"HE'S ALL RIGHT."

How dear to our heart is the steady subscriber.

Who pays in advance at the birth of each year.

Who lays down his money and offers it gladly.

And casts 'round the office a halo of cheer!

Who never says, "Stop it, I cannot afford it."

Or, "Am getting more papers than I can now read."

But always says, "Send it, I read it and like it."

And can't do without it—it's just what I need."

How welcome he is when he steps in our sanctum,

How he makes our heart throb!

How he makes our eyes dance!

We outwardly thank him—we inwardly bless him—

The steady subscriber who pays in advance.

BIG COVE TANNERY.

The Reformed church festival drew a large crowd at Big Cove Tannery. The weather was not very favorable but a large sum was realized.

Frank Miles, of Martinsburg, W. Va., is visiting his old friends at Big Cove Tannery.

Mr. John Kendall and daughter, Olive, were the guests of Mrs. Frank Shives last Wednesday.

Miss Lillian Pott and Mr. Dave Martin took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kirk last Sunday.

Better Than Gold.

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N. H.—

"No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says that Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by Trout's drug store.

Consumption Threatened.

C. Unger, 211 Maple St., Champaign, Ill., writes: "I was troubled with a hacking cough for a year and I thought I had consumption. I tried a great many remedies and was under the care of physicians for several months. I used one bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. It cured me, and I have not been troubled since." Sold at Trout's drug store.

THOMPSON.

August 18.—The farmers are busy finishing up their harvest work. The crop of hay has been unusually large; the yield of wheat and rye is fair; oats, more than an average, and corn is very promising. Of course, should we have a continued spell of dry weather, the late corn would not develop.

The threshermen are the busiest people just now, flitting from one point to another—one day in Pennsylvania, the next in Maryland; one day in Thompson, the next in Bethel, and still the next in Belfast.

Mr. and Mrs. David Powell spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hatfield.

Professor Daniels spent Saturday night and Sunday at Squire Daniel Covalt's.

Dora Yeakle spent Sunday evening at Jimmy O'Rourke's.

Henry Souders spent Sunday evening very pleasantly at Job Hess's.

A Physician Healed.

Dr. Geo. Ewing, a practicing physician of Smith's Grove, Ky., for over thirty years, writes his personal experience with Foley's Kidney Cure: "For years I had been greatly bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and enlarged prostate gland. I used everything known to the profession without relief, until I commenced to use Foley's Kidney Cure. After taking three bottles I was entirely relieved and cured. I prescribe it now daily in my practice and heartily recommend its use to all physicians for such trouble. I have prescribed it in hundreds of cases with perfect success." Sold at Trout's drug store.

WELLS TANNERY.

August 17.—Miss Ada Foote of Pittsburg, is visiting friends in this vicinity.

Mrs. G. R. Shuck and children of Bedford, are visiting her sister, Mrs. G. W. Foreman.

Some of our people are attending Crystal Springs camp.

The carpenters have been improving the residence of A. O. Griffith.

A number of our young people recently spent a very pleasant evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Foreman. Music and recitations were the order of the hour and, last but not least on the program, were ice cream and cake.

NEVER GROW.

Never grow because a news paper fails to give every scrap of news, so long as you can take no pains to give the editor information. Readers are awfully put out at times because no note has been made of the arrival or departure of friends visiting them, or of social affairs, or of the heaven-sent babies that visit their homes over night. The average reporter isn't a medium nor a mind reader, but gets most of his news the same way the milkman gets his milk—by pumping.

NEW GRENADA.

Nothing new but—camp—can't—tramp—tramp.

Another plasterer has located in our town, at the home of Jacob Black—not large enough, however, to go into business yet.

Mrs. Catharine Duvall is visiting friends at South Fork and Johnstown.

A number of our town folks—both ladies and gentlemen—were at the Odd Fellows picnic at Alfarata Park—some not returning home, but going from there to Newton camp.

Jacob Crider is preparing to remodel his dwelling, which when done, will add to the appearance of Brooklyn side of our New York.

Miss Clara Mills, cashier in the Altoona office of the Union Central Life Insurance Company visits her home here a few days.

Z. P. Horton and a Mr. Baker of Everett, made a business trip here last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Geo. Black went to their springhouse and discovered a copperhead snake coiled up nicely in a fruit jar—it's head resting on top edge of jar ready for sealing up for winter. Don't know where next the snakes will crawl unless into the many empty pocket books, as there is ample room since times are so dull.

The school directors did not have a meeting last Saturday evening as was called; hence, No. 4 school was not let.

Archie Hamilton of Saltville, visited Harvey Shafer's a few days.

James F. McClain and George Shafer, each purchased a new engine from the Geiser Company. Jim will use his at his saw mill, and George is going to use his in the blacksmith shop to run machinery there. It is a gasoline engine and is attraction the past few days. His is not yet in running order. He is building an engine house for it, attached to his shop.

Time Extended. The time for receiving bids for the erection of the I. O. O. F. Hall at Fort Littleton has been extended until August 27, 1904, at 8 o'clock, P. M.

Any person wishing to put in a bid on or before that time, can see plan and specifications at the store of S. L. Buckley, Fort Littleton, Pa. (Sealed bids).

S. L. BUCKLEY, J. W. FRAKER, CALVIN HENRY, Committee.

DeWitt is the Name.

When you go to buy Witch Hazel look for the name DeWitt on every box. The pure unadulterated Witch Hazel is used in making DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which is the best salve in the world for cuts, burns, bruises, boils, eczema and piles. The popularity of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, due to its many cures, has caused numerous worthless counterfeits to be placed on the market. The genuine bears the name E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. Sold at Trout's drug store.

LAIDIG.

S. D. Stevens, the sewing machine agent of Chambersburg, is visiting his mother.

Miss Frances Deaver and friend J. H. Low of Williamsport, are spending a few days vacation with the former's parents.

Joe Laidig returned to his work at Sixmile Run on Monday.

A. J. Comer raised off five-ninths of an acre 46 1/2 bushels of oats. Jack has the most productive farm along the State Road.

A new game has cropped out. It is called "Tickle the Editor" and is as follows: Take a sheet of ordinary writing paper, fold it nicely, enclose a bank note sufficiently large to pay all arrears and one year in advance and hand in to the editor. Keep an eye on him and if a smile adorns the face the trick works true. Now is the time to play the joke. It beats "flinch," "pit" or "pedro" all hollow.
