District Attorney George B. Daniels is in Harrisburg attending the Democratic State Convention.

Miss Mary Grove, having finished her term of school in Bedford county, has returned to her home in this place.

This is a good time to subscribe for the FULTON COUNTY NEWS. Only a dollar a year in advance.

Clarence Shimer of Altoona arrived in this place last Friday, having been summoned home on account of the critical illness of his father, R. N. Shimer.

Rev. A. S. Wolfe, pastor of the U. B. churches on the Hustontown circuit, called at this office Tuesday morning. We were pleased to meet Mr. Wolfe and hope his work may be divinely blessed.

Foley's Kidney Cure if taken in time affords security from all kidney and bladder diseases.

Holy Communion at Big Cove Tannery church next Sabbath at 10 a. m.; preparatory service on Saturday at 2:30. Divine service at St. Paul's on Sabbath at 7:30 p. m.

A. G. WOLF, Pastor.

The family of George Frederick Snyder of Tod township, deceased, desire through the columns of the NEWS to thank their many friends and neighbors for the many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy in the loss of husband and father.

Miss Margaret Daniels, who has been suffering from an attack of diphtheria at the home of I. W. Schooley for several weeks has so far recovered as to be able to return to her home, and will be able to return to her school at Salvia before long.

With the opening of spring the whole working force in the merchant tailoring establishment of A. U. NACE & SON, are as busy as bees turning out new spring suits for their many customers. See what they say in their advertisement in another column.

At a recent meeting of the stock holders of the Bedford Fulton Telephone Company, held in Everett, the following nine directors were elected to serve during the ensuing year, namely, W. H. Baumgardner of Wells Tannery; Dr. R. B. Campbell of New Grenada; John Q. Nyeum of Rays Hill, and E. N. Palmer, Dr. H. W. Bender, John S. Hershberger, Thomas A. Jones, W. W. McDanel and C. G. Masters—all of Everett.

Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates, and will not constitute like nearly all other cough medicines. Refuse substitutes.

From the number of new buildings that are to be erected in Thompson township this season, one might judge that those good people were not suffering any from financial straits. Among the contemplated improvements are: Eli M. Funk, a barn; Denton Kverts, a barn; David Gregory, a house; James and Thomas Snyder, a brick house; John H. Brewer, a house; Geo. W. Fisher, house and barn; Lewis Keefer, a house; Wm. Booth, a house; and a church at the Union graveyard. Most all expect to cover with slate.

George A. Comerer, who has been a popular and efficient clerk in Reiser's store for a long time has laid down the yard stick and moved down to his farm in Ayr township, where he will go to rest at night under the soothing notes of the whippoorwill and be awakened in the morning by the song of the oriole, where during the day, he may listen while the leaves shoot and to the peach blow. May he be successful in getting lots of gooseberries from his geese, plenty of cow pumpkins from his Jerseys, and gather an abundance of eggs from his egg plants, and every morning find his straw stack red with strawberries.
