The convention then decided (1) to vote viva voce, (2) to sit with closed doors, and (3) to be governed by the Rules prevailing in the House of Representatives.

The Chair then appointed Clem Chesnut, James P. Waltz and F. P. Lynch a committee on resolutions.

Adjourned to meet at 1:30.

When the convention assembled in the afternoon, the nomination this season, can be supplied by Hazel with other antiseptics, in of John John P. Sipes, Esq., for Assembly was made unanimous. One ballot was taken for sheriff which showed A. R. Edwards 16, and Jefferson Harris 8 votes, and Interesting to Asthma Sufferers.

Daniel Bante of Otterville, Iowa, writes, "I have had asthma for three or four years and have tried about all the cough and asthma cures in the market and have received treatment from physicians in New York and other cities, but got very little benefit until I tried Foley's Honey and Tar which gave me immediate relief and I will never be without it in my house, I sincerely recommend it to all. Sold at Trout's Drug Store.
