NEW GRENADA.

Dr. R. B. Campbell spent a few days in Philadelphia.

The mine boys are having a rest—no work this week.

N. G. Cunningham has moved into the new store room in the new Hall.

Ex-Commissioner M. W. Corbin of Taylor visited our town on Saturday.

Ex-Commissioner W. L. Cunningham has been appointed postmaster at Enid.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cunningham, after a few weeks' visit to "Daddy Flick's" house, returned to their home in Pittsburg last Saturday. Flick is lonely now.

"Old 773" had a sermon by Rev. Wm. Shade assisted by Rev. W. H. Dressler in the Bethel church last Sunday on the 85th anniversary of the Order. About forty members of the Order from various lodges were present. C. B. Stevens of 774, George Nunemaker and Mr. Rohrer from Three Springs, Horace Griffith of Derrick City, Edward Black of Sixmile Run, J. A. McDonough, J. C. Horton, Robert Morely, Sam'l Alloway, Clarence Stewart, Will Cunningham—all of Wells Valley, were among the visiting brethren present. A grand, good time was had, and an able sermon was preached to the satisfaction of all. The only trouble came after the services, when it was found there were enough visitors to help get away with all the eatables that the good "odd women" had prepared,—as "Odd Fellow" is supposed to be masculine, the feminine should be odd women, should it not? We trust these occasions may help to banish some of the prejudice existing against secret societies, and be the means of building up the Order.
