No applicants will be examined under eighteen, unless having had previous experience in teaching. No special examinations will be given unless by request of the school board under which the applicant expects to apply.

CHAS. E. BARTON, County Superintendent. The pill that will, will fill the bill, Without a gripe. To cleanse the liver, with a quiver, Take one at night.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are small, easy to take, easy and gentle in effect, yet they are so certain in results that no one who uses them is disappointed. For quick relief from biliousness, sick headache, torpid liver, jaundice, dizziness and all troubles arising from an inactive, sluggish liver, Early Risers are unequalled. Sold at Trout's drug store.

BUZZARDTOWN. Grain cutting is about over and hauling is in done. The hay and threshing is the busy work now. For sale.—One 3 year old cow, one yearling heifer, one spring calf. For particulars call on or address, Irwin W. Garland, Pleasant Ridge, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Pitty were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Austin Lake last Sunday. Miss Eliza J. Mellott spent Saturday night and Sunday with Austin Lake's family.

The Annual Harvest Meeting of the German Baptist Brethren will be held at the Pleasant Ridge church July 30th and 31st. All are invited to attend. It is quite dangerous for late travelers up the hollow above J. F. Garland's, as there is a den of wild cats in that vicinity.

Last Friday William and Geo. Wink and J. F. Garland caught a fine ground hog. Messrs. McCauley Reed and Raynard Mellott are on the road with their new engine and thrasher. They are doing nice work.

If you knew the value of this remedy as we know it, you would not suffer another day.—Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a thorough digestant and tissue-building tonic as well. It is endorsed personally by hundreds of people whom it has cured of indigestion, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart and stomach trouble generally. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. It is pleasant, palatable and strengthening. Sold at Trout's drug store.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE Makes Kidneys and Bladder Right

Does a Two-year-old Baby Pay?

Does a two-year-old baby pay for itself up to the time it reaches that interesting age? Sometimes I think not. I thought so yesterday when my own baby slipped into my study and "scrubbed" the carpet and his best white dress with my bottle of ink. He was playing in the coal hod ten minutes after a clean dress was put on him, and later in the day he pasted fifty cents' worth of postage stamps on the parlor wall and poured a dollar's worth of the choicest White Rose perfumery out of the window to see it wain."

Then he dug out the center of a nicely baked loaf of cake, and was found in the middle of the dining-room table with the sugar bowl between his legs and most of the contents in his stomach. He has already cost over $100 in doctors' bills and I feel that I am right in attributing my few gray hairs to the misery I endured walking the floor with him at night during the first year of his life.

What has he ever done to pay me for that? Ah! I hear his little feet pattering along out in the hall. I hear his little ripple of laughter because he has escaped from his mother and has found his way up to my study at a forbidden hour. But the door is closed. The worthless little vagabond can't get in, and I won't open it for him. No, I won't. I can't be disturbed when I'm writing. He can just cry if he wants to. I won't be bothered for—"rat, tat, tat," go his dimpled knuckles on the door. I sit in silence.

"Rat, tat, tat." I sit perfectly still. "Papa." No reply. "Peeze, papa." Grim silence. "Baby tum in—peeze, papa." He shall not come in. "My papa."

"Papa," says the little voice, "I lub my papa. Peeze let baby in?" I am not quite a brute, and I throw open the door. In he comes with out stretched little arms, with shining eyes, with laughing face. I catch him up into my arms, and his warm, soft little arms go around my neck, the not very clean little cheek is laid close to mine, the baby voice says sweetly—

"I lub my papa." Does he pay? Well, I guess he does! He has cost me many anxious days and nights. He has cost me time and money and care and self-sacrifice. He has cost me pain and sorrow. He has cost much. But he has paid for it all again and again and again in whispering those three little words into my ears: "I lub papa."

Our children pay when their very first feeble little cries fill our hearts with the mother love and the father love that ought never to fall among all earthly passions. Do our children pay?—J. H. D., in Detroit Free Press.

A Very Close Call. "I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by Trout's Drug Store. Price 50 cents.

HUSTONTOWN. Miss Augusta Foor, of Rays Hill, one of Bedford county's popular teachers spent several days last week in this place as the guest of Miss Maye Barton. Harry Laidig and wife of Sterling, Ill., are spending a few weeks with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Laidig near this place. Mrs. Walter Mumma and children of Jeannette, Pa., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Mumma's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Laidig.

Miss Isa Stevens, one of Fulton's successful teachers, who has been teaching in Garrettstown, Pa., the past winter is spending her vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Cleveland.

WELLS TANNERY.

Our school board met July 20th at No. 2. Sold the fuel for township to A. R. Bergstresser for $65.00, and elected the following teachers: Principal, No. 1. Walter Smith of Emmaville; Primary, No. 1. Miss Bessie Willet of Wells township; High School, Prof. H. M. Griffith of Wells; No. 3. Clem Barton of Brush Creek; No. 4. to be supplied. All teachers get $35.00, excepting Prof. Griffith who gets $75.00 per month. The number of friends of the High school are still increasing. If the coming term goes out as successful as last one, there will not be a corporal's guard against it, at the end of the term.

Mrs. G. E. Truax visited friends near Laidig part of last week. Mr. V. D. Schenck is in the Medico-chi in Philadelphia, having his eyes treated. J. W. Gibson has been suffering for two weeks caused by external poison.

Miss Maud Baumgardner with a dozen Evert friends drove to Roaring Springs the 21st inst., and spent two days very pleasantly in the home of Mr. Ralph Bobb. Mr. Bruce Spangler, who has been employed in Pittsburg made a flying visit home a few days ago.

Miss Jessie Mellott of Everett, visited friends in the Valley last week. Hayes Bivens while out in the mountain Saturday, killed a snake that sported fifteen rattles and a gopher.

George A. Wishart of Chicago, visited a few days last week at the home of his parents, Hon. and Mrs. S. P. Wishart. Harlan L. Wishart of Marquette, Mich., stopped two days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wishart. He was on his way to New Jersey attending to business for a Chemical Company.

Mrs. James Cypher and son of Newcastle, visited her sister Mrs. G. A. Stewart. James Stewart, who has been away from home for two years, has returned for a short time. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Houpt of Hollidaysburg, are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. S. D. Schenck.

Mrs. Isaac Young and children of Sixmile Run, are visiting Mrs. George Young. Prof. H. M. Griffith has started on a visit to Derrick City and St. Louis. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Kay of Koeney; Mrs. Stone and son of Hazelton, and Miss Salmon of Brooklyn, spent a day recently with Mrs. W. H. Baumgardner. Miss Kelly of Philipsburg, is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. C. Meredith.

GEM. Gran and hay are most all gathered and the hum of the threshing machine is heard. Prof. B. N. Palmer attended the Snyder—McEldowney wedding. Miss Orpha Snyder and Miss Minnie Funk have returned home after attending the Wells Valley Normal.

Mrs. Laura Hill and Mrs. Clara Garland thought they would give their respective husbands a surprise by having for them a little social; but the ladies were the most surprised when Mr. Thomas Rash presented the already overladen table a thirty-five pound watermelon. May a pleasant evening like this one soon come again.

Bronchitis For Twenty Years. Mrs. Minerva Smith, of Danville, Ill., writes: "I had bronchitis for twenty years and never got relief until I used Foley's Honey and Tar which is a sure cure." Sold at Trout's Drug Store.

Clear Ridge.

Mrs. Catharine Baker, who spent the past few weeks with her granddaughter, Mrs. Bert Henry, near Knobsville, came home Sunday. Miss Lula Brown is on the sick list. William Baker, of Altoona, came home Saturday. Miss Lillian Henry is spending some time with her brother, H. N. Henry, at Six Mile Run. T. E. Fleming spent Saturday at the County Seat. Joseph Alexander, of Willow Hill, stopped on Thursday with his sister, Mrs. J. W. Mowers. Miss Mame Fields spent Sunday with her grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Fields. Gilbert Kerlin's house is near completion. Philip Hileman, of Altoona, spent from Tuesday until Thursday in the home of Calvin Baker, and left in company with Miss Rae Baker for Gettysburg. Lois and Amos Huston were well frightened one day the past week while on a cherry tree. As Lois was getting down she saw a blacksnake on some bushes trying to reach the body of the tree they were on. The children screamed and Mrs. J. W. Mowers and Misses Millie and Ella Huston came and succeeded in killing the snake. Clarence Shore, Oliver Fields, Bert Winegardner, Luther Grove and Misses Minnie Grove, Lillian Fleming, Elsie Baker, Goldie, Bessie and Mame Fields spent last Thursday evening with J. P. Kerlin's family. Our people are getting ready for the picnic on Saturday. No False Claims. The proprietors of Foley's Honey and Tar do not advertise this as a "sure cure for consumption." They do not claim it will cure this dread complaint in advanced cases, but do positively assert that it will cure in the earlier stages and never fails to give comfort and relief in the worst cases. Foley's Honey and Tar is without doubt the greatest throat and lung remedy. Refuse substitutes. Sold at Trout's Drug Store.

Clear Ridge 18, Fort Littleton 6 Clear Ridge, July 25.—Last Saturday our sporting people had the pleasure of witnessing a game of ball between our home team and the Fort nine. The home team got started in the first inning and held their place throughout the game. During the game there was but little scrapping from the fact that both sides consisted of gentlemen. Ramsey, of the visiting team, was hit hard, while Shore, of the home team, gave them six shut-outs, and one man got his base on balls. The boys will play again on August 6.
