

WOMEN BREAK DOWN.

Sometimes women drift into a condition of "half invalid." Continual languor—all tired out, run down, backache, nerves shattered, headache, terrible pain, no appetite, poor digestion, innumerable out of ten it's because the kidneys fail to do their work of filtering the poisonous system waste from the blood. The kidneys are weak and need the strengthening help of Doan's Kidney Pills. Read how these pills repair a weakened physical condition when this condition is caused by sick kidneys.

Mrs. Sadie Mettles, of 394 W. 4th Ave., Columbus, Ohio, says: "Prior to the year 1898 I suffered considerably from backache, pain in the head, languor and depression and weakness of the action of the kidneys. The pain was always worse in the morning and I felt miserable. I was induced to procure a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and I began their use. They proved prompt and effective. They cured me, and there has been no return of the trouble since taking them. I owe all the credit to Doan's Kidney Pills."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mrs. Mettles will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by all druggists, price 50 cents per box.

Seed Corn. A Kansas City small boy was asked by his school teacher to use "seed corn" in a sentence. "When I was out in the country last summer," said the youngster, "I seed cornstalks in a field."

The Girl That Buys Him. American Girl—We haven't been over long, you know. I suppose your people always lived here? Augustus—We came to England with the Normans, don't you know? American Girl—Oh, indeed, the Normans! I'm afraid I don't know them.—From Tit-Bits.

The frankness with which a seventeen-year-old girl refers to herself as an old maid is only exceeded by the frankness with which she denies it ten years later.

Hope for the Future. "Come! come!" cried the candidate's friend, "don't be disheartened so easily."

"But I'm sure to be beaten," replied the candidate, dismally. "Oh, let your motto be, 'He who runs and fights away may live to run another day.'"

The Butter Boys of Porto Rico.

Every morning the people of the large towns of Porto Rico are awakened by little merchants crying "Butter! Butter of the country!"

These are the butter boys who go trotting in each morning as soon as the tropical dawn begins, to sell the native butter which has been made by their mothers the day before.

Each little merchant carries a plate on his head, balancing it expertly like a juggler, and never bothering to steady it with his hand, whether he is running or making change.

The plate contains about fifty or sixty "pats" of the stuff. It isn't very good, although it seems delicious to the Porto Ricans, because their climate is not adapted for keeping butter well; so they are accustomed to an article that would seem rancid and strong to the luckier persons in the north.

The "pats" are very small, weighing less than an ounce each, and they sell for about one cent. The customers of the butter boys usually buy just enough to serve for one meal.

The butter boys' mothers don't make this butter in a churn. They merely shake milk or cream in a big jar till it is fairly solid. Then they put in lots of salt and send it to town.

What a happy old world this would be if people who lose their tempers were unable to find them again!

COMMERCIAL REVIEW.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s "Weekly Review of Trade" says:

Commercial conditions have improved somewhat during the past week although there is still much to be desired. Despatches from the South are most encouraging. At the East more reasonable weather prevailed, yet Spring trade is still below normal.

The best news of the week is the settlement of many labor controversies, or at least resumption of work pending arbitration.

Manufacturing returns are still closing, notable improvement in the iron and steel industry being offset by less favorable reports regarding textile and footwear factories. Agricultural work progresses rapidly under better than average conditions, cotton being planted unusually early. It is a good sign that the month opened with prices of commodities less inflated.

Transporting interests are overcoming freight congestion, while railway earnings in March were only 7 per cent smaller than in 1903, and largely surpassed all preceding years.

Bradstreet's says: Wheat, including flour, exports for the week aggregate 1,854,437 bushels, against 1,297,430 last week, 2,833,283 this week last year, 3,242,012 in 1902, and 6,405,601 in 1901. Corn exports for the week aggregate 1,028,007 bushels, against 1,438,212 last week, 2,054,732 a year ago, 158,305 in 1902 and 2,023,884 in 1901.
