Yea some of our girls are of few days and full of mischief, and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise. When the fair one cheweth gum with much haste, stampeth her foot with vigor, and is noticeable on the street, by her actions, then beware. She cometh forth in the evening with low neck and short sleeves, but in the morning she lieth in bed while her mother getteth breakfast. She eateth all winter of the devoted young man's oysters and candies and partaketh of sleigh rides, but when spring cometh, she winketh her eye and goeth off with another fellow.

More Riots.

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the liver or kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic, and effective nerve and the greatest all around medicine for run down systems. It dispels nervousness, rheumatism and neuralgia and expels malarial germs. Only 50c, and satisfaction guaranteed at Trout's Drug Store.

MURDER IN HAGERSTOWN.

Aged Simon Taihelm Killed With Pole Axe—His Money Gone.

A brutal murder occurred in broad daylight in Hagerstown on Monday afternoon and as yet the authorities have no convincing clue as to the perpetrator of the crime. The victim was Simon Taihelm, aged seventy years, who resided alone in a small house on West Antietam street. Taihelm was seen alive and well in front of his house on Monday afternoon as late as half-past three o'clock. At four o'clock his daughter, Mrs. George F. Dayton, of near Hagerstown, went to her father's home and found him dead. His skull was crushed, his jaw bone broken and his left ear almost severed.

The authorities were immediately notified and they searched the place. They found a poleaxe hidden in the stove. The axe was bloody and showed that an effort had been made to remove the blood stains. On Saturday Taihelm had received his pension, $36, and the money was not to be found about the house. The supposition is that the crime was committed by someone familiar with the man and his home and who knew that he had the money with him.

The police arrested Charles Barton on suspicion but it is not thought that there will be any evidence against him. He had a good bit of money, something said to be rare, and this fact alone led to his arrest.

Among the children of the aged Mr. Taihelm is Mrs. George Berger, Middletown, this county.—Public Opinion.

Tragedy Averted.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved" writes Mrs. W. Watkins of Pleasant City, Ohio. "Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough set in besides. Doctors treated him, but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and our darling was saved. He's now sound, and well." Everybody ought to know, it's the only sure cure for coughs, colds and all lung diseases. Guaranteed at Trout's Drug Store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

ASSAULTED BY BURGLAR.

Former Fulton County Man Attacked at his home in Huntingdon.

Will J. Forbes, Esq., a former resident of Fort Littleton, had an experience with a burglar last Saturday evening that he will not likely forget soon.

Mr. Forbes at ten o'clock Saturday evening telephoned to his wife from his office that he would not be home for two or three hours. When he arrived home at between twelve and one o'clock as he was on the Fifth street porch and about to enter the house a man in noiseless footwear ran around the lower end of the porch and up to Church street then down toward Fourth street. Mr. Forbes went to the corner of his house to see where the man had gone when another man struck him on the neck felling him to the pavement. Defending himself with one of his crutches as he was partly getting up he struck the man with his crutch and beat him off, the man running along Church street toward Sixth. Mr. Forbes made an outcry and the neighbors came to him.

An Open Letter.

McCONNELLSBURG, PENN'A., September 3, 1904.

DEAR MAUD,—

We arrived home safely yesterday afternoon. Mother was much fatigued and almost exhausted when we reached home. We wish to thank you for your kindness to us while shopping in Chambersburg; indeed, we cannot forget your many courtesies. Mother talks continually of the many beautiful things she saw at Ludwig's Jewelry Store. The table filled with cut glass was especially interesting to her; as was, also, the Tiffany Favrite Glass and the Teo Art Pottery with its soft, velvety green surfaces. The tiny little gold watch, you remember—just the size of a silver ten cent piece—amused her very much. I would just love to own that beautiful Opal and Diamond cluster ring at $110 or the Solitaire Diamond at $245. I never saw such lovely Silver Table Ware, especially the colonial designs. Indeed I could talk on this subject all night. Come over soon.

Yours in haste, HELEN.

RACKET STORE.

In our last ad we mentioned Castor Machine oil at 25c gallon and said it was the same goods sold by other merchants at 35c. We have now sold well on to 50 gallons, and are told by responsible farmers that it is better oil than they paid 35c a gallon for.

1 pint glass jars 45c; quarts, 48c; half gallon, 65c. Jar caps with rings 20c. the heaviest jar gums 5c, lighter ones 3c dozen. The heaviest milk cans on the market—8 gallon size and the one you have been paying $2.35 for—our price $1.95.

Shoes! Shoes! Shoes!

It is impossible for us to give you prices on these goods. We would like to have you call and see the largest and best line of shoes you have ever looked at, and at prices that can't be matched in the county.

We have the nicest line of buckets and granite ware we ever had. We have the blue, green and white inside in preserving kettles and pans from 15 to 48c. Tin buckets—10 quarts to 14 quarts, 10 to 35c; also, coffee pots of same ware.

Shirts and overalls all sizes and at all prices. Call and see our line. It won't cost you one cent.
