Last year 60,000 locust trees were planted, 43,000 near Conewago on the eastern division, and 17,000 at Newton Hamilton on the middle division. On the subject of timber and of providing for the large needs of the company in this direction a special report has been prepared. It will be submitted to the general manager at an early date.

Chronic Bronchitis Cured.

"For ten years I had chronic bronchitis so bad that at times I could not speak above a whisper," writes Mr. Joseph Coffman, of Montmorenci, Ind. "I tried all remedies available, but with no success. Fortunately my employer suggested that I try Foley's Honey and Tar. Its effect was almost miraculous, and I am now cured of the disease. On my recommendation many people have used Foley's Honey and Tar, and always with satisfaction."

The National Encampment of the Grand Army this year is to be held in Boston, and a greater attendance is predicted than since its organization. It will take place the second week in August. The novel feature of the encampment is to be an automobile ride to Concord, Lexington and other historic places, with an array of 700 automobiles in line. The governors of all the New England states are to join in the demonstration by inviting the old soldier visitors to make an excursion to their respective states, excursion tickets for that purpose having been arranged for.

If you want a reliable medicine for liver and kidney trouble, stomach disorder or general debility, get Electric Bitters. It's guaranteed by all druggists. Only 50c.

THOMPSON.

Candidates are plentiful, but politics is discussed much oftener than candidates are seen.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Secrist and children spent last Sunday with Mrs. Secrist's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Comer.

Mrs. Alex Cavender and Mrs. Jared Pittman have been on the sick list.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hess is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Howard Zimmerman, at Hancock.

Mrs. P. P. Snives of Dickeys Mountain visited relatives and friends in McConnellsburg part of last week.

Mrs. Logue Shives and two little sons, Don and Teddy, are spending some time with the family of Jared Pittman.

Miss Ella Whitford of Keyser, W. Va., is visiting friends on Timber Ridge.

Mrs. Levi Shives of Maryland, visited her mother, Mrs. Ezra Pittman last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Litton of Plum Run, spent a few days last week visiting relatives in the Big Cove.

The Sabbath school at Boardyard is progressing nicely under the care of W. R. Daniels.

The lumber has been sawed, and the slate and paint ordered, for the new church to be erected at the Union Graveyard. The erection of a Union church at that place has been talked of for many years; and we are now glad to learn that some one has been pushing the work along, and that by fall the work will be accomplished.

A fire which did quite a lot of damage, by burning fences and timber occurred on the farm of Ervin B. Fisher, now occupied by Fred Gordon, last Thursday. It caught from an engine which was used to run a sawmill. When the fire was discovered it was smaller than a half bushel, but before the sawyers could reach it, the flames were beyond control. Help was soon obtained, and in less than an hour's time about fifty men and boys had gathered to the scene, and in a short time had it under control.

The dwelling house of Ephraim Gregory, also caught fire the same day, Jonathan Keefer, who happened to be present extinguished the flames before they had accomplished much damage.

The Girl Athlete.

When the young woman athlete is portrayed we generally see a combination of Juno and Amazon, a stalwart, not to say strapping, type made current by C. D. Gibson. As a matter of fact, in the track athletes at Vassar last spring it was an entirely different build of girl who took the lead. The feminine records for running broad jump and standing broad jump were both broken by a gentle, fragile looking girl who would almost be called little, but who nevertheless lifted the records to respectively 14 feet 6 1/2 inches and 7 feet 7 inches. Another record breaker who did the 220 yard run in 30 3/5 seconds and the fifty yard dash in 6 3/5 seconds is slender to the point of frailness and must weigh under 125 pounds. There were dozens of typical women athletes sitting in the grass cheering the events, but as a rule that was as far as they took part. The honors went to champions whom no seeker of the typical would have dreamed of pointing out.—Everybody's Magazine.

Barrie's Autobiography.

James M. Barrie, the novelist, has no patience with reporters who try to pry into his private affairs. On one occasion he was asked to pen a short autobiography. At first he refused, and then, when the reporter began to coax him, he stopped him, took up his pen and wrote as follows: "On arrival in London it was Mr. Barrie's first object to make a collection of choice cigars. Though the author of 'My Lady Nicotine' does not himself smoke, his grocer's message boy does. Mr. Barrie's pet animal is the whale. He feeds it on ripe chestnuts."

Our Slang.

What a difference there is between a slang word like "fierce" and a slang word like "four flusher!" "Four flusher" is a terse, compact metaphor. "Fierce" is just cant. "Fierce" ought to be canned. "Four flusher" deserves to be enshrined.—Chicago Tribune.

Wise words, these, betraying profound thought and discriminating judgment. And while the valued Tribune is separating the slang sheep from the slang goats may we ask its opinion of that virile American metaphor, "to butt in?"—Detroit Free Press.

A New Word For the Loafer.

We are vastly indebted to the medical writer who has coined the word "ergophobia." It means a disinclination to active effort and will be a welcome addition to the vocabulary of all to whom "dipsomania" and "kleptomania" proved such godsend.—Indianapolis Sentinel.
