph Coffman, of Montmorenci, Ind. "I tried all remedies available, but with no success. Fortunately my employer suggested that I try Foley's Honey and Tar. Its effect was almost miraculous, and I am now cured of the disease. On my recommendation many people have used Foley's Honey and Tar, and always with satisfaction."

NEW GRENADA.

Measles are a thing of the past in our village.

Ritner Black is on the sick list—suffering from erysipelas.

F. G. Mills is still on the sick list—able to be about but little.

Charles Schenck is erecting a new dwelling near the U. B. church in the Valley.

Jesse B. McClain and family moved to Mapleton where he will go into the butchering business.

Mrs. Elizabeth Crider moved back to town, she having been on the Jacob Black farm two years.

Candidate John P. Sipes and T. P. Garland were visible in our town last Tuesday and Wednesday.

Dr. R. B. Campbell attended the Fulton & Bedford Telephone meeting in Everett last Thursday.

Rev. Harry Ash, the new M. E. minister, preached his introductory sermon at Zion Sunday evening.

Cleve Crider and Loy McClain left for Altoona, having secured employment there, while B. F. Crider went to Pittsburg.

Alex R. Edwards of Taylor tried to perform with the trick goat in I. O. O. F. Lodge here on Saturday evening. The goat got the better of him.

N. G. Cunningham is having the lower part of the new Hall here fixed up for a store room, and will move into it with his store at an early date.

Dr. Wm. Hunter has gone to Reedsville, Pa., and located there in the practice of dentistry. He is a skilful operator, and we recommend him to the people where he has gone.

Miss Alice Grissinger arrived home on Friday from Streator, Illinois, where she had gone from the conservatory of music at Valparaiso, Indiana, to visit her sister, Mrs. Julia Johnston.

No. 4 school closed on the 8th, and on the 10th inst. Miss Letitia Peck left this "neck o' woods" for a visit to friends in Johnstown. From there she will go to her home in Thompson township.

Mrs. Richard Alloway gave a party in honor of her husband's 33d birthday on Saturday evening, which was so arranged that Richard was not aware of anything unusual until he was directed to go to the parlor and bring the children out—when lo! and behold! to his amazement the parlor was full of invited guests. Next on the program was a feast of the good things of the land, and afterward a host of useful presents were handed over to Richard, causing many expressions of gratitude from Dickey Boy. It was a good, old-fashioned, merry-go-round party.

Since moving time you will note the changes here. S. P. Metzler bought and resides on the Samuel F. Grissinger mansion farm; Wm. Kerling of Dublin Mills bought and resides on the Jacob Black farm; Newton Stains bought the Jesse B. McClain, or "Dr. Hunter," farm—no one residing there at present; Charles Alloway moved to the Frank McClain farm; William H. Fritchey made sale and moved to Huntingdon county; James Keith moved from Eagle Foundry to his place in Wells; Mrs. Tice moved to Catharine Lockard's place; Wm. H. Lockard moved to E. A. Horton's tenant house; J. A. Repper moved to J. Cal Foster's tenant house.

Dreadful Attack of Whooping Cough.

Mrs. Ellen Harrison, of 300 Park Ave., Kansas City, Mo., writes as follows: "Our two children had a severe attack of whooping cough one of them in the paroxysm of coughing would often bleed at the nose. We tried every thing we heard of without getting relief. We then called in our family doctor who prescribed Foley's Honey and Tar. With the very first dose they began to improve and we feel that it has saved their lives." Refuse substitutes. Sold at Trout's drug store.

The Smart Set

A Magazine of Cleverness

Magazines should have a well-defined purpose. Genuine entertainment, amusement and mental recreation are the motives of THE SMART SET, the

MOST SUCCESSFUL OF MAGAZINES

Its NOVELS (a complete one in each number) are by the most brilliant authors of both hemispheres. Its short SHORT STORIES are matchless—clean and full of human interest.

Its POETRY covers the entire field of verse—pathos, love, humor, tenderness—is by the most popular poets, men and women, of the day. Its JOKES, WITTICISMS, SKETCHES, etc., are admittedly the most mirth provoking.
