John D. Rockefeller's standard oil dividends last week amounted to $3,200,000. That would buy a great many bags of circus peanuts, but John D. couldn't eat the contents of a single one of them without suffering dreadfully. Wherein the small boy is clearly several laps ahead of the oil magnate.

SHADOW NOT A SHADOW.

Dauphin County Fat Girl Has a Name That Sounds out of Place.

What's in a name? Here's a girl down in Harrisburg by the name of Shadow, who can throw a shadow of mammoth proportions. She is aged nineteen years and weighs four hundred and fifty pounds. She was discharged from the Harrisburg hospital a few days ago. In applying for admission to the hospital she told the physicians that she had tried several anti-fat cures which were advertised in the papers and had, instead of decreasing her weight, at once begun to grow stouter. For several weeks after she came for treatment she lost weight steadily, but her health became so poor that the physicians decided that it was useless to try to reduce her weight at the expense of her health, and from that time on no effort has been made to reduce her avoirdupois. For several weeks past the young woman has been suffering from homesickness and as it was found impossible to reduce her weight she was allowed to leave the hospital. She was too large to enter a cab and in order to get her to Union station a baggage transfer wagon had to be used. She was sent home in the baggage coach of the train.
