HUSTONTOWN. On the farm belonging to the Lamberson heirs 1/2 mile west of town John F. Johnson brushed 2 1/2 acres of oats which by actual measure, measured 180 bushels.

Mrs. W. H. Ranck of Broadtop City, spent several days last week at the home of her mother, Mrs. Maria Laidig.

Al Steel's Mastodon Uncle Tom's Cabin show, will show here on Thursday night.

Mrs. Margaret Laidig (Aunt Mag) is enhancing the value of her property by the building of a new front porch to her house.

Prosiding Elder Rev. George Stevens preached an excellent sermon in the M. E. church last Sunday on "Resurrection."

A Sweet Breath is a never failing sign of a healthy stomach. When the breath is bad the stomach is out of order. There is no remedy in the world equal to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for curing indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders.

From J. C. Brewer. Pennington, N. J., August 15.—Editor News: Please find enclosed one dollar, for which send to my address the Fulton County News.

The crops are very good in this section, especially hay. I had about 35 tons. Corn is looking well, and markets are good at Trenton. Hay is worth $12 now, eggs 37 cents a score—they do not sell by the dozen.

Grangers Picnic. For the Grangers Picnic at Williams Grove August 29th to Sept. 3 1904, inclusive, the Cumberland Valley Railroad will run special excursion trains to and from the Grove and sell excursion tickets as follows:

Leave Mercersburg at 8:00 A. M., 10:30 P. M., and 5:20 P. M., daily. Returning leave Williams Grove for Mercersburg, Richmond and intermediate stations at 8:00 A. M., and 3:15 P. M., daily and at 5:30 P. M. on Thursday only.

Excursion tickets good to return until Saturday, Sept. 3rd, will be on sale the entire week at one fair for the round trip.

Excursion tickets good for two days will be on sale from Tuesday until Friday at rate of $1.25 for the round trip.

Don't forget the picnic at Antioch next Saturday, and that Rev. Dunville will lecture in the evening.

The sick people of our neighborhood are all convalescing. Samuel Peck, Calvin Hewit, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Fisher and daughter Rose, and Mrs. S. B. Fisher of Great Cacapon, W. Va., were all guests at the home of P. P. Shives last Sunday.

CITO. George Butterbaugh and wife were called over the mountain to see his father, who is poorly. William Seiders and family visited Mrs. Seiders' father and mother in Jugtown last Sunday.

Howard Seville, wife and son, Ernest, visited Mrs. Seville's father and mother, John S. Carbaugh and wife last Sunday.

Webb Seville and family visited at D. R. Garland's Sunday afternoon, as did, also, George Butterbaugh.

Ephram Houpt visited Webb Seville, Sunday.

Frank Seville visited Levi and David Seville and Albert Clevenger visited Cito Sunday.

Mrs. John Clevenger was visiting her son, Albert, a few days last week.

Albert Clevenger has rented Jacob Mellott's farm for another year. Good for you, Albert.

Elmer Carbaugh and Levi, David and Frank Seville visited James Garland last Sunday.

Riley Garland went to town Saturday evening with a load of wood, and didn't get home till Sunday morning. The next time you go, Riley, don't stay till the roosters crow.

A Physician Healed. Dr. G. Ewing, a practicing physician of Smith's Grove, Ky., for over thirty years, writes his personal experience with Foley's Kidney Cure: "For years I had been greatly bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and enlarged prostate gland. I used everything known to the profession without relief, until I commenced to use Foley's Kidney Cure. After taking three bottles I was entirely relieved and cured. I prescribe it now daily in my practice and heartily recommend its use to all physicians for such troubles. I have prescribed it in hundreds of cases with perfect success." Sold at Trout's drug store.

WHIPS COVE. B. W. Morris of this place, has bought Lewis Richards' farm.—Consideration $325.00. Bennie will take possession this fall.

J. S. Akers, Esq., and Ira Smith were doing business at the County Seat Saturday.

The Jerusalem singing class attended the picnic in Buck Valley last Saturday. Everything went off nicely, which was a credit to the people of the Valley.

G. B. McC. Diehl and children were visiting Simon Garland's last Sunday.

Howard Garland made a quick trip to McConnellsburg last Saturday.

Asa Mellott and wife are visiting Mr. Mellott's son at the Eastern Shore.

F. M. Diehl and wife were at Everett last Tuesday. James Diehl "kept house" for them and thought he would prepare a good supper by the time they came home. Mr. Diehl decided to cook green beans, so he went to the truck garden and got them, and had them cooked in fine style; but when they went to supper the beans appeared very tough. On examining the beans Mrs. Diehl found they were her soup beans.

Better Than Gold. "I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N. H.—"No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says that Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by Trout's drug store.

Mrs. Thomas Clyde, of Philadelphia, is visiting her brother, A. Grant Shoemaker, and sisters near town.

Mrs. Louisa Hull and her daughter Miss Mary, who had been visiting friends in the Cove several weeks started to return to their home in Allegheny this morning.

One Minute Cough Cure For Coughs, Colds and Croup.

A BOON TO FARMERS.

THE RURAL FREE DELIVERY SYSTEM A GREAT SUCCESS.

The Country for All Practical Purposes Converted Into a Huge City. Farmers Are Materially Benefited and Appreciate the Convenience.

The extension of the mail free delivery has brought the farming interests into closer relation with the city life and business as never before, and residents of the rural districts have not been slow to take advantage of the facilities thus afforded. And tens of thousands are now transacting their business through the mailing and selling merchandise and banking with safety and satisfaction, where only a few years ago such methods were looked upon with some distrust.

Aug. 13.—Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cattlett and baby spent from Saturday until Sunday with Mrs. Cattlett's uncle, Mr. Henry Trott in Thompson township.

Miss Rosa Mellott spent last Thursday with Mrs. J. S. Hill, helping Mrs. Hill to peel peaches for butter.

Mr. and Mrs. Stillwell Truax and son, Clem, attended the Harvest meeting on Timber Ridge last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Rash, of Hancock, spent last Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Scott Bumgardner.

Mrs. Henry Brewer and granddaughter, Ethel McEldowney, spent last Wednesday with Mrs. Oliver Mellott.

Mrs. Lake Garland and son, Bruce, and Mrs. Harriet Mellott spent last Wednesday at Mr. Morgan Dishong's.

Escaped an Awful Fate. Mr. H. Haggins of Melbourne, Fla., writes, "My doctor told me I had consumption and nothing could be done for me. I was given up to die. The offer of a free trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, induced me to try it. Results were startling. I am now on the road to recovery and owe all to Dr. King's New Discovery. It surely saved my life." This great cure is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by Trout's drug store.—Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Sold at Trout's drug store.

What has been called the "gen-seng craze" has been so prevalent among farmers in many districts of the United States that the department of agriculture has considered it expedient to sound a note of warning. Previous to 1902 China imported from this country only 172,000 pounds of ginseng in four years a quantity which could be raised on a single farm of 75 acres. "Let ginseng alone. It is a delusion and a snare," is Secretary Wilson's advice to farmers.

Miss Luella B. Laidig, of Altoona, is home on a visit.

Miss Nina Kirk, who has been sick, is slowly improving.

H. K. Mellott has Joseph Laidig's new barn almost completed.

Many of our young folks attended camp meeting at Walnut Grove on Sunday.

John N. Deaver, our entomologist, is making a collection of butterflies and insects.

D. A. Laidig has just finished harvesting the largest quantity of hay in this section.

Samuel Deaver, of Tyrone, is spending a few days vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Deaver.

Several of our neighbors attended an interesting meeting at Harrisonville Lodge, I. O. O. F., Saturday night. Visitors present were Dr. Palmer, of Needmore, Prof. Gress, and one from McConnellsburg. Had one initiation and conferred second degree. Harrisonville Lodge is in a prosperous condition.

C. Ungor, 211 Maple St., Champaign, Ill., writes: "I was troubled with a hacking cough for a year and I thought I had consumption. I tried a great many remedies and was under the care of physicians for several months. I used one bottle of Foley's Kidney and Bladder Cure, and I have not been troubled since." Sold at Trout's drug store.

Consumption Threatened. C. Ungor, 211 Maple St., Champaign, Ill., writes: "I was troubled with a hacking cough for a year and I thought I had consumption.
