CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS

B. F. Deshong near Andover lost a valuable cow a few days ago.

Helen Washbaugh recently spent a day very pleasantly with Miss Ella Pittman.

Mrs. Catharine Corwell of Chambersburg, is visiting relatives in this place.

Mr. Ed Bender of Altoona, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bender of this place.

Mrs. M. A. Thompson of this place, is visiting her son, Editor Harry A. Thompson of the Tyrone Times.

Master Maynard Michael of Braddock, is visiting at the home of his aunt, Mrs. George W. Hays, of this place.

Mr. Isaac P. Hendershot and Smith Brantner of Franklin county, spent Tuesday on this side of the mountain.

Mr. Andrew J. Paden, of Hagerstown, has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Jere Carbaugh, of Ayr, during the past four weeks.

Mrs. E. A. Largent and three sons, Lewis, Harry and Walter, spent a couple of days visiting relatives and friends in Waterfall last week.

A. R. Bass, of Morgantown, Ind., had to get up ten or twelve times in the night, and had a severe backache and pains in the kidneys. Was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure.

Miss Isabel Stouteagle has been re-elected to a school near Lemaster, Pa., at a salary of $41 a month, and will begin her work the 29th of August.

Mr. D. W. Cromer of Fort Littleton, spent a few hours at the county seat Monday. Dan does not forget occasionally to divide his coin with the printer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Comer of Thompson township, were guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. Sarah Pittman, of this place, a day or two the first of the week.

The Lutheran Junior Endeavorers held a very delightful picnic on the lawn at the home of their superintendent, Miss Anna Comer Saturday afternoon.

Miss Lula Woodall, who has been making her home with Mrs. Leonard Bivens during the past two years, is at her home in very poor health. We hope for her speedy recovery.

Mrs. Fannie Fraker and Mr. Mac Richardson of Fort Littleton, spent a few hours in town yesterday. We are glad to note that Mrs. Fraker has greatly improved in health.

Miss Jane Dean Davis, daughter of ex County Superintendent J. F. Davis, and her friend Miss Stella Alice Wasson—both of Williamsport, Pa., are spending this week at the Washington House.

J. Houston Johnston of Webster Mills, lost a valuable horse Monday from lock-jaw. It was found after the death of the animal that it had tramped on a cut nail and piece of the metal had entered and remained in the foot.

We are pleased to learn that Mrs. Rebecca Alexander, of this place, who has been confined to her room for the past six months with a swelling in her head, is now able to sit up a few hours each day.

Mrs. Alexander celebrated her eighty-fifth birthday on Monday last and with the exception of her recent ailment she has always enjoyed good health. Mrs. Alexander is mother of Senator Alexander and Mrs. Thos. F. Sloan.

Prof. Robert H. West of Beirut, Syria, with his two little sons, spent the time from Saturday until Tuesday morning with his father, Rev. Wm. A. West, D. D., of this place. Prof. West delivered a most interesting and instructive lecture to a large congregation in the Presbyterian church on Sabbath evening, on the existing religious and educational conditions in that far off land. Prof. West has been a member of the faculty of the Syrian Protestant College at Beirut for a period of twenty years.

Harvest Home Picnic.

The Big Cove Annual Harvest Home Picnic will be held in Morrow Kendall's woods on Thursday the 11th day of August. The management are erecting a new building, and changing the plan of the speakers' stand and seats. Instead of having a big table as heretofore it has been decided that this shall be a basket picnic, and there will be a lunch table on the grounds at which any one may be accommodated who does not care to take provisions along.

Speeches will be delivered by Prof. Surface and Hon. A. L. Martin, and there will be plenty of good vocal and instrumental music.

Bids will be received by J. F. Johnston or Daniel L. Grissinger up to the first of August for the privilege of conducting a lunch table, including the sale of fruits and cigars, and one for the sale of ice cream, lemonade and pop.

Automobile Party.

A party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lauder, Miss Helen Lauder, Master Robert Lauder, and Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Shaw—all of Riddlesburg, and Mrs. Wm. Souder, Mrs. Sallie Thatcher, and Dr. Henry of Everett, arrived here at ten o'clock Tuesday night in Mr. Shaw's big automobile and registered at the Washington House. Tuesday morning the party was joined here by Miss Gertrude Hoke, and they left for Gettysburg.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Shaw, the editor enjoyed a ride in the auto while here.

Ball Game Saturday.

The Upton team will play our boys on the Athletic Field here next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Admission 10 and 15 cents.

Saved From Terrible Death.

The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbitt of Bargerton, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. It's the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed. Bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial Bottles Free at Trout's Drug Store.

TAYLOR.

Harvest is over and the hum of the separator is heard. The festival at Hustontown last Saturday evening was well attended.

Mr. J. M. Chestnut spent Sunday with David Forner's family. The young folks that travel Big Hollow, had better keep a lookout for spooks, as several, including a polar bear, have been seen there recently.

KNOBSVILLE.

The contractor has commenced new county bridge at Knobsville. Not before it is needed as a bridge was needed long ago. It is crossed by all the upper end of county.

Lightning struck and splintered several poles and insulators near D. E. Fore's barn last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Folk and child of Altoona, are visiting Mr. John Tice's family.

Jacob, how is Mr. Carbaugh getting along harvesting?

Mrs. Samuel Divens has measles. David Wible's folks are getting over them.

Miss Blanche Peck gets Knobsville school. Hope she may have a successful term for we think the directors made a good choice.

Farmers are about through harvesting and beginning to plow for fall seeding. D. Edward Fore has sold his store property, and will sell his other one. He has accepted a position as representative on the road at $85 per month and expenses. He will move to Hagerstown in near future.

John Gunnells, Jr., is thinking of taking lessons in boxing and some day soon to down Jeffries.

E. HOWARD AND CO'S WATCHES.

The peer of any watch made in America. This celebrated watch needs no introduction to our elderly friends, they are perfectly familiar with this grand watch, but we wish to say a few words to the younger generation about the latest product of the Howard Co's factory, known as the 1903 model. An unequalled standard of excellence has been attained in the 1903 model. Every watch is warranted mechanically perfect. To those of you who want a watch of exceptional fineness this watch is recommended. Made in two sizes and in two grades only for men, prices range from $100.00 to $235.00; movements alone, $90.00 and $100.00 each. We invite you to inspect these watches. A goodly assortment of cases are here.

All Visitors Welcome.

WM. H. LUDWIG, Jeweler and Silversmith, Chambersburg, Pa.

RACKET STORE.

In our last ad we mentioned Castor Machine oil at 25c gallon and said it was the same goods sold by other merchants at 35c. We have now sold well on to 50 gallons, and are told by responsible farmers that it is better oil than they paid 35c a gallon for.

1 pint glass jars 45c; quarts, 48c; half gallon, 65c. Jar caps with rings 20c, the heaviest jar gums 5c, lighter ones 3c dozen. The heaviest milk cans on the market—8 gallon size and the one you have been paying $2.35 for—our price $1.95.

Shoes! Shoes! Shoes!

It is impossible for us to give you prices on these goods. We would like to have you call and see the largest and best line of shoes you have ever looked at, and at prices that can't be matched in the county.

We have the nicest line of buckets and granite ware we ever had. We have the blue, green and white inside in preserving kettles and pans from 15 to 48c. Tin buckets—10 quarts to 14 quarts, 10 to 35c; also, coffee pots of same ware.

Shirts and overalls all sizes and at all prices. Call and see our line, it won't cost you one cent.
